Sacramento County
Custody of Minors -- Child Abduction and Recovery Program
FY 2016-2019
Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976;
Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992; and
Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996.
Department of Finance, Requester

I, John Black, declare as follows:

1. I am employed as the Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services for the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, and if called as a witness could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I researched Sacramento County COMPASS data system from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019 to determine the costs incurred by Sacramento County for the legislatively-mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The research required retrieving the transactions for Fund Center 5805812, which is a unique identifier assigned to the District Attorney State Targeted Offender Program. This information is added by District Attorney's staff, in the regular course of a business, who contemporaneously enter costs associated with state-mandated programs. A billing report was run for the Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the fiscal year from July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018. This process created a data record that provides an accurate and true accounting of the available records and associated costs.

3. The following Attachment, County of Sacramento, COMPASS Accounting Journal for fiscal year 2018, reflects billings from July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018 associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program during this time period totaling $4,848,318.96.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on November 13, 2024, in Sacramento, California.

John Black
Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services
Sacramento County District Attorney's Office

Sacramento County
Custody of Minors -- Child Abduction and Recovery Program
FY 2016-2019
Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976;
Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992; and
Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996.
Department of Finance, Requester

I, John Black, declare as follows:

1. I am employed as the Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services for the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, and if called as a witness could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I researched Sacramento County Cost Allocation Plan files from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019 to determine the costs incurred by Sacramento County for the legislatively-mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. This information is reported to the California State Controller's Office. The research required retrieving the Cost Allocation Plan and pulling the costs reported under billing code 0015812 STATETAR, which is a unique identifier assigned to the District Attorney State Targeted Offender Program. This information is added by District Attorney' staff, in the regular course of a business, who contemporaneously enter costs associated with state-mandated programs. A billing report was run for the Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the fiscal year from July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018. This process created a data record that provides an accurate and true accounting of the available records and associated costs.

3. The following Attachment, County of Sacramento, California OMB A87 Cost Allocation Plan, page 10, for July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018, shows the costs associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program during this time period totaling $6,044.[1]

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on November 13, 2024, in Sacramento, California.

John Black
Sacramento County District Attorney's Office

Attachment: Sacramento County, OMB A87 Cost Allocation Plan for July 1, 2017-June 30, 2018, page 6.

[1] The total County Cost Allocation Plan is 354 pages in length, but only page 10 addresses costs associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The full document was omitted for efficiency but can be produced if necessary.

I, John Black, declare as follows:

1. I am employed as the Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services for the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, and if called as a witness could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I researched the District Attorney's files from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019 to determine the costs incurred by Sacramento County for the legislatively-mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The research required involved logging into the District Attorney's proprietary Timetrack system, where staff, in the regular course of a business, contemporaneously enter their time spent on state-mandated programs. A billing report was run for the Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the fiscal year from July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019. This process created a data record that provides an accurate and true accounting of the available records and associated costs.

3. The following Attachment, Stop Billing Detail Report for July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019, is the data record created, consists of 675 pages, and provides a listing of the personnel cost amounts claimed during this time period amounting in 4,555.99 hours, totaling $463,009.12.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on November 13, 2024, in Sacramento, California.

John Black
Sacramento County District Attorney's Office

Sacramento County
Custody of Minors -- Child Abduction and Recovery Program
FY 2016-2019
Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976;
Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992; and
Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996.
Department of Finance, Requester

I, John Black, declare as follows:

1. I am employed as the Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services for the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, and if called as a witness could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I researched Sacramento County COMPASS data system from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019 to determine the costs incurred by Sacramento County for the legislatively-mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The research required retrieving the transactions for Fund Center 5805812, which is a unique identifier assigned to the District Attorney State Targeted Offender Program. This information is added by District Attorney's staff, in the regular course of a business, who contemporaneously enter costs associated with state-mandated programs. A billing report was run for the Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the fiscal year from July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019. This process created a data record that provides an accurate and true accounting of the available records and associated costs.

3. The following Attachment, County of Sacramento, COMPASS Accounting Journal for fiscal year 2019, reflects billings from July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program during this time period totaling $5,099,746.94.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on November 13, 2024, in Sacramento, California.

John Black
Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services

Department of Finance, Requester

I, John Black, declare as follows:

1. I am employed as the Chief, Administrative & Fiscal Services for the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, and if called as a witness could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I researched Sacramento County Cost Allocation Plan files from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019 to determine the costs incurred by Sacramento County for the legislatively-mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. This information is reported to the California State Controller's Office. The research required retrieving the Cost Allocation Plan and pulling the costs reported under billing code 0015812 STATETAR, which is a unique identifier assigned to the District Attorney State Targeted Offender Program. This information is added by District Attorney' staff, in the regular course of a business, who contemporaneously enter costs associated with state-mandated programs. A billing report was run for the Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the fiscal year from July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019. This process created a data record that provides an accurate and true accounting of the available records and associated costs.

3. The following Attachment, County of Sacramento, California OMB A87 Cost Allocation Plan, page 9, for July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019, shows the costs associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program during this time period totaling $4,192.[1]

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on November 13, 2024, in Sacramento, California.

Office of the State Controller

Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery – Program No. 13

Revised September 1, 2019

In accordance with Government Code (GC) sections 17560 and 17561, eligible claimants may submit claims to the State Controller's Office (SCO) for reimbursement of costs incurred for state-mandated cost programs. This document contains claiming instructions and forms that eligible claimants must use for filing claims for the Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery program. SCO issues these claiming instructions subsequent to the Commission on State Mandates (CSM) adopting the Parameters and Guidelines (Ps & Gs). The amended Ps & Gs are included as an integral part of the claiming instructions.

On September 19, 1979, CSM adopted a Statement of Decision finding that the test claim legislation imposes a reimbursable state-mandated program on local agencies within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution and GC section 17514.

On October 30, 2009, CSM approved the amendments to the Ps & Gs to clarify the source documentation requirements and record retention language, as requested by the SCO.

Exception

There will be no reimbursement for any period in which the Legislature has suspended the operation of a mandate pursuant to state law.

Eligible Claimants

Any county, as defined in GC section 17515, that incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim for reimbursement.

Reimbursement Claim Deadline

Pursuant to GC section 17560(a), annual reimbursement claims may be filed by February 15 following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred. If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, claims are due the following business day. Claims filed after the deadline must be reduced by a late penalty. Claims filed more than one year after the deadline will not be accepted.

Penalty

- Initial Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the initial filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the total amount of the initial claim without limitation pursuant to GC section 17561(d)(3).

- Annual Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the annual filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the claim amount, not to exceed $10,000, pursuant to GC section 17568.

Minimum Claim Cost

GC section 17564(a), states that no claim may be filed pursuant to sections 17551 and 17561, unless such a claim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Reimbursement of Claims

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. These costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating: "I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct," and must further comply with the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 2015.5.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, these documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

Audit of Costs

All claims submitted to SCO are subject to review to determine if costs are related to the mandate, are reasonable and not excessive, and if the claim was prepared in accordance with the SCO's claiming instructions and the Ps & Gs adopted by CSM. If any adjustments are made to a claim, the claimant will be notified of the amount adjusted, and the reason for the adjustment.

On-site audits will be conducted by SCO as deemed necessary. Pursuant to GC section 17558.5(a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a claimant is subject to audit by SCO no later than three years after the date the actual reimbursement claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds were appropriated or no payment was made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim.

All documents used to support the reimbursable activities must be retained during the period subject to audit. If an audit has been initiated by SCO during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings. Supporting documents must be made available to SCO on request.

Record Retention

All documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for a period of three years after the date the claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. If no funds were appropriated or no payment was made at the time the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will be from the date of initial payment of the claim. Therefore, all documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for the same period, and must be made available to SCO on request.

Claim Submission

Submit a signed original Form FAM-27 and one copy with required documents. Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.

Mandated costs claiming instructions and forms are available online at the SCO's website: www.sco.ca.gov/ard_mancost.html.

State Controller's Office, Claimant

July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561 (d) (3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of issuance of the claiming instructions by the State Controller.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by Government Code Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge." Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The claimant is only allowed to claim and be reimbursed for increased costs for reimbursable activities identified below. Increased cost is limited to the cost of an activity that the claimant is required to incur as a result of the mandate.

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in

Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, all direct and indirect costs of labor, materials and supplies, training and travel for the following activities are eligible for reimbursement:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child(ren).

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with court orders.

      (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (4) Depositions.

   c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

      (1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

      (2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

   a. Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

Claims for reimbursement must be timely filed and identify each cost element for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate. Claimed costs must be identified to each reimbursable activity identified in Section V of this document.

A. Direct Costs

Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions.

Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended, and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes, and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.

B. Indirect Costs

Indirect costs are defined as costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved. Indirect costs may include both (1) overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate, and (2) the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.

Compensation for indirect costs is eligible for reimbursement utilizing the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87. Claimants have the option of using 10% of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP) for the department if the indirect cost rate claimed exceeds 10%. If more than one department is claiming indirect costs for the mandated program, each department must have its own ICRP prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-87. An ICRP must be submitted with the claim when the indirect cost rate exceeds 10%.

1. Reimbursements

   On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

   In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

   Any amount received by a county and forwarded directly to the state, must be reported on the cost summary form, but will not reduce the amount of the claim.

2. Mileage and Travel

   Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

VIII. RECORD RETENTION

Pursuant to Government Code section 17558.5, subdivision (a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a local agency or school district pursuant to this chapter1 is subject to the initiation of an audit by the Controller no later than three years after the date that the actual reimbursement claim is filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds are appropriated or no payment is made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim is filed, the time for the Controller to initiate an audit shall commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim. In any case, an audit shall be completed not later than two years after the date that the audit is commenced. All documents used to support the reimbursable activities, as described in Section V, must be retained during the period subject to audit. If the Controller has initiated an audit during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings.

1 This refers to Title 2, division 4, part 7, chapter 4 of the Government Code.

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from the claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

An authorized representative of the claimant will be required to provide a certification of the claim, as specified in the State Controller's claiming instructions, for those costs mandated by the state contained therein.

PROGRAM 013	CUSTODY OF MINORS-CHILD ABDUCTION AND RECOVERY CLAIM FOR PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS	FORM FAM-27

(01) Enter the claimant identification number assigned by the State Controller's Office.

(02) Enter claimant official name, county of location, street or postal office box address, city, State, and zip code.

(03) to (08) Leave blank.

(09) If filing a reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (09) Reimbursement.

(10) Not applicable.

(11) If filing an amended reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (11) Amended.

(12) Enter the fiscal year for which actual costs are being claimed. If actual costs for more than one fiscal year are being claimed, complete a separate Form FAM-27 for each fiscal year.

(13) Enter the amount of the reimbursement claim as shown on Form 1 line (11). The total claimed amount must exceed $1,000; minimum claim must be $1,001.

(14) Initial reimbursement claims must be filed as specified in the claiming instructions. Annual reimbursement claims must be filed by February 15, or otherwise specified in the claiming instructions, following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred or the claims must be reduced by a late penalty. Enter zero if the claim filed on time. Otherwise, enter the penalty amount as a result of the calculation formula as follows:

- Late Initial Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27 line (13) multiplied by 10%, without limitation; or
- Late Annual Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27, line (13) multiplied by 10%, late penalty not to exceed $10,000.

(15) Enter the amount of payment, if any, received for the claim. If no payment was received, enter zero.

(16) Enter the net claimed amount by subtracting the sum of lines (14) and (15) from line (13).

(17) If line (16), Net Claimed Amount, is positive, enter that amount on line (17), Due from State.

(18) If line (16), Net Claimed Amount, is negative, enter that amount on line (18), Due to State.

(19) to (21) Leave blank.

(22) to (29) Bring forward the cost information as specified on the left-hand column of lines (22) through (29) for the reimbursement claim, e.g., Form 1, (04) 1. (f), means the information is located on Form 1, block (04), line 1., column (f). Enter the information on the same line but in the right-hand column. Cost information should be rounded to the nearest dollar, i.e., no cents. The indirect costs percentage should be shown as a whole number and without the percent symbol, i.e., 35.19% should be shown as 35. Completion of this data block will expedite the process.

(30) to (36) Leave blank.

(37) Read the statement of Certification of Claim. The claim must be signed and dated by the agency's authorized officer, type or print name and title, telephone number, and email address. Claims cannot be paid unless accompanied by an original signed certification. (Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.)

(38) Enter the name, telephone number, and email address of the agency contact person for the claim. If the claim was prepared by a consultant, type or print the name of the consulting firm, the claim preparer, telephone number, and email address.

PROGRAM 013	CUSTODY OF MINORS-CHILD ABDUCTION AND RECOVERY CLAIM SUMMARY INSTRUCTIONS	FORM 1

(01) Enter the name of the claimant.

(02) Enter the fiscal year of claim.

(03) If more than one department has incurred costs for this mandate, give the name of each department. A separate Form 1 should be completed for each department.

(05) Total columns (a) through (f).

(06) Indirect costs may be computed as 10% of direct labor costs, excluding fringe benefits, without preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP). If an indirect cost rate of greater than 10% is used, include the ICRP with the claim.

(07) Local agencies have the option of using the flat rate of 10% of direct labor costs or using a department's ICRP in accordance with Office of Management and Budget Circular 2 CFR, Chapter I and Chapter II, Part 200 et al. If the flat rate is used for indirect costs, multiply Total Salaries, line (05)(a), by 10%. If an ICRP is submitted, multiply applicable costs used in the distribution base for the computation of the indirect cost rate by the Indirect Cost Rate, line (06). If more than one department is reporting costs, each must have its own ICRP for the program.

(08) Enter the sum of Total Direct Costs, line (05)(f), and Total Indirect Costs, line (07).

(09) If applicable, enter any offsetting revenue received by the claimant for this mandate from any state or federal source. Submit a schedule detailing the revenue sources and amounts.

(10) If applicable, enter the amount of other reimbursements received from any source including, but not limited to, service fees collected, federal funds, and other state funds that reimbursed any portion of the mandated cost program. Submit a schedule detailing the reimbursement sources and amounts.

Note: Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s), (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown on Form 1.2 and must also be used as an offset against these cases.

(11) From the Total Direct and Indirect Costs, line (08), subtract the sum of Offsetting Revenues, line (09), and Other Reimbursements, line (10). Enter the remainder on this line and carry the amount forward to Form FAM-27, line (13) of the Reimbursement Claim.

Joyce Renison, Assistant Auditor-Controller
Sacramento County
700 H Street, Room 3650
Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Ms. Renison:

The State Controller's Office (SCO) audited the costs claimed by Sacramento County for the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019.

The county claimed and was paid $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable. The costs are unallowable primarily because the county claimed costs for unallowable activities and did not claim actual costs.

Following issuance of this audit report, the SCO's Local Government Programs Services Division will notify the county of the adjustment to its claims via a system-generated letter for each fiscal year in the audit period.

This final audit report contains an adjustment to costs claimed by the county. If you disagree with the audit findings, you may file and Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) with the Commission on State Mandates (Commission). Pursuant to the Commission's regulations, outlined in Title 2, California Code of Regulations, section 1185.1, subdivision (c), an IRC challenging this adjustment must be filed with the Commission no later than three years following the date of this report, regardless of whether this report is subsequently supplemented, superseded, or otherwise amended. IRC information is available on the Commission's website at www.csm.ca.gov/forms/IRCForm.pdf.

If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Kurokawa, Chief, Compliance Audits Bureau, by telephone at (916) 327-3138.

Audit Report

Summary

The State Controller's Office (SCO) audited the costs claimed by Sacramento County for the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019.

The county claimed and was paid $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable. The costs are unallowable primarily because the county claimed costs for unallowable activities and did not claim actual costs.

Background

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, established the Child Abduction and Recovery mandated program, based on the following laws:

- Civil Code section 4600.1 (repealed and added as Family Code sections 3060 through 3064 by Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992);
- Penal Code (PC) sections 278 and 278.5 (repealed and added as PC sections 277, 278, and 278.5 by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996); and
- Welfare and Institutions Code section 11478.5 (repealed and added as Family Code section 17506 by Chapter 478, Statutes of 1999; last amended by Chapter 759, Statutes of 2002).

These laws require the District Attorney's Office to assist persons having legal custody of a child in:

- Locating their children when they are unlawfully taken away;
- Gaining enforcement of custody and visitation decrees and orders to appear;
- Defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted, or concealed child;
- Civil court action proceedings; and
- Guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions.

On September 19, 1979, the State Board of Control (now the Commission on State Mandates) determined that this legislation imposed a state mandate reimbursable under Government Code (GC) section 17561.

The parameters and guidelines establish the state mandate and define the reimbursement criteria. The Commission on State Mandates adopted the parameters and guidelines on January 21, 1981; they were last amended on October 30, 2009. In compliance with GC section 17558, the SCO issues claiming instructions for mandated programs to assist local agencies in claiming reimbursable costs.

Audit Authority

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with GC sections 17558.5 and 17561, which authorize the SCO to audit the county's records to verify the actual amount of the mandated costs. In addition, GC section 12410 provides the SCO with general audit authority to audit the disbursement of state money for correctness, legality, and sufficient provisions of law.

Objective, Scope, and Methodology

The objective of our audit was to determine whether costs claimed represent increased costs resulting from the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. Specifically, we conducted this audit to determine whether costs claimed were supported by appropriate source documents, were not funded by another source, and were not unreasonable and/or excessive.[1]

The audit period was July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019.

To achieve our objective, we completed the following tasks:

- We reviewed the annual mandated cost claims filed by the county for the audit period and identified the significant cost components of each claim as salaries and benefits, materials and supplies, travel and training, and indirect costs. We determined whether there were any errors or unusual or unexpected variances from year to year. We reviewed the activities claimed to determine whether they adhered to the SCO's claiming instructions and the program's parameters and guidelines.
- We completed an internal control questionnaire by interviewing key county staff. We discussed the claim preparation process with county staff to determine what information was obtained, who obtained it, and how it was used.
- We reviewed activity codes charged by the county and job descriptions for the audit period.
- We judgmentally selected the following cases for review:
  - Fiscal year (FY) 2016-17 – six cases, which equaled 21% of Salaries and Benefits claimed for the year;
  - FY 2017-18 – nine cases, which equaled 20% of Salaries and Benefits claimed for the year; and
  - FY 2018-19 – 10 cases, which equaled 20% of Salaries and Benefits claimed for the year.
- We isolated the claimed costs associated with standard distributed time, as these costs are not specifically for the mandated cost program. 100% of these costs are unallowable (see Finding 1 for more information).

[1] Unreasonable and/or excessive costs include ineligible costs that are not identified in the program's parameters and guidelines as reimbursable costs.

- We isolated the claimed costs associated with PC section 278.7 (commonly known as "good cause" cases), as these cases are not allowable per the program's parameters and guidelines. 100% of these costs are unallowable (see Finding 1 for more information).

- We traced claimed productive hourly rates for the audit period to county-provided personnel budget schedules. We noted no exceptions to the claimed productive hourly rates.

- We reviewed claimed materials and supplies costs and found that the county claimed costs that were allocated to the State Targeted Offenders Unit as direct costs applicable to the mandated program, although the costs were not actual costs supported by source documentation. Per the program's parameters and guidelines, only actual costs are allowed. We found $217,020 in materials and supplies costs to be unallowable (see Finding 2 for more information).

- We reviewed 100% of the claimed travel and training costs for the audit period. We found immaterial variances in the claimed travel and training costs that did not result in a finding.

- We reviewed the claimed indirect cost rates, including supporting documentation provided by the county. We found that the indirect cost rates were properly supported.

- We interviewed county personnel and reviewed the county's Single Audit Reports and revenues reports to identify potential sources of offsetting revenues and reimbursements from federal or pass-through programs applicable to this mandated program. We found that the county did not receive any funding for this mandate that should be offset from claimed costs.

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain sufficient, appropriate evidence to provide a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objective. We believe that the evidence obtained provides a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objective.

We did not audit the county's financial statements.

Conclusion

As a result of performing the audit procedures, we found instances of noncompliance with the requirements described in our audit objective. We did not find that the county claimed costs that were funded by other sources; however, we did find that it claimed unsupported and ineligible costs, as quantified in the Schedule and described in the Findings and Recommendations section of this audit report.

For the audit period, the county claimed and was paid $1,885,876 for costs of the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable.

Following issuance of this audit report, the SCO's Local Government Programs and Services Division will notify the county of the adjustment to its claims via a system-generated letter for each fiscal year in the audit period.

Follow-up on Prior Audit Findings

The county has satisfactorily resolved the findings noted in our prior audit report for the period of July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2003, issued on August 5, 2005.

Views of Responsible Officials

We issued a draft report on November 17, 2021. John Black, CPA, Chief, Administrative and Fiscal Services, responded by letter dated December 10, 2021, disagreeing with the audit results. This final audit report includes the county's response.

Restricted Use

This audit report is solely for the information and use of Sacramento County, the California Department of Finance, and the SCO; it is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties. This restriction is not intended to limit distribution of this audit report, which is a matter of public record and is available on the SCO website at www.sco.ca.gov.

Findings and Recommendations

FINDING 1—
Overstated salaries and benefit costs and related indirect costs

The county claimed $1,210,415 in salaries and benefits for the audit period. We determined that $1,024,012 is allowable and $186,403 is unallowable. The related unallowable indirect costs total $61,671, for total unallowable costs of $248,074. The costs are unallowable because the county claimed time for activities performed for "good cause" cases, and did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities.

The following table summarizes the overstated salaries and benefits, the related indirect costs, and the audit adjustment:

		FY 2016-17	FY 2017-18	FY 2018-19	Total
Overstated salaries and benefits:
"Good cause" cases (PC section 278.7)		$ (9,910)	$ (6,757)	$ (15,609)	$ (32,276)
Standard distributed time		(40,314)	(44,849)	(68,964)	(154,127)
Total unallowable salaries and benefits	A	(50,224)	(51,606)	(84,573)	(186,403)
Claimed indirect cost rate	B	34.96%	31.58%	32.89%
Related indirect costs (A × B)	C	(17,558)	(16,297)	(27,816)	(61,671)
Audit adjustment (A + C)	D	$ (67,782)	$ (67,903)	$ (112,389)	$ (248,074)

Standard Distributed Time

The county claimed time for employees working on non-program-specific activities—including supervisory, general clerical, and billing—for the State Targeted Offenders Unit. This time is categorized as standard distributed (SD) time, and is allocated monthly, based on the unit's case load for all programs. The time is then spread amongst the programs based on the full-time equivalent percentage for each program.

We determined that $154,127 claimed for SD time salaries and benefits is unallowable, because SD time is not actual time spent on traceable mandated activities.

Section V, "Reimbursable Costs," of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

"Good Cause" Cases

The county claimed time spent on activities for PC section 278.7 cases (commonly referred to as "good cause" cases). We determined that the salaries and benefits claimed, totaling $32,276, are unallowable because the parameters and guidelines do not identify activities related to PC section 278.7 cases as a reimbursable cost.

The parameters and guidelines incorporate requirements of PC sections 278 and 278.5, as amended by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996. This law, known as the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, also added section 278.7 to the Penal Code. However, PC section 278.7 was not incorporated into the parameters and guidelines; therefore, any costs claimed under this section are not reimbursable.

Recommendation

We recommend that the county:

- Follow the mandated program claiming instructions and the parameters and guidelines when preparing its reimbursement claims; and
- Ensure that claimed costs include only eligible costs, are based on actual costs, and are properly supported.

County Response

Standard Distributed Times

The Audit Report concluded that salaries and benefits for Standard Distributed (SD) time in the amount of $154,127 claimed by the DA's Office during the audit period (July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2019) were unallowable. We do not agree with this finding.

California Family Code sections 3130 through 3134.5 mandate that District Attorneys assist the courts in enforcing their child custody and visitation orders and in locating and returning children who have been taken or detained in violation of another person's custody right. Prosecutors are authorized to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding to assist the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children. District Attorneys' child abduction work is reimbursable by the state under the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate.

The DA's Office has a State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP), which consists of our Child Abduction and Recovery Program, CDCR prison prosecutions, and other state-reimbursed programs. This allows for consolidation of supervisory, clerical, and other general costs such as rent, phones, office supplies, and insurance for which the state will provide reimbursement. These costs were then subdivided amongst the various state-reimbursed programs within STOP, directly allocating those expenses to the appropriate program according to time studies. Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state. Many of these employees work exclusively on Child Abduction and Recovery cases. For other employees who provided supportive activities, such as clerical, supervisory, and billing, when they recorded time generally, those hours were proportioned based on the number of worked during the month. If not for state mandate, the DA's Office would not have had these dedicated employees and their related costs of employment handling Child Abduction and Recovery matters. The DA's Office allocated and claimed these costs using what was believed to be a reasonable methodology, which was applied consistently and not disproportionately allocated to this mandated program. The time claimed was general administrative time on behalf of eligible cases as a whole, spread amongst the programs based on the full-time equivalent percentage for each program.

In finding that this methodology was unallowable, the audit relied upon and quoted the following language from section V of the 2009 Custody of Minors: Child Abduction and Recovery Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines ("Parameters and Guidelines"):

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Furthermore, the auditor noted that each cost had to be attributed to an actual case. However, the language of section V does not require that all costs be attributed to an actual case. Instead, it uses the language of "actual costs" (emphasis added). These are defined as "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities." It specifically allows the use of "employee time records or time logs" as a methodology to show actual costs. Additionally, section V goes on to provide that evidence corroborating the validity of costs may include "worksheets" and "cost allocation reports (system generated)." Section V by its very terms anticipates and allows for allocating costs. Subsection A of section V provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…." This includes both direct and indirect costs.

The DA's Office has properly submitted for reimbursement those increased costs which it was required to incur in order to conduct the mandated activities related to Child Abduction and Recovery. The DA's Office used time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program. These reflect the DA's actual costs associated with providing these mandated actions. The DA's Office consolidation of services saves the state by avoiding duplicative costs.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will individually track administrative time by case. Adjustments have been made to update time keeping so that all costs are directly charged to the specific case worked.

"Good Cause" Cases

Child abduction cases take many different forms, oftentimes evolving as an investigation unfolds. Complaints of a child abduction are received and reviewed by DA staff. It is not uncommon that while investigating a complaint, the DA's Office will be contacted by the alleged offender with a "Good Cause" claim pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7 that the person has a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or physical harm. Furthermore, frequently the DA's Office will receive multiple complaints regarding the same child or children and involved parties, which may relate back to a prior "Good Cause" claim, but each new complaint must be investigated anew.

The Audit Report noted that, even if otherwise in the context of a child abduction investigation, "Good Cause" cases are unallowable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to section 278.7 cases as a reimbursable cost. The finding determined that the DA's Office claimed unallowable costs in the amount of $32,276 related to "Good Cause" cases. We do not agree with this finding.

The Legislature created the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate by statute in 1976. The code sections that set forth these provisions and the specific mandates were thereafter repealed and reissued with different section numbers. Former Civil Code section 4604 was reissued as Family Code sections 3130 and 3131. Family Code section 3130 provides that if a petition to determine custody of a child has been filed in court or a temporary order pending determination of custody has been entered, and the whereabouts of a party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe that the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for purposes of adjudication of custody. Family Code section 3131 provides that if a custody or visitation order has been entered and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order, as well as assist in enforcement of the custody or visitation order or other order of the court by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceeding. Neither section provides for or mentions a "Good Cause" exception. Although such a claim may arise in the course of an investigation, District Attorneys are still mandated by statute to take all actions necessary in locating the parties and procuring compliance, which would necessarily involve an evaluation of any "Good Cause" claim that is made.

Furthermore, as previously noted, subsection A of section V in the Parameters and Guidelines provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…" (emphasis added). Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

In creating the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate in 1976, the Legislature added, amongst other things, two specific Penal Code provisions that prosecutors could charge as part of their authorization to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceedings to assist, as mandated, the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children (these two criminal provisions were later renumbered as Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5). In 1996, the Legislature added Penal Code section 278.7, which provides a specific exception for prosecutions under section 278.5 for "Good Cause" claims. Essentially, section 278.7 creates a defense to prosecution under section 278.5.

Part of investigating a potential criminal matter involves a determination of whether any particular defenses would excuse or justify the behavior, thus negating the possibility of successfully utilizing criminal proceedings to prosecute the matter. Imagine the state mandated that DA's Offices investigate homicide cases under Penal Code section 187. However, Penal Code section 196 sets forth when a homicide may be justified, which includes homicides committed in self-defense. Using the same logic followed in the Audit Report, prosecutors would not be entitled to reimbursement for investigation for any homicide where the investigation led to a determination that the homicide was committed in self-defense because Penal Code section 196 is a different provision than section 187. However, it is still a homicide. Similarly, "Good Cause" cases are still a form of child abduction, where one person has deprived another of lawful custody or visitation, but for a lawfully excused reason.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will review and modify its method of tracking "Good Cause" cases. Additional training has been provided to staff. Time will be tracked to the appropriate case and case review will occur prior to reimbursement request.

A change in allowable indirect costs of $61,671 was associated with the adjustments from the SD times and "Good Cause" cases. The method of determining the indirect cost was not subject to a finding.

SCO's Response

Our finding and recommendation remain unchanged.

Standard Distributed Times

In an email from the county dated February 3, 2021, the county explained the SD time as follows:

This is time spent working on non-program specific activities for the [State Targeted Offenders] unit as a whole. For example, a clerical person performs the mail run which takes 2.0 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the whole unit. If we only worked on 4 cases that month, (1 Child Abduction, 1 SVP, 1 Prisons and 1 WF), each case in the month would get the 2.0 hours spread based on the FTE percentage for each unit.

Section V. (Reimbursable Activities) of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Per the county, SD time is spent working on "non-program specific activities." As these claimed costs are non-program-specific, we are unable to determine the validity of these costs and their relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Furthermore, the county separately identified, and claimed, a category called Program Distributed (PD) time. The county explained in an email dated February 3, 2021:

> This is time spent working on a program but not a specific case. When entered in the system, it spreads this time over all the cases that were worked on in that specific program for the month. For example, a clerical person work on updating the child abduction logs for 2 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the Child Abduction program. If we only worked on 2 child abduction cases throughout the month, each case would show 1.0 hours of PD – General Clerical billing.

We determined that PD time was allowable, as the activities performed were directly related the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. Any disallowed PD time was directly attributable to time spent on activities related to PC section 278.7 cases (commonly referred to as "good cause" cases). These cases are not incorporated into the program's parameters and guidelines.

The county states "Furthermore, the auditor noted that each cost had to be attributed to an actual case." We disagree with this statement.

As stated in the county's response, "Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state." For the time claimed for employees' activities performed directly on cases, we requested case files to determine the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. The county disagrees with the exclusion of SD time as part this audit report, but its own records already segregate SD time and PD time. PD time is directly attributable to Child Abductions cases, but SD time is for "non-program specific" activities and, per the program's parameters and guidelines, is not considered an "actual cost."

"Good Cause" Cases

The county states:

> Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

We disagree. The costs do not "fall within the mandated activities," because activities for PC 278.7 are not identified in the parameters and guidelines.

During the audit, the county provided a list of "good cause" cases that it had misidentified. As stated by the county in an email on August 27, 2021, "The cases were reported to the county as 'Good Cause' cases but turned out to be child abduction cases after all." Therefore, we allowed the time spent on mandated activities performed on these misidentified cases. All other "good cause" cases confirmed by the county, and the associated time claimed, were disallowed.

FINDING 2— Overstated materials and supplies costs

The county claimed a total of $260,652 in materials and supplies costs for the audit period. We determined that $43,632 is allowable and $217,020 is unallowable. These costs are unallowable because the county claimed costs that were allocated to the State Targeted Offenders Unit, rather than actual costs supported by source documentation.

The following table shows the materials and supplies costs claimed by the State Targeted Offenders Unit, the allowable costs, and the audit adjustment by fiscal year:

Fiscal Year	Amount Claimed	Amount Allowable	Audit Adjustment
2016-17	$ 67,970	$ 2,966	$ (65,004)
2017-18	81,806	7,937	(73,869)
2018-19	110,876	32,729	(78,147)
	$260,652	$ 43,632	$(217,020)

The county developed a methodology for allocating a percentage of materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit as direct costs applicable to the mandated program. For each fiscal year, the county calculated the ratio of the State Targeted Offenders Unit's program-related salaries and benefits to the unit's total salaries and benefits. To determine program-related materials and supplies costs, the county applied the applicable percentage to the materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit.

The following table illustrates the methodology used to calculate the State Targeted Offenders Unit's materials and supplies costs, and the related audit adjustments by fiscal year.

	Fiscal Year
	2016-17			2017-18			2018-19			Total
Costs for the State Targeted Offenders Unit	Total Claimed	Total Allowable	Total Adj.	Total Claimed	Total Allowable	Total Adj.	Total Claimed	Total Allowable	Total Adj.	Total Audit Adj.
Non-salary and benefit costs	$ 737,151	-		$ 788,279	-		$ 747,223	-
Less: travel and training	(18,842)	-		(21,113)	-		(23,290)	-
Non-travel and training costs	718,309	-		767,166	-		723,933	-
Percent of salaries and benefits related to program ×	9.0495%	-		9.6288%	-		10.7948%	-
Non-travel and training costs reported as direct program materials and supplies	65,004	-		73,869	-		78,147	-
Actual direct materials and supplies	2,966	2,966		7,937	7,937		32,729	32,729
Total materials and supplies costs	$ 67,970	$ 2,966	$(65,004)	$ 81,806	$ 7,937	$(73,869)	$ 110,876	$ 32,729	$(78,147)	$(217,020)

Based on the documentation provided, we determined that a total of $217,020 in materials and supplies costs is unallowable. The costs are unallowable because the county did not claim actual costs that were supported by source documentation.

Section V., "Reimbursable Costs," of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Recommendation

We recommend that the county:

- Follow the mandated program claiming instructions and the parameters and guidelines when preparing its reimbursement claims; and
- Ensure that claimed costs include only eligible costs, are based on actual costs, and are properly supported.

County's Response

> As previously noted in the Standard Distributed Times discussion in response to Finding 1, the DA's Office similarly relied on the reasonable methodology of cost allocation based on full-time equivalents (FTEs) to determine materials and supplies costs for this program. These costs include California mandated employment costs, general office supplies, computer infrastructure, phones, and leased facilities charges all used by staff working on the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The Audit Report concluded that $217,020 in materials and supplies costs were unallowable. The auditor noted that each cost had to be directly attributable to a particular case. We do not agree with this finding.
> The employees who worked on child abduction matters tracked their time and only noted billable hours for reimbursable activities. From this, it can be calculated what percentage of their time was spent on reimbursable mandated activities, which then was used to determine the actual cost of related materials and supplies used in those efforts. As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. This audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.
> To analyze this finding further, the cost of phones can be used as an example. Employees need phones to do their jobs. A service fee is imposed to have that phone available. According to the auditor, the DA's Office can only charge for the cost of the phone attributable to a particular case, i.e., the minutes spent on the phone per actual case. Some > of these employees worked exclusively on child abduction cases. The remaining employees split time working on child abduction cases and other state-mandated activities, for which they tracked their time. They would not have had a phone for this particular work if not mandated to perform these functions. Denying this as an actual cost would be akin to saying reimbursement would not be available for the cost of a desk chair and would instead only be allowable for the portion of the cost of the chair for the actual minutes we could show spent sitting in it directly working on a particular case.

> To further show the validity of the methodology used by the DA's Office, the DA's Office provided an alternative cost allocation worksheet based on productive hourly rates and actual hours worked for further consideration. The alternative method totaled $222,966 after backing out the unallowed SD time. The disallowed claim amount based on current methodology was $217,020. The difference between the two methods is only $5,946, providing further evidence that the current methodology is comparably accurate and reasonable.
> We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will no longer request reimbursement using cost allocation methodologies. Management is working to implement a tracking mechanism for program costs so they can follow the claiming instructions as established in this audit process.

SCO's Response

Our finding and recommendation remain unchanged.

The county states "The auditor noted that each cost had to be directly attributable to a particular case." We disagree.

The county claimed both direct and allocated materials and supplies costs. For the direct materials and supplies costs claimed, we requested support to show the validity of claimed costs and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. The county supported the costs with child abduction and recovery case files. The county provided the related case files, and we determined that all direct materials supplies costs were allowable. We noted no exceptions for the direct materials and supplies costs claimed.

The county developed a methodology for allocating a percentage of materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit as direct costs applicable to the mandated program. These costs were allocated across all programs within the State Targeted Offenders Unit, but were claimed as direct costs directly attributable to the Child Abduction program.

The county states:

> As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. This audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.

We disagree. Cost allocation reports are considered corroborating documents and not source documents.

Section V. (Reimbursable Activities) of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual costs were incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.
> Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations …However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The county must claim only the actual costs for the reimbursable program. Actual costs are supported by source documentation. Cost allocation reports are not considered source documents.

Re: Audit of Legislatively Mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program

Dear Ms. Kurokawa,

The Sacramento County District Attorney's (DA's) Office respectfully submits the following responses to the California State Controller's Audit Report regarding Sacramento County Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the period of July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2019.

Finding 1 – Overstated salaries and benefit costs and related indirect costs

Standard Distributed Times

The Audit Report concluded that salaries and benefits for Standard Distributed (SD) time in the amount of $154,127 claimed by the DA's Office during the audit period (July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2019) were unallowable. We do not agree with this finding.

California Family Code sections 3130 through 3134.5 mandate that District Attorneys assist the courts in enforcing their child custody and visitation orders and in locating and returning children who have been taken or detained in violation of another person's custody right. Prosecutors are authorized to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding to assist the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children. District Attorneys' child abduction work is reimbursable by the state under the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate.

The DA's Office has a State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP), which consists of our Child Abduction and Recovery Program, CDCR prison prosecutions, and other state-reimbursed programs. This allows for consolidation of supervisory, clerical, and other general costs such as rent, phones, office supplies, and insurance for which the state will provide reimbursement. These costs were then subdivided amongst the various state-reimbursed programs within STOP, directly allocating those expenses to the appropriate program according to time studies. Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state. Many of these employees work exclusively on Child Abduction and Recovery cases. For other employees who provided supportive activities, such as clerical, supervisory, and billing, when they recorded time generally, those hours were proportioned based on the number of worked during the month. If not for state mandate, the DA's Office would not have had these dedicated employees and their related costs of employment handling Child Abduction and Recovery matters. The DA's Office allocated and claimed these costs using what was believed to be a reasonable methodology, which was applied consistently and not disproportionately allocated to this mandated program. The time claimed was general administrative time on behalf of eligible cases as a whole, spread amongst the programs based on the full-time equivalent percentage for each program.

In finding that this methodology was unallowable, the audit relied upon and quoted the following language from section V of the 2009 Custody of Minors: Child Abduction and Recovery Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines ("Parameters and Guidelines"):

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Furthermore, the auditor noted that each cost had to be attributed to an actual case. However, the language of section V does not require that all costs be attributed to an actual case. Instead, it uses the language of "actual costs" (emphasis added). These are defined as "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities." It specifically allows the use of "employee time records or time logs" as a methodology to show actual costs. Additionally, section V goes on to provide that evidence corroborating the validity of costs may include "worksheets" and "cost allocation reports (system generated)." Section V by its very terms anticipates and allows for allocating costs. Subsection A of section V provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…." This includes both direct and indirect costs.

The DA's Office has properly submitted for reimbursement those increased costs which it was required to incur in order to conduct the mandated activities related to Child Abduction and Recovery. The DA's Office used time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program. These reflect the DA's actual costs associated with providing these mandated actions. The DA's Office consolidation of services saves the state by avoiding duplicative costs.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will individually track administrative time by case. Adjustments have been made to update time keeping so that all costs are directly charged to the specific case worked.

"Good Cause" Cases

Child abduction cases take many different forms, oftentimes evolving as an investigation unfolds. Complaints of a child abduction are received and reviewed by DA staff. It is not uncommon that while investigating a complaint, the DA's Office will be contacted by the alleged offender with a "Good Cause" claim pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7 that the person has a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or physical harm. Furthermore, frequently the DA's Office will receive multiple complaints regarding the same child or children and involved parties, which may relate back to a prior "Good Cause" claim, but each new complaint must be investigated anew.

The Audit Report noted that, even if otherwise in the context of a child abduction investigation, "Good Cause" cases are unallowable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to section 278.7 cases as a reimbursable cost. The finding determined that the DA's Office claimed unallowable costs in the amount of $32,276 related to "Good Cause" cases. We do not agree with this finding.

The Legislature created the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate by statute in 1976. The code sections that set forth these provisions and the specific mandates were thereafter repealed and reissued with different section numbers. Former Civil Code section 4604 was reissued as Family Code sections 3130 and 3131. Family Code section 3130 provides that if a petition to determine custody of a child has been filed in court or a temporary order pending determination of custody has been entered, and the whereabouts of a party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe that the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for purposes of adjudication of custody. Family Code section 3131 provides that if a custody or visitation order has been entered and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order, as well as assist in enforcement of the custody or visitation order or other order of the court by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceeding. Neither section provides for or mentions a "Good Cause" exception. Although such a claim may arise in the course of an investigation, District Attorneys are still mandated by statute to take all actions necessary in locating the parties and procuring compliance, which would necessarily involve an evaluation of any "Good Cause" claim that is made.

Furthermore, as previously noted, subsection A of section V in the Parameters and Guidelines provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…" (emphasis added). Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

In creating the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate in 1976, the Legislature added, amongst other things, two specific Penal Code provisions that prosecutors could charge as part of their authorization to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceedings to assist, as mandated, the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children (these two criminal provisions were later renumbered as Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5). In 1996, the Legislature added Penal Code section 278.7, which provides a specific exception for prosecutions under section 278.5 for "Good Cause" claims. Essentially, section 278.7 creates a defense to prosecution under section 278.5.

Part of investigating a potential criminal matter involves a determination of whether any particular defenses would excuse or justify the behavior, thus negating the possibility of successfully utilizing criminal proceedings to prosecute the matter. Imagine the state mandated that DA's Offices investigate homicide cases under Penal Code section 187. However, Penal Code section 196 sets forth when a homicide may be justified, which includes homicides committed in self-defense. Using the same logic followed in the Audit Report, prosecutors would not be entitled to reimbursement for investigation for any homicide where the investigation led to a determination that the homicide was committed in self-defense because Penal Code section 196 is a different provision than section 187. However, it is still a homicide. Similarly, "Good Cause" cases are still a form of child abduction, where one person has deprived another of lawful custody or visitation, but for a lawfully excused reason.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will review and modify its method of tracking "Good Cause" cases. Additional training has been provided to staff. Time will be tracked to the appropriate case and case review will occur prior to reimbursement request.

A change in allowable indirect costs of $61,671 was associated with the adjustments from the SD times and "Good Cause" cases. The method of determining the indirect cost was not subject to a finding.

Finding 2 – Overstated materials and supplies costs

As previously noted in the Standard Distributed Times discussion in response to Finding 1, the DA's Office similarly relied on the reasonable methodology of cost allocation based on full-time equivalents (FTEs) to determine materials and supplies costs for this program. These costs include California mandated employment costs, general office supplies, computer infrastructure, phones, and leased facilities charges all used by staff working on the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The Audit Report concluded that $217,020 in materials and supplies costs were unallowable. The auditor noted that each cost had to be directly attributable to a particular case. We do not agree with this finding.

The employees who worked on child abduction matters tracked their time and only noted billable hours for reimbursable activities. From this, it can be calculated what percentage of their time was spent on reimbursable mandated activities, which then was used to determine the actual cost of related materials and supplies used in those efforts. As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. This audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.

To analyze this finding further, the cost of phones can be used as an example. Employees need phones to do their jobs. A service fee is imposed to have that phone available. According to the auditor, the DA's Office can only charge for the cost of the phone attributable to a particular case, i.e., the minutes spent on the phone per actual case. Some of these employees worked exclusively on child abduction cases. The remaining employees split time working on child abduction cases and other state-mandated activities, for which they tracked their time. They would not have had a phone for this particular work if not mandated to perform these functions. Denying this as an actual cost would be akin to saying reimbursement would not be available for the cost of a desk chair and would instead only be allowable for the portion of the cost of the chair for the actual minutes we could show spent sitting in it directly working on a particular case.

To further show the validity of the methodology used by the DA's Office, the DA's Office provided an alternative cost allocation worksheet based on productive hourly rates and actual hours worked for further consideration. The alternative method totaled $222,966 after backing out the unallowed SD time. The disallowed claim amount based on current methodology was $217,020. The difference between the two methods is only $5,946, providing further evidence that the current methodology is comparably accurate and reasonable.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will no longer request reimbursement using cost allocation methodologies. Management is working to implement a tracking mechanism for program costs so they can follow the claiming instructions as established in this audit process.

Sincerely,

John Black, CPA

(37) CERTIFICATION OF CLAIM

In accordance with the provisions of Government Code sections 17560 and 17561, I certify that I am the officer authorized by the local agency to file mandated cost claims with the State of California for this program, and certify under penalty of perjury that I have not violated any of the provisions of Article 4, Chapter 1 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

I further certify that there was no application other than from the claimant, nor any grant(s) or payment(s) received for reimbursement of costs claimed herein and claimed costs are for a new program or increased level of services of an existing program. All offsetting revenues and reimbursements set forth in the parameters and guidelines are identified, and all costs claimed are supported by source documentation currently maintained by the claimant.

The amount for this reimbursement is hereby claimed from the State for payment of actual costs set forth on the attached statements.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

STATE CONTROLLER'S OFFICE ANALYSIS AND RESPONSE TO THE INCORRECT REDUCTION CLAIM BY SACRAMENTO COUNTY

For Fiscal Years (FY) 2016-2017, 2017-2018, 2018-2019

SUMMARY

The following is the State Controller's Office's (SCO) response to the Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) that Sacramento County (County) filed on November 25, 2024, with the Commission on State Mandates (Commission). The SCO performed an audit of the County's claims for costs of the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors - Child Abduction and Recovery Program (CAR) for the period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019. The SCO issued its audit report on February 23, 2022 (Tab 4, Page 6).

The County submitted reimbursement claims totaling $1,885,876 — $562,493 for fiscal year (FY) 2016-2017, $596,234 for FY 2017-2018 and $727,149 for FY 2018-2019 (Section 10, County IRC, PDF pages 1935-1951). Subsequently, the SCO performed an audit of these claims and determined that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable primarily because the County did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities and did not claim actual costs supported by source documentation.

The following table summarizes the audit results:

I. CUSTODY OF MINORS - CHILD ABDUCTION AND RECOVERY PROGRAM CRITERIA

Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines (Ps and Gs) – October 30, 2009 (Tab 4, Pages 34-42).

(Language for Section I and II is taken directly from the Amendment to the Ps and Gs, dated October 30, 2009)

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

The Ps and Gs establish the state mandate and define the reimbursement criteria. The Board of Control adopted the Ps and Gs on January 21, 1981, and first amended the Ps and Gs July 19, 1984. The Ps and Gs for this program were last amended on October 30, 2009. In compliance with GC section 17558, the SCO issues claiming instructions for mandated programs to assist local agencies in claiming reimbursable costs.

SCO Claiming Instructions

In accordance with Government Code sections 17560 and 17561, eligible claimants may submit claims to the SCO for reimbursement of costs incurred for state-mandated programs. The SCO annually issues mandated cost claiming instructions, which contain filing instructions for mandated cost programs.

We included the claiming instruction extant at the time the district filed its FY 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019 mandated cost claims as part of our IRC response (Tab 3, PDF pages 1-68).

II. BACKGROUND OF IRC

The final audit report for the county's CAR program was issued on February 23, 2022. An IRC was filed and received on November 25, 2024, with the Commission. On December 6, 2024, the Commission filed a "Notice of Complete Incorrect Reduction Claim, Schedule for Comments, and Notice of Tentative Hearing Date."

In the IRC, the county disagreed with the SCO's determination that the county did not comply with the program's Ps and Gs when claiming reimbursable costs. The final audit report consists of two findings.

For Finding 1 (Overstated salaries and benefit costs and related indirect costs), the county claimed $1,210,415 in salaries and benefits for the audit period. We determined that $1,024,012 is allowable and $186,403 is unallowable. The related unallowable indirect costs total $61,671, for total unallowable costs of $248,074. The costs are unallowable because the county claimed time for activities performed for "good cause" cases, and did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities.

For Finding 2 (Overstated materials and supplies costs), the county claimed a total of $260,652 in materials and supplies costs for the audit period. We determined that $43,632 is allowable and $217,020 is unallowable. These costs are unallowable because the county claimed costs that were allocated to the State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP) Unit, rather than actual costs supported by source documentation.

The following response to the county's IRC will address the factual basis for the conclusions reached related to both Finding 1 and Finding 2. We will draw from the county's own documentation provided during the audit, contemporaneous emails between the county and SCO auditors, and prior IRC decisions that directly relate to the documentation requirements of this mandated cost program.

III. SCO'S RESPONSE TO THE COUNTY'S IRC

(In an effort to eliminate redundancy, we will not cut and paste the county's entire IRC response. Rather, we will address relevant sections, as appropriate.)

FINDING 1 – Overstated salaries and benefits and related indirect costs

Standard Distributed (SD) Times

In an email from the county dated February 3, 2021 (Tab 4, Page 44), the county explained the SD time as follows:

> This is time spent working on non-program specific activities for the [State Targeted Offenders] unit as a whole. For example, a clerical person performs the mail run which takes 2.0 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the whole unit. If we only worked on 4 cases that month, (1 Child Abduction, 1 SVP, 1 Prisons and 1 WF), each case in the month would get the 2.0 hours spread based on the FTE percentage for each unit.

Per the county's own definition, SD time is an allocated cost and not specific to the CAR program. These costs are spread across all programs within the larger STOP unit. To further highlight this point, the county states (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 13-14):

> Having the STOP unit allows for consolidation of supervisory, clerical, and other general costs such as rent, phones, office supplies, and insurance for which the state will provide reimbursement.

The county has determined that a consolidated approach of allocating costs for supervisory, clerical and other general costs is the most efficient way of operating the program. However, to claim reimbursement, costs must comply with the program's Ps and Gs. We were unable to trace SD time to the reimbursable mandated activities of the CAR program.

The county also states in their IRC response (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 14):

> Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state. The DA's Office has attorneys, criminal investigators, and investigative assistants who work exclusively on Child Abduction and Recovery cases".

We disagree. SD time does not include "actual" time worked on cases. Per the county, SD time is spent working on "non-program specific activities." As these claimed costs are non-program specific, we are unable to determine the validity of these costs and their relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Section V. "Reimbursable Costs" of the Ps and Gs states, in part (Tab 4, Page 36):

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Our research found that the Commission has previously ruled on similar topics expressed in this IRC. On July 30, 2018, the Commission adopted a decision for Carlsbad Unified School District's IRC for The Stull Act Program. In that decision, the Commission addressed the Controller's ability to reduce claims to zero if the claimant fails to comply with the Ps and Gs, and the claimant's burden of providing contemporaneous supporting documentation (Tab 4, Pages 61-62):

> The claimant's original reimbursement claim documentation is comprised of forms and schedules containing administrators' assertions of estimated staff time spent on the mandate, which were then compiled to produce average times to perform the mandated activities, and translated into costs. The Controller rejected the claimant's initial claimed costs for fiscal years 2005-2006 through 2008-2009 "because they were based on average time increments supported with time records that were not completed contemporaneously." This amounts to a finding that the claim did not comply with the contemporaneous source document rule, and did not claim actual costs, as required by the Parameters and Guidelines. There is no assertion or evidence in the record rebutting that finding. Pursuant to Government Code section 17564, reimbursement claims filed with the Controller shall be filed in the manner prescribed in the Parameters and Guidelines, and the Parameters and Guidelines, as a quasi-judicial decision of the Commission, are final and binding. The claimant failed to comply with the Parameters and Guidelines, and therefore the Controller could have reduced the entire claim to zero. Any such reduction would have been correct as a matter of law.

The decision continues (Tab 4, Page 66):

> Finally, it is the claimant's burden to establish actual costs, using "source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred and their relationship to the reimbursable activities." The claimant argues that the Controller's reduction of costs is incorrect or arbitrary or capricious and frames the issues in terms of the Controller's failure to state a reason for the reduction. The claimant, however, ignores its duty to establish the relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Regarding SD time, the billing detail reports reviewed during the audit did not describe the mandated functions performed or specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, as required by the Ps and Gs.

Section VII. A., "Direct Costs" of the Ps and Gs states, in part (Tab 4, Page 39):

> Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information [emphasis added]:
> 1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

> Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, [emphasis added] the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits.

The county's IRC states (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 14):

> The auditor raised concerns regarding Standard Distributed (SD) time, which involved nonspecific program activities, particularly focusing on the actual time spent on traceable mandated activities. However, the language of Section V does not require that all costs be linked to a specific case.

Regarding the time claimed for employees' activities performed directly on cases, we requested case files to determine the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. The county disagrees with the exclusion of SD time as a part of this final audit report (and subsequent IRC), but its own records already segregate SD time separately from other recorded time. The county's own statements highlight that SD time is for "non-program specific" activities. Therefore, per the Ps and Gs, SD time cannot be considered an actual cost of the CAR program.

> The guidelines explicitly allow the use of "employee time records or time logs" to demonstrate these actual costs. Additionally, Section V permits the use of "worksheets" and "cost allocation reports (system generated)" as supporting evidence to validate these costs. The guidelines recognize and allow for the allocation of cost, provided they are directly related to the mandated activities.

The billing detail reports provided to support the SD time claimed are for "non-program specific" activities based on allocated hours. The county must claim only the actual costs for the reimbursable program. Actual costs are supported by source documentation. "Worksheets" and "cost allocation reports (system generated)" are not considered source documents.

Section V., "Reimbursable Costs," of the Ps and Gs, in part (Tab 4, Page 36):

> . . . Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.
> Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. . . Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents [emphasis added].

Claimants are allowed to submit evidence corroborating their source documents. However, the Ps and Gs do not allow claimants to substitute corroborating documents for source documents.

The county's IRC (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 15) quotes Section V. A, "Scope of the Mandate," of the Ps and Gs, in part:

> Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the > enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation . . .

The county further states: "This includes both direct and indirect costs, suggesting that a range of related activities, even if not tied to a specific case, may be considered reimbursable if they are essential to fulfilling the mandated program activities." The Ps and Gs do not "suggest" a range of mandated activities, nor does it allow consideration of "essential" mandated activities as reimbursable. The list of specific reimbursable activities is outlined in the program's Ps and Gs.

The Commission has previously issued a decision related to this topic. On March 30, 2016, the Commission adopted a decision for Santa Clara county's IRC for the CAR program. In that decision, the Commission addressed the claimant's requirement to adhere to the program's Ps and Gs, in part (Tab 4, Page 90):

> The Controller reduced salary and benefit costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 for two full-time employees because the county did not provide adequate documentation to support mandate-related hours claimed. The claimant originally provided payroll documents to support the costs claimed for these employees, and asserts that the provision of payroll documentation for full-time employees should be sufficient to substantiate the hours claimed. However, payroll documentation does not show the actual number of hours the employees worked on mandated activities, as required by the parameters and guidelines. In addition, the reimbursement claims for fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002, list the employee names, job classifications, and a brief description of the activities performed, but do not identify the actual number of hours devoted to each reimbursable function.

This prior IRC decision by the Commission highlights two major issues discussed in this current IRC. Claimed costs for this program must be actual costs, and the actual number of hours must be linked to mandated activities. The county is suggesting reimbursement should also include additional activities it deems to be "essential to fulfilling the mandated program activities." If the county wants to expand the reimbursable activities of this mandated reimbursement program, we suggest submitting a request to amend the Ps and Gs with the Commission.

"Good Cause" Cases

> Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

We disagree. The costs do not "fall within the mandated activities," because activities for PC 278.7 are not identified in the Ps and Gs. During fieldwork, we determined that employees claimed time on activities related to cases under PC section 278.7 (commonly referred to as "good cause" cases) (Tab 4, Page 102). Activities performed under this penal code are not considered reimbursable mandated activities.

During the audit, the county provided a list of "good cause" cases that it had misidentified. As stated by the county in an email on August 27, 2021 (Tab 4, Page 103): "These cases may have been reported to our office as 'good cause' cases, but turned out to be child abduction cases after all." With this information, the SCO auditors segregated out misidentified "good cause" cases (which were child abduction cases) and reviewed those separately. All other "good cause" cases confirmed by the county, and the associated time claimed, were disallowed.

The Ps and Gs incorporate requirements of PC sections 278 and 278.5, as amended by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996. This law, known as the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, also added PC section 278.7. However, PC section 278.7 was not incorporated into the Ps and Gs; therefore, no costs claimed under this section are reimbursable.

> Moreover, Section VI of the Parameters and Guidelines only lists as "Non-Reimbursable Costs" the following:
> > Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.
> Section VI only disallows costs associated with criminal prosecution once a defendant has appeared in court and excludes costs for prosecuting offenses under sections 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code. It does not exclude "Good Cause" cases nor does it reference Penal Code section 278.7.

The Ps and Gs incorporated PC Sections 278 and 278.5. PC 278.7 was never part of the Ps and Gs. Therefore, costs associated with PC 278.7 are not reimbursable.

FINDING 2 – Overstated materials and supplies costs

The county's IRC states (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 18): "…the allocation methodology used was a reasonable approach to capture the actual costs associated with supporting the program." We disagree.

The county claimed both direct and allocated materials and supplies costs. For the direct materials and supplies costs claimed, we requested support to show the validity of claimed costs and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. The county provided an expense report as well as supporting invoices and receipts for costs claimed. Additionally, the county supported the costs with child abduction and recovery case files. The county provided the related case files, and we determined that all direct materials and supplies costs were allowable. In the final audit report, we noted no exceptions for the direct materials and supplies costs claimed (Tab 4, Page 21).

The county developed a methodology for allocating a percentage of materials and supplies costs incurred by the STOP Unit and identified them as direct costs applicable to the CAR program. As already noted, the STOP Unit includes the CAR program, CDCR prison prosecutions, and other programs. These costs were allocated across all programs within the STOP Unit but were claimed as direct costs directly attributable to the CAR program.

The county's IRC states (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 18):

> As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. The state's audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.

We disagree.

Section VII. A. 3. "Materials and Supplies" of the Ps and Gs, in part (Tab 4, Page 40):

> Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate [emphasis added]. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

The SCO is not imposing additional requirements on claimants. During the audit, the county never identified how the allocated costs were consumed specifically for the purposes of the CAR program. Since the county split their materials and supplies costs into two groups (direct costs and allocated costs), the SCO auditors were unable to determine how the allocated costs were "a direct cost of the mandate." Additionally, the large non-direct pool of allocated costs was for the STOP Unit collectively. The CAR program is part of this unit, as are other programs completely unrelated to the mandated reimbursable activities.

> The employees who worked on child abduction matters tracked their time and only noted billable hours for reimbursable activities. From this, it can be calculated what percentage of their time was spent on reimbursable mandated activities, which then was used to determine the actual cost of related materials and supplies used in those efforts.

As noted in the final audit report, "For each fiscal year, the county calculated the ratio of the State Targeted Offenders Unit's program-related salaries and benefits to the unit's total salaries and benefits. To determine program-related materials and supplies costs, the county applied the applicable percentage to the materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit." (Tab 4, Page 21) The calculation was based off salaries and benefits and not "billable hours for reimbursable activities" as the county stated. Furthermore, the "billable hours for reimbursable activities" include allocated SD time (as discussed in Finding 1).

The county's IRC states (Section 6, County IRC, PDF page 19): "According to the auditor, the DA's Office can only charge for the cost of the phone attributable to a particular case, i.e., the minutes spent on the phone per actual case." We disagree.

As noted in Finding 1, the Commission has addressed in prior IRC decisions the ability for the Controller to reduce claims (and by extension, claim components) to zero if the claimant fails to comply with the Ps and Gs. We reviewed, and allowed, 100% of the claimed direct materials and supplies cost for the fiscal years under audit. For the separate pool of claimed allocated costs, the county did not list the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of the mandate.

IV. CONCLUSION

The SCO audited county's claims for costs of the legislatively mandated CAR Program (Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976; Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992; and Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996) for the period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019. The district claimed $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable primarily because the county did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities and did not claim actual costs supported by source documentation.

The Commission should find that (1) the SCO correctly reduced the county's FY 2016-2017 claim by $132,786; (2) the SCO correctly reduced the county's FY 2017-18 claim by $141,772; and (3) the SCO correctly reduced the county's FY 2018-2019 claim by $190,536.

MANDATED COST MANUAL FOR LOCAL AGENCIES

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

STATE CONTROLLER'S OFFICE

FOREWORD

This manual is issued to assist claimants in preparing mandated cost claims for submission to the State Controller's Office. The information contained in this manual is based on the State of California's statutes, regulations, and the parameters and guidelines (Ps & Gs) adopted by the Commission on State Mandates. As each mandate is unique, it is imperative that claimants refer to the claiming instructions and Ps & Gs of each program for updated data on established policies, procedures, eligible reimbursable activities, and revised forms.

State-Mandated Costs Claiming Instructions No. 2012-32

Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery

Revised October 1, 2017

In accordance with Government Code (GC) sections 17560 and 17561, eligible claimants may submit claims to the State Controller's Office (SCO) for reimbursement of costs incurred for state-mandated cost programs. This document contains claiming instructions and forms that eligible claimants must use for filing claims for the Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery program. SCO issues these claiming instructions subsequent to the Commission on State Mandates (CSM) adopting the Parameters and Guidelines (Ps & Gs). The amended Ps & Gs are included as an integral part of the claiming instructions.

On September 19, 1979, CSM adopted a Statement of Decision finding that the test claim legislation imposes a reimbursable state-mandated program on local agencies within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution and GC section 17514.

On October 30, 2009, CSM approved the amendments to the Ps & Gs to clarify the source documentation requirements and record retention language, as requested by the SCO.

Exception

There will be no reimbursement for any period in which the Legislature has suspended the operation of a mandate pursuant to state law.

Eligible Claimants

Any county, as defined in GC section 17515, that incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim for reimbursement.

Reimbursement Claim Deadline

Annual reimbursement claims for the 2016-17 fiscal year may be filed by February 15, 2018, without a late penalty. Claims filed more than one year after the filing date will not be accepted.

Penalty

- Initial Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the initial filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the total amount of the initial claim without limitation pursuant to GC section 17561(d)(3).

- Annual Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the annual filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the claim amount, not to exceed $10,000, pursuant to GC section 17568.

Minimum Claim Cost

GC section 17564(a), states that no claim may be filed pursuant to sections 17551 and 17561, unless such a claim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Reimbursement of Claims

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. These costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating: "I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct," and must further comply with the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 2015.5.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, these documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

Audit of Costs

All claims submitted to SCO are subject to review to determine if costs are related to the mandate, are reasonable and not excessive, and if the claim was prepared in accordance with the SCO's claiming instructions and the Ps & Gs adopted by CSM. If any adjustments are made to a claim, the claimant will be notified of the amount adjusted, and the reason for the adjustment.

On-site audits will be conducted by SCO as deemed necessary. Pursuant to GC section 17558.5(a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a claimant is subject to audit by SCO no later than three years after the date the actual reimbursement claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds were appropriated or no payment was made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim.

All documents used to support the reimbursable activities must be retained during the period subject to audit. If an audit has been initiated by SCO during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings. Supporting documents must be made available to SCO on request.

Record Retention

All documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for a period of three years after the date the claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. If no funds were appropriated or no payment was made at the time the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will be from the date of initial payment of the claim. Therefore, all documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for the same period, and must be made available to SCO on request.

Claim Submission

Submit a signed original Form FAM-27 and one copy with required documents. Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.

Mandated costs claiming instructions and forms are available online at the SCO's website: www.sco.ca.gov/ard_mancost.html.

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561 (d) (3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of issuance of the claiming instructions by the State Controller.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by Government Code Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge." Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The claimant is only allowed to claim and be reimbursed for increased costs for reimbursable activities identified below. Increased cost is limited to the cost of an activity that the claimant is required to incur as a result of the mandate.

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in

Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, all direct and indirect costs of labor, materials and supplies, training and travel for the following activities are eligible for reimbursement:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child(ren).

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with court orders.

      (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (4) Depositions.

   c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

      (1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

      (2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

   a. Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

Claims for reimbursement must be timely filed and identify each cost element for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate. Claimed costs must be identified to each reimbursable activity identified in Section V of this document.

A. Direct Costs

Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions.

Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended, and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes, and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.

B. Indirect Costs

Indirect costs are defined as costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved. Indirect costs may include both (1) overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate, and (2) the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.

Compensation for indirect costs is eligible for reimbursement utilizing the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87. Claimants have the option of using 10% of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP) for the department if the indirect cost rate claimed exceeds 10%. If more than one department is claiming indirect costs for the mandated program, each department must have its own ICRP prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-87. An ICRP must be submitted with the claim when the indirect cost rate exceeds 10%.

1. Reimbursements

   On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

   In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

   Any amount received by a county and forwarded directly to the state, must be reported on the cost summary form, but will not reduce the amount of the claim.

2. Mileage and Travel

   Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

VIII. RECORD RETENTION

Pursuant to Government Code section 17558.5, subdivision (a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a local agency or school district pursuant to this chapter1 is subject to the initiation of an audit by the Controller no later than three years after the date that the actual reimbursement claim is filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds are appropriated or no payment is made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim is filed, the time for the Controller to initiate an audit shall commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim. In any case, an audit shall be completed not later than two years after the date that the audit is commenced. All documents used to support the reimbursable activities, as described in Section V, must be retained during the period subject to audit. If the Controller has initiated an audit during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings.

1 This refers to Title 2, division 4, part 7, chapter 4 of the Government Code.

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from the claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

An authorized representative of the claimant will be required to provide a certification of the claim, as specified in the State Controller's claiming instructions, for those costs mandated by the state contained therein.

(01) Enter the claimant identification number assigned by the State Controller's Office.

(02) Enter claimant official name, county of location, street or postal office box address, city, State, and zip code.

(03) to (08) Leave blank.

(09) If filing a reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (09) Reimbursement.

(10) Not applicable.

(11) If filing an amended reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (11) Amended.

(12) Enter the fiscal year for which actual costs are being claimed. If actual costs for more than one fiscal year are being claimed, complete a separate Form FAM-27 for each fiscal year.

(13) Enter the amount of the reimbursement claim as shown on Form 1 line (11). The total claimed amount must exceed $1,000; minimum claim must be $1,001.

(14) Initial reimbursement claims must be filed as specified in the claiming instructions. Annual reimbursement claims must be filed by February 15, or otherwise specified in the claiming instructions, following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred or the claims must be reduced by a late penalty. Enter zero if the claim filed on time. Otherwise, enter the penalty amount as a result of the calculation formula as follows:

- Late Initial Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27 line (13) multiplied by 10%, without limitation; or
- Late Annual Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27, line (13) multiplied by 10%, late penalty not to exceed $10,000.

(15) Enter the amount of payment, if any, received for the claim. If no payment was received, enter zero.

(16) Enter the net claimed amount by subtracting the sum of lines (14) and (15) from line (13).

(17) If line (16), Net Claimed Amount, is positive, enter that amount on line (17), Due from State.

(18) If line (16), Net Claimed Amount, is negative, enter that amount on line (18), Due to State.

(19) to (21) Leave blank.

(22) to (29) Bring forward the cost information as specified on the left-hand column of lines (22) through (29) for the reimbursement claim, e.g., Form 1, (04) 1. (f), means the information is located on Form 1, block (04), line 1., column (f). Enter the information on the same line but in the right-hand column. Cost information should be rounded to the nearest dollar, i.e., no cents. The indirect costs percentage should be shown as a whole number and without the percent symbol, i.e., 35.19% should be shown as 35. Completion of this data block will expedite the process.

(30) to (36) Leave blank.

(37) Read the statement of Certification of Claim. The claim must be signed and dated by the agency's authorized officer, type or print name and title, telephone number, and email address. Claims cannot be paid unless accompanied by an original signed certification. (Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.)

(38) Enter the name, telephone number, and email address of the agency contact person for the claim. If the claim was prepared by a consultant, type or print the name of the consulting firm, the claim preparer, telephone number, and email address.

(01) Enter the name of the claimant.

(02) Enter the fiscal year of claim.

(03) If more than one department has incurred costs for this mandate, give the name of each department. A separate Form 1 should be completed for each department.

(04) For each reimbursable activity, enter the total from Form 2, line (05), columns (d) through (h) to Form 1, block (04), columns (a) through (e) in the appropriate row. Total each row.

(05) Total columns (a) through (f).

(06) Indirect costs may be computed as 10% of direct labor costs, excluding fringe benefits, without preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP). If an indirect cost rate of greater than 10% is used, include the ICRP with the claim.

(07) Local agencies have the option of using the flat rate of 10% of direct labor costs or using a department's ICRP in accordance with Office of Management and Budget Circular 2 CFR, Chapter I and Chapter II, Part 200 et al. If the flat rate is used for indirect costs, multiply Total Salaries, line (05)(a), by 10%. If an ICRP is submitted, multiply applicable costs used in the distribution base for the computation of the indirect cost rate by the Indirect Cost Rate, line (06). If more than one department is reporting costs, each must have its own ICRP for the program.

(08) Enter the sum of Total Direct Costs, line (05)(5), and Total Indirect Costs, line (07).

(09) If applicable, enter any revenue received by the claimant for this mandate from any state or federal source.

(10) If applicable, enter the amount of other reimbursements received from any source including, but not limited to, service fees collected, federal funds, and other state funds that reimbursed any portion of the mandated cost program. Submit a schedule detailing the reimbursement sources and amounts.

Note: Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s), (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown on Form 1.2 and must also be used as an offset against these cases.

(11) From the Total Direct and Indirect Costs, line (08), subtract the sum of Offsetting Revenues, line (09), and Other Reimbursements, line (10). Enter the remainder on this line and carry the amount forward to Form FAM-27, line (13) of the Reimbursement Claim.

Mandated Cost Manual For Local Agencies

September 1, 2018

BETTY T. YEE

FOREWORD

This manual is issued to assist claimants in preparing mandated cost claims for submission to the State Controller's Office. The information contained in this manual is based on the State of California's statutes, regulations, and the parameters and guidelines (Ps & Gs) adopted by the Commission on State Mandates. As each mandate is unique, it is imperative that claimants refer to the claiming instructions and Ps & Gs of each program for updated data on established policies, procedures, eligible reimbursable activities, and revised forms.

For more information, contact the Local Reimbursements Section by email at LRSLGPSD@sco.ca.gov, by telephone at (916) 324-5729, or by writing to the following address:

State-Mandated Costs Claiming Instructions No. 2012-32

Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery – Program No. 13

Revised September 1, 2018

In accordance with Government Code (GC) sections 17560 and 17561, eligible claimants may submit claims to the State Controller's Office (SCO) for reimbursement of costs incurred for state-mandated cost programs. This document contains claiming instructions and forms that eligible claimants must use for filing claims for the Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery program. SCO issues these claiming instructions subsequent to the Commission on State Mandates (CSM) adopting the Parameters and Guidelines (Ps & Gs). The amended Ps & Gs are included as an integral part of the claiming instructions.

On September 19, 1979, CSM adopted a Statement of Decision finding that the test claim legislation imposes a reimbursable state-mandated program on local agencies within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution and GC section 17514.

On October 30, 2009, CSM approved the amendments to the Ps & Gs to clarify the source documentation requirements and record retention language, as requested by the SCO.

Exception

There will be no reimbursement for any period in which the Legislature has suspended the operation of a mandate pursuant to state law.

Eligible Claimants

Any county, as defined in GC section 17515, that incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim for reimbursement.

Reimbursement Claim Deadline

Pursuant to GC section 17560(a), annual reimbursement claims may be filed by February 15 following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred. If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, claims are due the following business day. Claims filed after the deadline must be reduced by a late penalty. Claims filed more than one year after the deadline will not be accepted.

Penalty

- Initial Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the initial filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the total amount of the initial claim without limitation pursuant to GC section 17561(d)(3).

- Annual Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the annual filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the claim amount, not to exceed $10,000, pursuant to GC section 17568.

Minimum Claim Cost

GC section 17564(a), states that no claim may be filed pursuant to sections 17551 and 17561, unless such a claim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Reimbursement of Claims

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. These costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating: "I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct," and must further comply with the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 2015.5.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, these documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

Audit of Costs

All claims submitted to SCO are subject to review to determine if costs are related to the mandate, are reasonable and not excessive, and if the claim was prepared in accordance with the SCO's claiming instructions and the Ps & Gs adopted by CSM. If any adjustments are made to a claim, the claimant will be notified of the amount adjusted, and the reason for the adjustment.

On-site audits will be conducted by SCO as deemed necessary. Pursuant to GC section 17558.5(a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a claimant is subject to audit by SCO no later than three years after the date the actual reimbursement claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds were appropriated or no payment was made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim.

All documents used to support the reimbursable activities must be retained during the period subject to audit. If an audit has been initiated by SCO during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings. Supporting documents must be made available to SCO on request.

Record Retention

All documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for a period of three years after the date the claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. If no funds were appropriated or no payment was made at the time the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will be from the date of initial payment of the claim. Therefore, all documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for the same period, and must be made available to SCO on request.

Claim Submission

Submit a signed original Form FAM-27 and one copy with required documents. Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.

Mandated costs claiming instructions and forms are available online at the SCO's website: www.sco.ca.gov/ard_mancost.html.

State Controller's Office, Claimant

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561 (d) (3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of issuance of the claiming instructions by the State Controller.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by Government Code Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge." Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The claimant is only allowed to claim and be reimbursed for increased costs for reimbursable activities identified below. Increased cost is limited to the cost of an activity that the claimant is required to incur as a result of the mandate.

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in

Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, all direct and indirect costs of labor, materials and supplies, training and travel for the following activities are eligible for reimbursement:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child(ren).

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with court orders.

      (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (4) Depositions.

   c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

      (1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

      (2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

   a. Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

Claims for reimbursement must be timely filed and identify each cost element for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate. Claimed costs must be identified to each reimbursable activity identified in Section V of this document.

A. Direct Costs

Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions.

Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended, and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes, and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.

B. Indirect Costs

Indirect costs are defined as costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved. Indirect costs may include both (1) overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate, and (2) the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.

Compensation for indirect costs is eligible for reimbursement utilizing the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87. Claimants have the option of using 10% of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP) for the department if the indirect cost rate claimed exceeds 10%. If more than one department is claiming indirect costs for the mandated program, each department must have its own ICRP prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-87. An ICRP must be submitted with the claim when the indirect cost rate exceeds 10%.

1. Reimbursements

   On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

   In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

   Any amount received by a county and forwarded directly to the state, must be reported on the cost summary form, but will not reduce the amount of the claim.

2. Mileage and Travel

   Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

VIII. RECORD RETENTION

Pursuant to Government Code section 17558.5, subdivision (a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a local agency or school district pursuant to this chapter1 is subject to the initiation of an audit by the Controller no later than three years after the date that the actual reimbursement claim is filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds are appropriated or no payment is made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim is filed, the time for the Controller to initiate an audit shall commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim. In any case, an audit shall be completed not later than two years after the date that the audit is commenced. All documents used to support the reimbursable activities, as described in Section V, must be retained during the period subject to audit. If the Controller has initiated an audit during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings.

1 This refers to Title 2, division 4, part 7, chapter 4 of the Government Code.

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from the claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

An authorized representative of the claimant will be required to provide a certification of the claim, as specified in the State Controller's claiming instructions, for those costs mandated by the state contained therein.

(01) Enter the claimant identification number assigned by the State Controller's Office.

(02) Enter claimant official name, county of location, street or postal office box address, city, State, and zip code.

(03) to (08) Leave blank.

(09) If filing a reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (09) Reimbursement.

(10) Not applicable.

(11) If filing an amended reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (11) Amended.

(12) Enter the fiscal year for which actual costs are being claimed. If actual costs for more than one fiscal year are being claimed, complete a separate Form FAM-27 for each fiscal year.

(13) Enter the amount of the reimbursement claim as shown on Form 1 line (11). The total claimed amount must exceed $1,000; minimum claim must be $1,001.

(14) Initial reimbursement claims must be filed as specified in the claiming instructions. Annual reimbursement claims must be filed by February 15, or otherwise specified in the claiming instructions, following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred or the claims must be reduced by a late penalty. Enter zero if the claim filed on time. Otherwise, enter the penalty amount as a result of the calculation formula as follows:

- Late Initial Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27 line (13) multiplied by 10%, without limitation; or
- Late Annual Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27, line (13) multiplied by 10%, late penalty not to exceed $10,000.

(15) Enter the amount of payment, if any, received for the claim. If no payment was received, enter zero.

(16) Enter the net claimed amount by subtracting the sum of lines (14) and (15) from line (13).

(01) Enter the name of the claimant.

(02) Enter the fiscal year of claim.

(03) If more than one department has incurred costs for this mandate, give the name of each department. A separate Form 1 should be completed for each department.

(04) For each reimbursable activity, enter the total from Form 2, line (05), columns (d) through (h) to Form 1, block (04), columns (a) through (e) in the appropriate row. Total each row.

(05) Total columns (a) through (f).

(06) Indirect costs may be computed as 10% of direct labor costs, excluding fringe benefits, without preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP). If an indirect cost rate of greater than 10% is used, include the ICRP with the claim.

(07) Local agencies have the option of using the flat rate of 10% of direct labor costs or using a department's ICRP in accordance with Office of Management and Budget Circular 2 CFR, Chapter I and Chapter II, Part 200 et al. If the flat rate is used for indirect costs, multiply Total Salaries, line (05)(a), by 10%. If an ICRP is submitted, multiply applicable costs used in the distribution base for the computation of the indirect cost rate by the Indirect Cost Rate, line (06). If more than one department is reporting costs, each must have its own ICRP for the program.

(08) Enter the sum of Total Direct Costs, line (05)(f), and Total Indirect Costs, line (07).

(09) If applicable, enter any revenue received by the claimant for this mandate from any state or federal source.

(10) If applicable, enter the amount of other reimbursements received from any source including, but not limited to, service fees collected, federal funds, and other state funds that reimbursed any portion of the mandated cost program. Submit a schedule detailing the reimbursement sources and amounts.

Note: Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s), (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown on Form 1.2 and must also be used as an offset against these cases.

(11) From the Total Direct and Indirect Costs, line (08), subtract the sum of Offsetting Revenues, line (09), and Other Reimbursements, line (10). Enter the remainder on this line and carry the amount forward to Form FAM-27, line (13) of the Reimbursement Claim.

State-Mandated Costs Claiming Instructions No. 2012-32

Revised September 1, 2019

In accordance with Government Code (GC) sections 17560 and 17561, eligible claimants may submit claims to the State Controller's Office (SCO) for reimbursement of costs incurred for state-mandated cost programs. This document contains claiming instructions and forms that eligible claimants must use for filing claims for the Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery program. SCO issues these claiming instructions subsequent to the Commission on State Mandates (CSM) adopting the Parameters and Guidelines (Ps & Gs). The amended Ps & Gs are included as an integral part of the claiming instructions.

On September 19, 1979, CSM adopted a Statement of Decision finding that the test claim legislation imposes a reimbursable state-mandated program on local agencies within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution and GC section 17514.

On October 30, 2009, CSM approved the amendments to the Ps & Gs to clarify the source documentation requirements and record retention language, as requested by the SCO.

Exception

There will be no reimbursement for any period in which the Legislature has suspended the operation of a mandate pursuant to state law.

Eligible Claimants

Any county, as defined in GC section 17515, that incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim for reimbursement.

Reimbursement Claim Deadline

Pursuant to GC section 17560(a), annual reimbursement claims may be filed by February 15 following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred. If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, claims are due the following business day. Claims filed after the deadline must be reduced by a late penalty. Claims filed more than one year after the deadline will not be accepted.

Penalty

- Initial Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the initial filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the total amount of the initial claim without limitation pursuant to GC section 17561(d)(3).

- Annual Reimbursement Claims

  When filed within one year of the annual filing deadline, claims are assessed a late penalty of 10% of the claim amount, not to exceed $10,000, pursuant to GC section 17568.

Minimum Claim Cost

GC section 17564(a), states that no claim may be filed pursuant to sections 17551 and 17561, unless such a claim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Reimbursement of Claims

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. These costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating: "I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct," and must further comply with the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 2015.5.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, these documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

Audit of Costs

All claims submitted to SCO are subject to review to determine if costs are related to the mandate, are reasonable and not excessive, and if the claim was prepared in accordance with the SCO's claiming instructions and the Ps & Gs adopted by CSM. If any adjustments are made to a claim, the claimant will be notified of the amount adjusted, and the reason for the adjustment.

On-site audits will be conducted by SCO as deemed necessary. Pursuant to GC section 17558.5(a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a claimant is subject to audit by SCO no later than three years after the date the actual reimbursement claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds were appropriated or no payment was made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim.

All documents used to support the reimbursable activities must be retained during the period subject to audit. If an audit has been initiated by SCO during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings. Supporting documents must be made available to SCO on request.

Record Retention

All documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for a period of three years after the date the claim was filed or last amended, whichever is later. If no funds were appropriated or no payment was made at the time the claim was filed, the time for SCO to initiate an audit will be from the date of initial payment of the claim. Therefore, all documentation to support actual costs claimed must be retained for the same period, and must be made available to SCO on request.

Claim Submission

Submit a signed original Form FAM-27 and one copy with required documents. Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.

Mandated costs claiming instructions and forms are available online at the SCO's website: www.sco.ca.gov/ard_mancost.html.

State Controller's Office, Claimant

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561 (d) (3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of issuance of the claiming instructions by the State Controller.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by Government Code Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge." Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The claimant is only allowed to claim and be reimbursed for increased costs for reimbursable activities identified below. Increased cost is limited to the cost of an activity that the claimant is required to incur as a result of the mandate.

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in

Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, all direct and indirect costs of labor, materials and supplies, training and travel for the following activities are eligible for reimbursement:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child(ren).

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with court orders.

      (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (4) Depositions.

   c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

      (1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

      (2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

   a. Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

Claims for reimbursement must be timely filed and identify each cost element for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate. Claimed costs must be identified to each reimbursable activity identified in Section V of this document.

A. Direct Costs

Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions.

Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended, and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes, and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.

B. Indirect Costs

Indirect costs are defined as costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved. Indirect costs may include both (1) overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate, and (2) the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.

Compensation for indirect costs is eligible for reimbursement utilizing the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87. Claimants have the option of using 10% of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP) for the department if the indirect cost rate claimed exceeds 10%. If more than one department is claiming indirect costs for the mandated program, each department must have its own ICRP prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-87. An ICRP must be submitted with the claim when the indirect cost rate exceeds 10%.

1. Reimbursements

   On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

   In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

   Any amount received by a county and forwarded directly to the state, must be reported on the cost summary form, but will not reduce the amount of the claim.

2. Mileage and Travel

   Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

VIII. RECORD RETENTION

Pursuant to Government Code section 17558.5, subdivision (a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a local agency or school district pursuant to this chapter1 is subject to the initiation of an audit by the Controller no later than three years after the date that the actual reimbursement claim is filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds are appropriated or no payment is made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim is filed, the time for the Controller to initiate an audit shall commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim. In any case, an audit shall be completed not later than two years after the date that the audit is commenced. All documents used to support the reimbursable activities, as described in Section V, must be retained during the period subject to audit. If the Controller has initiated an audit during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings.

1 This refers to Title 2, division 4, part 7, chapter 4 of the Government Code.

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from the claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

An authorized representative of the claimant will be required to provide a certification of the claim, as specified in the State Controller's claiming instructions, for those costs mandated by the state contained therein.

(37) CERTIFICATION OF CLAIM

In accordance with the provisions of Government Code sections 17560 and 17561, I certify that I am the officer authorized by the local agency to file mandated cost claims with the State of California for this program, and certify under penalty of perjury that I have not violated any of the provisions of Article 4, Chapter 1 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

I further certify that there was no application other than from the claimant, nor any grant(s) or payment(s) received for reimbursement of costs claimed herein and claimed costs are for a new program or increased level of services of an existing program. All offsetting revenues and reimbursements set forth in the parameters and guidelines are identified, and all costs claimed are supported by source documentation currently maintained by the claimant.

The amount for this reimbursement is hereby claimed from the State for payment of actual costs set forth on the attached statements.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

PROGRAM 013	CUSTODY OF MINORS-CHILD ABDUCTION AND RECOVERY CLAIM FOR PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS	FORM FAM-27

(01) Enter the claimant identification number assigned by the State Controller's Office.

(02) Enter claimant official name, county of location, street or postal office box address, city, State, and zip code.

(03) to (08) Leave blank.

(09) If filing a reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (09) Reimbursement.

(10) Not applicable.

(11) If filing an amended reimbursement claim, enter an "X" in the box on line (11) Amended.

(12) Enter the fiscal year for which actual costs are being claimed. If actual costs for more than one fiscal year are being claimed, complete a separate Form FAM-27 for each fiscal year.

(13) Enter the amount of the reimbursement claim as shown on Form 1 line (11). The total claimed amount must exceed $1,000; minimum claim must be $1,001.

(14) Initial reimbursement claims must be filed as specified in the claiming instructions. Annual reimbursement claims must be filed by February 15, or otherwise specified in the claiming instructions, following the fiscal year in which costs were incurred or the claims must be reduced by a late penalty. Enter zero if the claim filed on time. Otherwise, enter the penalty amount as a result of the calculation formula as follows:

- Late Initial Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27 line (13) multiplied by 10%, without limitation; or
- Late Annual Reimbursement Claims: Form FAM-27, line (13) multiplied by 10%, late penalty not to exceed $10,000.

(15) Enter the amount of payment, if any, received for the claim. If no payment was received, enter zero.

(16) Enter the net claimed amount by subtracting the sum of lines (14) and (15) from line (13).

(17) If line (16), Net Claimed Amount, is positive, enter that amount on line (17), Due from State.

(18) If line (16), Net Claimed Amount, is negative, enter that amount on line (18), Due to State.

(19) to (21) Leave blank.

(22) to (29) Bring forward the cost information as specified on the left-hand column of lines (22) through (29) for the reimbursement claim, e.g., Form 1, (04) 1. (f), means the information is located on Form 1, block (04), line 1., column (f). Enter the information on the same line but in the right-hand column. Cost information should be rounded to the nearest dollar, i.e., no cents. The indirect costs percentage should be shown as a whole number and without the percent symbol, i.e., 35.19% should be shown as 35. Completion of this data block will expedite the process.

(30) to (36) Leave blank.

(37) Read the statement of Certification of Claim. The claim must be signed and dated by the agency's authorized officer, type or print name and title, telephone number, and email address. Claims cannot be paid unless accompanied by an original signed certification. (Please sign the Form FAM-27 in blue ink and attach the copy to the top of the claim package.)

(38) Enter the name, telephone number, and email address of the agency contact person for the claim. If the claim was prepared by a consultant, type or print the name of the consulting firm, the claim preparer, telephone number, and email address.

SUBMIT A SIGNED ORIGINAL FORM FAM-27 AND ONE COPY WITH ALL OTHER FORMS TO:

PROGRAM 013	CUSTODY OF MINORS-CHILD ABDUCTION AND RECOVERY CLAIM SUMMARY INSTRUCTIONS	FORM 1

(01) Enter the name of the claimant.

(02) Enter the fiscal year of claim.

(03) If more than one department has incurred costs for this mandate, give the name of each department. A separate Form 1 should be completed for each department.

(05) Total columns (a) through (f).

(06) Indirect costs may be computed as 10% of direct labor costs, excluding fringe benefits, without preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP). If an indirect cost rate of greater than 10% is used, include the ICRP with the claim.

(07) Local agencies have the option of using the flat rate of 10% of direct labor costs or using a department's ICRP in accordance with Office of Management and Budget Circular 2 CFR, Chapter I and Chapter II, Part 200 et al. If the flat rate is used for indirect costs, multiply Total Salaries, line (05)(a), by 10%. If an ICRP is submitted, multiply applicable costs used in the distribution base for the computation of the indirect cost rate by the Indirect Cost Rate, line (06). If more than one department is reporting costs, each must have its own ICRP for the program.

(08) Enter the sum of Total Direct Costs, line (05)(f), and Total Indirect Costs, line (07).

(09) If applicable, enter any offsetting revenue received by the claimant for this mandate from any state or federal source. Submit a schedule detailing the revenue sources and amounts.

(10) If applicable, enter the amount of other reimbursements received from any source including, but not limited to, service fees collected, federal funds, and other state funds that reimbursed any portion of the mandated cost program. Submit a schedule detailing the reimbursement sources and amounts.

Note: Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s), (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown on Form 1.2 and must also be used as an offset against these cases.

(11) From the Total Direct and Indirect Costs, line (08), subtract the sum of Offsetting Revenues, line (09), and Other Reimbursements, line (10). Enter the remainder on this line and carry the amount forward to Form FAM-27, line (13) of the Reimbursement Claim.

Re: Audit of Mandated Cost Claims for the Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the Period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019

Dear Mr. Lamera:

This letter constitutes the initiation of an audit by the State Controller's Office of Sacramento County's legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program cost claims filed for fiscal year (FY) 2016-17 through FY 2018-19. The objective of our audit is to determine whether costs claimed represent increased costs as a result of the mandated program. To that end, we will assess whether costs claimed were supported by appropriate source documents, were not funded by another source, and were not unreasonable and/or excessive.

Alexandra Bonezzi, of our office, contacted the county on January 11, 2021, to schedule an entrance conference for Wednesday, January 20, 2021, at 10:30 a.m. The audit will be conducted in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Government Code sections 12410, 17558.5, and 17561 provide the authority for this audit. We will begin audit fieldwork after the entrance conference.

Sacramento County
700 H Street, Room 3650

Dear Ms. Renison:

The State Controller's Office (SCO) audited the costs claimed by Sacramento County for the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019.

The county claimed and was paid $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable. The costs are unallowable primarily because the county claimed costs for unallowable activities and did not claim actual costs.

Following issuance of this audit report, the SCO's Local Government Programs Services Division will notify the county of the adjustment to its claims via a system-generated letter for each fiscal year in the audit period.

This final audit report contains an adjustment to costs claimed by the county. If you disagree with the audit findings, you may file and Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) with the Commission on State Mandates (Commission). Pursuant to the Commission's regulations, outlined in Title 2, California Code of Regulations, section 1185.1, subdivision (c), an IRC challenging this adjustment must be filed with the Commission no later than three years following the date of this report, regardless of whether this report is subsequently supplemented, superseded, or otherwise amended. IRC information is available on the Commission's website at www.csm.ca.gov/forms/IRCForm.pdf.

Audit Report

Summary

The State Controller's Office (SCO) audited the costs claimed by Sacramento County for the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the period of July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019.

The county claimed and was paid $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable. The costs are unallowable primarily because the county claimed costs for unallowable activities and did not claim actual costs.

Background

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, established the Child Abduction and Recovery mandated program, based on the following laws:

- Civil Code section 4600.1 (repealed and added as Family Code sections 3060 through 3064 by Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992);
- Penal Code (PC) sections 278 and 278.5 (repealed and added as PC sections 277, 278, and 278.5 by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996); and
- Welfare and Institutions Code section 11478.5 (repealed and added as Family Code section 17506 by Chapter 478, Statutes of 1999; last amended by Chapter 759, Statutes of 2002).

These laws require the District Attorney's Office to assist persons having legal custody of a child in:

- Locating their children when they are unlawfully taken away;
- Gaining enforcement of custody and visitation decrees and orders to appear;
- Defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted, or concealed child;
- Civil court action proceedings; and
- Guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions.

On September 19, 1979, the State Board of Control (now the Commission on State Mandates) determined that this legislation imposed a state mandate reimbursable under Government Code (GC) section 17561.

The parameters and guidelines establish the state mandate and define the reimbursement criteria. The Commission on State Mandates adopted the parameters and guidelines on January 21, 1981; they were last amended on October 30, 2009. In compliance with GC section 17558, the SCO issues claiming instructions for mandated programs to assist local agencies in claiming reimbursable costs.

Audit Authority

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with GC sections 17558.5 and 17561, which authorize the SCO to audit the county's records to verify the actual amount of the mandated costs. In addition, GC section 12410 provides the SCO with general audit authority to audit the disbursement of state money for correctness, legality, and sufficient provisions of law.

Objective, Scope, and Methodology

The objective of our audit was to determine whether costs claimed represent increased costs resulting from the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. Specifically, we conducted this audit to determine whether costs claimed were supported by appropriate source documents, were not funded by another source, and were not unreasonable and/or excessive.[1]

The audit period was July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2019.

To achieve our objective, we completed the following tasks:

- We reviewed the annual mandated cost claims filed by the county for the audit period and identified the significant cost components of each claim as salaries and benefits, materials and supplies, travel and training, and indirect costs. We determined whether there were any errors or unusual or unexpected variances from year to year. We reviewed the activities claimed to determine whether they adhered to the SCO's claiming instructions and the program's parameters and guidelines.
- We completed an internal control questionnaire by interviewing key county staff. We discussed the claim preparation process with county staff to determine what information was obtained, who obtained it, and how it was used.
- We reviewed activity codes charged by the county and job descriptions for the audit period.
- We judgmentally selected the following cases for review:
  - Fiscal year (FY) 2016-17 – six cases, which equaled 21% of Salaries and Benefits claimed for the year;
  - FY 2017-18 – nine cases, which equaled 20% of Salaries and Benefits claimed for the year; and
  - FY 2018-19 – 10 cases, which equaled 20% of Salaries and Benefits claimed for the year.
- We isolated the claimed costs associated with standard distributed time, as these costs are not specifically for the mandated cost program. 100% of these costs are unallowable (see Finding 1 for more information).

[1] Unreasonable and/or excessive costs include ineligible costs that are not identified in the program's parameters and guidelines as reimbursable costs.

- We isolated the claimed costs associated with PC section 278.7 (commonly known as "good cause" cases), as these cases are not allowable per the program's parameters and guidelines. 100% of these costs are unallowable (see Finding 1 for more information).

- We traced claimed productive hourly rates for the audit period to county-provided personnel budget schedules. We noted no exceptions to the claimed productive hourly rates.

- We reviewed claimed materials and supplies costs and found that the county claimed costs that were allocated to the State Targeted Offenders Unit as direct costs applicable to the mandated program, although the costs were not actual costs supported by source documentation. Per the program's parameters and guidelines, only actual costs are allowed. We found $217,020 in materials and supplies costs to be unallowable (see Finding 2 for more information).

- We reviewed 100% of the claimed travel and training costs for the audit period. We found immaterial variances in the claimed travel and training costs that did not result in a finding.

- We reviewed the claimed indirect cost rates, including supporting documentation provided by the county. We found that the indirect cost rates were properly supported.

- We interviewed county personnel and reviewed the county's Single Audit Reports and revenues reports to identify potential sources of offsetting revenues and reimbursements from federal or pass-through programs applicable to this mandated program. We found that the county did not receive any funding for this mandate that should be offset from claimed costs.

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain sufficient, appropriate evidence to provide a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objective. We believe that the evidence obtained provides a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objective.

We did not audit the county's financial statements.

Conclusion

As a result of performing the audit procedures, we found instances of noncompliance with the requirements described in our audit objective. We did not find that the county claimed costs that were funded by other sources; however, we did find that it claimed unsupported and ineligible costs, as quantified in the Schedule and described in the Findings and Recommendations section of this audit report.

For the audit period, the county claimed and was paid $1,885,876 for costs of the legislatively mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program. Our audit found that $1,420,782 is allowable and $465,094 is unallowable.

Following issuance of this audit report, the SCO's Local Government Programs and Services Division will notify the county of the adjustment to its claims via a system-generated letter for each fiscal year in the audit period.

Follow-up on Prior Audit Findings

The county has satisfactorily resolved the findings noted in our prior audit report for the period of July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2003, issued on August 5, 2005.

Views of Responsible Officials

We issued a draft report on November 17, 2021. John Black, CPA, Chief, Administrative and Fiscal Services, responded by letter dated December 10, 2021, disagreeing with the audit results. This final audit report includes the county's response.

Restricted Use

This audit report is solely for the information and use of Sacramento County, the California Department of Finance, and the SCO; it is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties. This restriction is not intended to limit distribution of this audit report, which is a matter of public record and is available on the SCO website at www.sco.ca.gov.

Findings and Recommendations

FINDING 1—
Overstated salaries and benefit costs and related indirect costs

The county claimed $1,210,415 in salaries and benefits for the audit period. We determined that $1,024,012 is allowable and $186,403 is unallowable. The related unallowable indirect costs total $61,671, for total unallowable costs of $248,074. The costs are unallowable because the county claimed time for activities performed for "good cause" cases, and did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities.

The following table summarizes the overstated salaries and benefits, the related indirect costs, and the audit adjustment:

		FY 2016-17	FY 2017-18	FY 2018-19	Total
Overstated salaries and benefits:
"Good cause" cases (PC section 278.7)		$ (9,910)	$ (6,757)	$ (15,609)	$ (32,276)
Standard distributed time		(40,314)	(44,849)	(68,964)	(154,127)
Total unallowable salaries and benefits	A	(50,224)	(51,606)	(84,573)	(186,403)
Claimed indirect cost rate	B	34.96%	31.58%	32.89%
Related indirect costs (A × B)	C	(17,558)	(16,297)	(27,816)	(61,671)
Audit adjustment (A + C)	D	$ (67,782)	$ (67,903)	$ (112,389)	$ (248,074)

Standard Distributed Time

The county claimed time for employees working on non-program-specific activities—including supervisory, general clerical, and billing—for the State Targeted Offenders Unit. This time is categorized as standard distributed (SD) time, and is allocated monthly, based on the unit's case load for all programs. The time is then spread amongst the programs based on the full-time equivalent percentage for each program.

We determined that $154,127 claimed for SD time salaries and benefits is unallowable, because SD time is not actual time spent on traceable mandated activities.

Section V, "Reimbursable Costs," of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

"Good Cause" Cases

The county claimed time spent on activities for PC section 278.7 cases (commonly referred to as "good cause" cases). We determined that the salaries and benefits claimed, totaling $32,276, are unallowable because the parameters and guidelines do not identify activities related to PC section 278.7 cases as a reimbursable cost.

The parameters and guidelines incorporate requirements of PC sections 278 and 278.5, as amended by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996. This law, known as the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, also added section 278.7 to the Penal Code. However, PC section 278.7 was not incorporated into the parameters and guidelines; therefore, any costs claimed under this section are not reimbursable.

Recommendation

We recommend that the county:

- Follow the mandated program claiming instructions and the parameters and guidelines when preparing its reimbursement claims; and
- Ensure that claimed costs include only eligible costs, are based on actual costs, and are properly supported.

County Response

Standard Distributed Times

The Audit Report concluded that salaries and benefits for Standard Distributed (SD) time in the amount of $154,127 claimed by the DA's Office during the audit period (July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2019) were unallowable. We do not agree with this finding.

California Family Code sections 3130 through 3134.5 mandate that District Attorneys assist the courts in enforcing their child custody and visitation orders and in locating and returning children who have been taken or detained in violation of another person's custody right. Prosecutors are authorized to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding to assist the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children. District Attorneys' child abduction work is reimbursable by the state under the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate.

The DA's Office has a State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP), which consists of our Child Abduction and Recovery Program, CDCR prison prosecutions, and other state-reimbursed programs. This allows for consolidation of supervisory, clerical, and other general costs such as rent, phones, office supplies, and insurance for which the state will provide reimbursement. These costs were then subdivided amongst the various state-reimbursed programs within STOP, directly allocating those expenses to the appropriate program according to time studies. Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state. Many of these employees work exclusively on Child Abduction and Recovery cases. For other employees who provided supportive activities, such as clerical, supervisory, and billing, when they recorded time generally, those hours were proportioned based on the number of worked during the month. If not for state mandate, the DA's Office would not have had these dedicated employees and their related costs of employment handling Child Abduction and Recovery matters. The DA's Office allocated and claimed these costs using what was believed to be a reasonable methodology, which was applied consistently and not disproportionately allocated to this mandated program. The time claimed was general administrative time on behalf of eligible cases as a whole, spread amongst the programs based on the full-time equivalent percentage for each program.

In finding that this methodology was unallowable, the audit relied upon and quoted the following language from section V of the 2009 Custody of Minors: Child Abduction and Recovery Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines ("Parameters and Guidelines"):

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Furthermore, the auditor noted that each cost had to be attributed to an actual case. However, the language of section V does not require that all costs be attributed to an actual case. Instead, it uses the language of "actual costs" (emphasis added). These are defined as "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities." It specifically allows the use of "employee time records or time logs" as a methodology to show actual costs. Additionally, section V goes on to provide that evidence corroborating the validity of costs may include "worksheets" and "cost allocation reports (system generated)." Section V by its very terms anticipates and allows for allocating costs. Subsection A of section V provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…." This includes both direct and indirect costs.

The DA's Office has properly submitted for reimbursement those increased costs which it was required to incur in order to conduct the mandated activities related to Child Abduction and Recovery. The DA's Office used time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program. These reflect the DA's actual costs associated with providing these mandated actions. The DA's Office consolidation of services saves the state by avoiding duplicative costs.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will individually track administrative time by case. Adjustments have been made to update time keeping so that all costs are directly charged to the specific case worked.

"Good Cause" Cases

Child abduction cases take many different forms, oftentimes evolving as an investigation unfolds. Complaints of a child abduction are received and reviewed by DA staff. It is not uncommon that while investigating a complaint, the DA's Office will be contacted by the alleged offender with a "Good Cause" claim pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7 that the person has a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or physical harm. Furthermore, frequently the DA's Office will receive multiple complaints regarding the same child or children and involved parties, which may relate back to a prior "Good Cause" claim, but each new complaint must be investigated anew.

The Audit Report noted that, even if otherwise in the context of a child abduction investigation, "Good Cause" cases are unallowable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to section 278.7 cases as a reimbursable cost. The finding determined that the DA's Office claimed unallowable costs in the amount of $32,276 related to "Good Cause" cases. We do not agree with this finding.

The Legislature created the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate by statute in 1976. The code sections that set forth these provisions and the specific mandates were thereafter repealed and reissued with different section numbers. Former Civil Code section 4604 was reissued as Family Code sections 3130 and 3131. Family Code section 3130 provides that if a petition to determine custody of a child has been filed in court or a temporary order pending determination of custody has been entered, and the whereabouts of a party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe that the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for purposes of adjudication of custody. Family Code section 3131 provides that if a custody or visitation order has been entered and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order, as well as assist in enforcement of the custody or visitation order or other order of the court by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceeding. Neither section provides for or mentions a "Good Cause" exception. Although such a claim may arise in the course of an investigation, District Attorneys are still mandated by statute to take all actions necessary in locating the parties and procuring compliance, which would necessarily involve an evaluation of any "Good Cause" claim that is made.

Furthermore, as previously noted, subsection A of section V in the Parameters and Guidelines provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…" (emphasis added). Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

In creating the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate in 1976, the Legislature added, amongst other things, two specific Penal Code provisions that prosecutors could charge as part of their authorization to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceedings to assist, as mandated, the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children (these two criminal provisions were later renumbered as Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5). In 1996, the Legislature added Penal Code section 278.7, which provides a specific exception for prosecutions under section 278.5 for "Good Cause" claims. Essentially, section 278.7 creates a defense to prosecution under section 278.5.

Part of investigating a potential criminal matter involves a determination of whether any particular defenses would excuse or justify the behavior, thus negating the possibility of successfully utilizing criminal proceedings to prosecute the matter. Imagine the state mandated that DA's Offices investigate homicide cases under Penal Code section 187. However, Penal Code section 196 sets forth when a homicide may be justified, which includes homicides committed in self-defense. Using the same logic followed in the Audit Report, prosecutors would not be entitled to reimbursement for investigation for any homicide where the investigation led to a determination that the homicide was committed in self-defense because Penal Code section 196 is a different provision than section 187. However, it is still a homicide. Similarly, "Good Cause" cases are still a form of child abduction, where one person has deprived another of lawful custody or visitation, but for a lawfully excused reason.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will review and modify its method of tracking "Good Cause" cases. Additional training has been provided to staff. Time will be tracked to the appropriate case and case review will occur prior to reimbursement request.

A change in allowable indirect costs of $61,671 was associated with the adjustments from the SD times and "Good Cause" cases. The method of determining the indirect cost was not subject to a finding.

SCO's Response

Our finding and recommendation remain unchanged.

Standard Distributed Times

In an email from the county dated February 3, 2021, the county explained the SD time as follows:

This is time spent working on non-program specific activities for the [State Targeted Offenders] unit as a whole. For example, a clerical person performs the mail run which takes 2.0 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the whole unit. If we only worked on 4 cases that month, (1 Child Abduction, 1 SVP, 1 Prisons and 1 WF), each case in the month would get the 2.0 hours spread based on the FTE percentage for each unit.

Section V. (Reimbursable Activities) of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Per the county, SD time is spent working on "non-program specific activities." As these claimed costs are non-program-specific, we are unable to determine the validity of these costs and their relationship to the reimbursable activities.

Furthermore, the county separately identified, and claimed, a category called Program Distributed (PD) time. The county explained in an email dated February 3, 2021:

> This is time spent working on a program but not a specific case. When entered in the system, it spreads this time over all the cases that were worked on in that specific program for the month. For example, a clerical person work on updating the child abduction logs for 2 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the Child Abduction program. If we only worked on 2 child abduction cases throughout the month, each case would show 1.0 hours of PD – General Clerical billing.

We determined that PD time was allowable, as the activities performed were directly related the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. Any disallowed PD time was directly attributable to time spent on activities related to PC section 278.7 cases (commonly referred to as "good cause" cases). These cases are not incorporated into the program's parameters and guidelines.

The county states "Furthermore, the auditor noted that each cost had to be attributed to an actual case." We disagree with this statement.

As stated in the county's response, "Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state." For the time claimed for employees' activities performed directly on cases, we requested case files to determine the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. The county disagrees with the exclusion of SD time as part this audit report, but its own records already segregate SD time and PD time. PD time is directly attributable to Child Abductions cases, but SD time is for "non-program specific" activities and, per the program's parameters and guidelines, is not considered an "actual cost."

"Good Cause" Cases

The county states:

> Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

We disagree. The costs do not "fall within the mandated activities," because activities for PC 278.7 are not identified in the parameters and guidelines.

During the audit, the county provided a list of "good cause" cases that it had misidentified. As stated by the county in an email on August 27, 2021, "The cases were reported to the county as 'Good Cause' cases but turned out to be child abduction cases after all." Therefore, we allowed the time spent on mandated activities performed on these misidentified cases. All other "good cause" cases confirmed by the county, and the associated time claimed, were disallowed.

FINDING 2— Overstated materials and supplies costs

The county claimed a total of $260,652 in materials and supplies costs for the audit period. We determined that $43,632 is allowable and $217,020 is unallowable. These costs are unallowable because the county claimed costs that were allocated to the State Targeted Offenders Unit, rather than actual costs supported by source documentation.

The following table shows the materials and supplies costs claimed by the State Targeted Offenders Unit, the allowable costs, and the audit adjustment by fiscal year:

Fiscal Year	Amount Claimed	Amount Allowable	Audit Adjustment
2016-17	$ 67,970	$ 2,966	$ (65,004)
2017-18	81,806	7,937	(73,869)
2018-19	110,876	32,729	(78,147)
	$260,652	$ 43,632	$(217,020)

The county developed a methodology for allocating a percentage of materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit as direct costs applicable to the mandated program. For each fiscal year, the county calculated the ratio of the State Targeted Offenders Unit's program-related salaries and benefits to the unit's total salaries and benefits. To determine program-related materials and supplies costs, the county applied the applicable percentage to the materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit.

The following table illustrates the methodology used to calculate the State Targeted Offenders Unit's materials and supplies costs, and the related audit adjustments by fiscal year.

		Fiscal Year
		2016-17			2017-18			2018-19			Total
Costs for the State Targeted Offenders Unit		Total Claimed	Total Allowable	Total Adj.	Total Claimed	Total Allowable	Total Adj.	Total Claimed	Total Allowable	Total Adj.	Total Audit Adj.
Non-salary and benefit costs		$ 737,151	-		$ 788,279	-		$ 747,223	-
Less: travel and training		(18,842)	-		(21,113)	-		(23,290)	-
Non-travel and training costs		718,309	-		767,166	-		723,933	-
Percent of salaries and benefits related to program	×	9.0495%	-		9.6288%	-		10.7948%	-
Non-travel and training costs reported as direct program materials and supplies		65,004	-		73,869	-		78,147	-
Actual direct materials and supplies		2,966	2,966		7,937	7,937		32,729	32,729
Total materials and supplies costs		$ 67,970	$ 2,966	$(65,004)	$ 81,806	$ 7,937	$(73,869)	$ 110,876	$ 32,729	$(78,147)	$(217,020)

Based on the documentation provided, we determined that a total of $217,020 in materials and supplies costs is unallowable. The costs are unallowable because the county did not claim actual costs that were supported by source documentation.

Section V., "Reimbursable Costs," of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Recommendation

We recommend that the county:

- Follow the mandated program claiming instructions and the parameters and guidelines when preparing its reimbursement claims; and
- Ensure that claimed costs include only eligible costs, are based on actual costs, and are properly supported.

County's Response

> As previously noted in the Standard Distributed Times discussion in response to Finding 1, the DA's Office similarly relied on the reasonable methodology of cost allocation based on full-time equivalents (FTEs) to determine materials and supplies costs for this program. These costs include California mandated employment costs, general office supplies, computer infrastructure, phones, and leased facilities charges all used by staff working on the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The Audit Report concluded that $217,020 in materials and supplies costs were unallowable. The auditor noted that each cost had to be directly attributable to a particular case. We do not agree with this finding.
> The employees who worked on child abduction matters tracked their time and only noted billable hours for reimbursable activities. From this, it can be calculated what percentage of their time was spent on reimbursable mandated activities, which then was used to determine the actual cost of related materials and supplies used in those efforts. As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. This audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.
> To analyze this finding further, the cost of phones can be used as an example. Employees need phones to do their jobs. A service fee is imposed to have that phone available. According to the auditor, the DA's Office can only charge for the cost of the phone attributable to a particular case, i.e., the minutes spent on the phone per actual case. Some > of these employees worked exclusively on child abduction cases. The remaining employees split time working on child abduction cases and other state-mandated activities, for which they tracked their time. They would not have had a phone for this particular work if not mandated to perform these functions. Denying this as an actual cost would be akin to saying reimbursement would not be available for the cost of a desk chair and would instead only be allowable for the portion of the cost of the chair for the actual minutes we could show spent sitting in it directly working on a particular case.

> To further show the validity of the methodology used by the DA's Office, the DA's Office provided an alternative cost allocation worksheet based on productive hourly rates and actual hours worked for further consideration. The alternative method totaled $222,966 after backing out the unallowed SD time. The disallowed claim amount based on current methodology was $217,020. The difference between the two methods is only $5,946, providing further evidence that the current methodology is comparably accurate and reasonable.
> We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will no longer request reimbursement using cost allocation methodologies. Management is working to implement a tracking mechanism for program costs so they can follow the claiming instructions as established in this audit process.

SCO's Response

Our finding and recommendation remain unchanged.

The county states "The auditor noted that each cost had to be directly attributable to a particular case." We disagree.

The county claimed both direct and allocated materials and supplies costs. For the direct materials and supplies costs claimed, we requested support to show the validity of claimed costs and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. The county supported the costs with child abduction and recovery case files. The county provided the related case files, and we determined that all direct materials supplies costs were allowable. We noted no exceptions for the direct materials and supplies costs claimed.

The county developed a methodology for allocating a percentage of materials and supplies costs incurred by the State Targeted Offenders Unit as direct costs applicable to the mandated program. These costs were allocated across all programs within the State Targeted Offenders Unit, but were claimed as direct costs directly attributable to the Child Abduction program.

The county states:

> As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. This audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.

We disagree. Cost allocation reports are considered corroborating documents and not source documents.

Section V. (Reimbursable Activities) of the parameters and guidelines states, in part:

> A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual costs were incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.
> Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations …However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The county must claim only the actual costs for the reimbursable program. Actual costs are supported by source documentation. Cost allocation reports are not considered source documents.

Re: Audit of Legislatively Mandated Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program

Dear Ms. Kurokawa,

The Sacramento County District Attorney's (DA's) Office respectfully submits the following responses to the California State Controller's Audit Report regarding Sacramento County Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program for the period of July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2019.

Finding 1 – Overstated salaries and benefit costs and related indirect costs

Standard Distributed Times

The Audit Report concluded that salaries and benefits for Standard Distributed (SD) time in the amount of $154,127 claimed by the DA's Office during the audit period (July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2019) were unallowable. We do not agree with this finding.

California Family Code sections 3130 through 3134.5 mandate that District Attorneys assist the courts in enforcing their child custody and visitation orders and in locating and returning children who have been taken or detained in violation of another person's custody right. Prosecutors are authorized to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding to assist the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children. District Attorneys' child abduction work is reimbursable by the state under the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate.

The DA's Office has a State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP), which consists of our Child Abduction and Recovery Program, CDCR prison prosecutions, and other state-reimbursed programs. This allows for consolidation of supervisory, clerical, and other general costs such as rent, phones, office supplies, and insurance for which the state will provide reimbursement. These costs were then subdivided amongst the various state-reimbursed programs within STOP, directly allocating those expenses to the appropriate program according to time studies. Employees who worked on Child Abduction cases tracked their time daily and only time actually worked on applicable cases was thereafter billed to the state. Many of these employees work exclusively on Child Abduction and Recovery cases. For other employees who provided supportive activities, such as clerical, supervisory, and billing, when they recorded time generally, those hours were proportioned based on the number of worked during the month. If not for state mandate, the DA's Office would not have had these dedicated employees and their related costs of employment handling Child Abduction and Recovery matters. The DA's Office allocated and claimed these costs using what was believed to be a reasonable methodology, which was applied consistently and not disproportionately allocated to this mandated program. The time claimed was general administrative time on behalf of eligible cases as a whole, spread amongst the programs based on the full-time equivalent percentage for each program.

In finding that this methodology was unallowable, the audit relied upon and quoted the following language from section V of the 2009 Custody of Minors: Child Abduction and Recovery Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines ("Parameters and Guidelines"):

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Furthermore, the auditor noted that each cost had to be attributed to an actual case. However, the language of section V does not require that all costs be attributed to an actual case. Instead, it uses the language of "actual costs" (emphasis added). These are defined as "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities." It specifically allows the use of "employee time records or time logs" as a methodology to show actual costs. Additionally, section V goes on to provide that evidence corroborating the validity of costs may include "worksheets" and "cost allocation reports (system generated)." Section V by its very terms anticipates and allows for allocating costs. Subsection A of section V provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…." This includes both direct and indirect costs.

The DA's Office has properly submitted for reimbursement those increased costs which it was required to incur in order to conduct the mandated activities related to Child Abduction and Recovery. The DA's Office used time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program. These reflect the DA's actual costs associated with providing these mandated actions. The DA's Office consolidation of services saves the state by avoiding duplicative costs.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will individually track administrative time by case. Adjustments have been made to update time keeping so that all costs are directly charged to the specific case worked.

"Good Cause" Cases

Child abduction cases take many different forms, oftentimes evolving as an investigation unfolds. Complaints of a child abduction are received and reviewed by DA staff. It is not uncommon that while investigating a complaint, the DA's Office will be contacted by the alleged offender with a "Good Cause" claim pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7 that the person has a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or physical harm. Furthermore, frequently the DA's Office will receive multiple complaints regarding the same child or children and involved parties, which may relate back to a prior "Good Cause" claim, but each new complaint must be investigated anew.

The Audit Report noted that, even if otherwise in the context of a child abduction investigation, "Good Cause" cases are unallowable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to section 278.7 cases as a reimbursable cost. The finding determined that the DA's Office claimed unallowable costs in the amount of $32,276 related to "Good Cause" cases. We do not agree with this finding.

The Legislature created the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate by statute in 1976. The code sections that set forth these provisions and the specific mandates were thereafter repealed and reissued with different section numbers. Former Civil Code section 4604 was reissued as Family Code sections 3130 and 3131. Family Code section 3130 provides that if a petition to determine custody of a child has been filed in court or a temporary order pending determination of custody has been entered, and the whereabouts of a party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe that the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for purposes of adjudication of custody. Family Code section 3131 provides that if a custody or visitation order has been entered and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order, as well as assist in enforcement of the custody or visitation order or other order of the court by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceeding. Neither section provides for or mentions a "Good Cause" exception. Although such a claim may arise in the course of an investigation, District Attorneys are still mandated by statute to take all actions necessary in locating the parties and procuring compliance, which would necessarily involve an evaluation of any "Good Cause" claim that is made.

Furthermore, as previously noted, subsection A of section V in the Parameters and Guidelines provides, "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…" (emphasis added). Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a "Good Cause" claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

In creating the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate in 1976, the Legislature added, amongst other things, two specific Penal Code provisions that prosecutors could charge as part of their authorization to utilize any appropriate civil or criminal proceedings to assist, as mandated, the courts in enforcing their orders and to locate and recover missing children (these two criminal provisions were later renumbered as Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5). In 1996, the Legislature added Penal Code section 278.7, which provides a specific exception for prosecutions under section 278.5 for "Good Cause" claims. Essentially, section 278.7 creates a defense to prosecution under section 278.5.

Part of investigating a potential criminal matter involves a determination of whether any particular defenses would excuse or justify the behavior, thus negating the possibility of successfully utilizing criminal proceedings to prosecute the matter. Imagine the state mandated that DA's Offices investigate homicide cases under Penal Code section 187. However, Penal Code section 196 sets forth when a homicide may be justified, which includes homicides committed in self-defense. Using the same logic followed in the Audit Report, prosecutors would not be entitled to reimbursement for investigation for any homicide where the investigation led to a determination that the homicide was committed in self-defense because Penal Code section 196 is a different provision than section 187. However, it is still a homicide. Similarly, "Good Cause" cases are still a form of child abduction, where one person has deprived another of lawful custody or visitation, but for a lawfully excused reason.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will review and modify its method of tracking "Good Cause" cases. Additional training has been provided to staff. Time will be tracked to the appropriate case and case review will occur prior to reimbursement request.

A change in allowable indirect costs of $61,671 was associated with the adjustments from the SD times and "Good Cause" cases. The method of determining the indirect cost was not subject to a finding.

Finding 2 – Overstated materials and supplies costs

As previously noted in the Standard Distributed Times discussion in response to Finding 1, the DA's Office similarly relied on the reasonable methodology of cost allocation based on full-time equivalents (FTEs) to determine materials and supplies costs for this program. These costs include California mandated employment costs, general office supplies, computer infrastructure, phones, and leased facilities charges all used by staff working on the Child Abduction and Recovery Program. The Audit Report concluded that $217,020 in materials and supplies costs were unallowable. The auditor noted that each cost had to be directly attributable to a particular case. We do not agree with this finding.

The employees who worked on child abduction matters tracked their time and only noted billable hours for reimbursable activities. From this, it can be calculated what percentage of their time was spent on reimbursable mandated activities, which then was used to determine the actual cost of related materials and supplies used in those efforts. As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets. This is a reasonable and appropriate manner to show actual cost. This audit process is now imposing additional requirements and limitations not set forth in the Parameters and Guidelines.

To analyze this finding further, the cost of phones can be used as an example. Employees need phones to do their jobs. A service fee is imposed to have that phone available. According to the auditor, the DA's Office can only charge for the cost of the phone attributable to a particular case, i.e., the minutes spent on the phone per actual case. Some of these employees worked exclusively on child abduction cases. The remaining employees split time working on child abduction cases and other state-mandated activities, for which they tracked their time. They would not have had a phone for this particular work if not mandated to perform these functions. Denying this as an actual cost would be akin to saying reimbursement would not be available for the cost of a desk chair and would instead only be allowable for the portion of the cost of the chair for the actual minutes we could show spent sitting in it directly working on a particular case.

To further show the validity of the methodology used by the DA's Office, the DA's Office provided an alternative cost allocation worksheet based on productive hourly rates and actual hours worked for further consideration. The alternative method totaled $222,966 after backing out the unallowed SD time. The disallowed claim amount based on current methodology was $217,020. The difference between the two methods is only $5,946, providing further evidence that the current methodology is comparably accurate and reasonable.

We respectfully disagree with the audit's findings and intend to submit an Incorrect Reduction Claim. However, in light of the audit's findings and to avoid future billing disputes, moving forward, until any Incorrect Reduction Claim is resolved, the DA's Office will no longer request reimbursement using cost allocation methodologies. Management is working to implement a tracking mechanism for program costs so they can follow the claiming instructions as established in this audit process.

05-PGA-26 (CSM 4237)

State Controller's Office, Claimant

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

This amendment is effective beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 period of reimbursement.

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561 (d) (3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of issuance of the claiming instructions by the State Controller.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by Government Code Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.

Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge." Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.

The claimant is only allowed to claim and be reimbursed for increased costs for reimbursable activities identified below. Increased cost is limited to the cost of an activity that the claimant is required to incur as a result of the mandate.

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in

Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, all direct and indirect costs of labor, materials and supplies, training and travel for the following activities are eligible for reimbursement:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child(ren).

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with court orders.

      (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (4) Depositions.

   c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

      (1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

      (2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

   a. Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

Claims for reimbursement must be timely filed and identify each cost element for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate. Claimed costs must be identified to each reimbursable activity identified in Section V of this document.

A. Direct Costs

Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions.

Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended, and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes, and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.

B. Indirect Costs

Indirect costs are defined as costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved. Indirect costs may include both (1) overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate, and (2) the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.

Compensation for indirect costs is eligible for reimbursement utilizing the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87. Claimants have the option of using 10% of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP) for the department if the indirect cost rate claimed exceeds 10%. If more than one department is claiming indirect costs for the mandated program, each department must have its own ICRP prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-87. An ICRP must be submitted with the claim when the indirect cost rate exceeds 10%.

1. Reimbursements

   On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

   In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

   Any amount received by a county and forwarded directly to the state, must be reported on the cost summary form, but will not reduce the amount of the claim.

2. Mileage and Travel

   Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

VIII. RECORD RETENTION

Pursuant to Government Code section 17558.5, subdivision (a), a reimbursement claim for actual costs filed by a local agency or school district pursuant to this chapter1 is subject to the initiation of an audit by the Controller no later than three years after the date that the actual reimbursement claim is filed or last amended, whichever is later. However, if no funds are appropriated or no payment is made to a claimant for the program for the fiscal year for which the claim is filed, the time for the Controller to initiate an audit shall commence to run from the date of initial payment of the claim. In any case, an audit shall be completed not later than two years after the date that the audit is commenced. All documents used to support the reimbursable activities, as described in Section V, must be retained during the period subject to audit. If the Controller has initiated an audit during the period subject to audit, the retention period is extended until the ultimate resolution of any audit findings.

1 This refers to Title 2, division 4, part 7, chapter 4 of the Government Code.

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from the claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

An authorized representative of the claimant will be required to provide a certification of the claim, as specified in the State Controller's claiming instructions, for those costs mandated by the state contained therein.

Hi [redacted]

Thank you again for sending us the requested documents. I have a few follow up questions regarding the documents you sent:

1. [redacted]

3. We noticed that some line items do not have an initial attached to them. In particular, several line items have a [redacted] SD attached to the activity. [redacted]

   b. SD stands for standard distributed time.

      i. This is time spent working on non-program specific activities for the unit as a whole. For example, a clerical person performs the mail run which takes 2.0 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the whole unit. If we only worked on 4 cases that month, (1 Child Abduction, 1 SVP, 1 Prisons and 1 WF), each case in the month would get the 2.0 hours spread based on the FTE percentage for each unit. Using the allocations below, 1.26 hours would be billed to Prisons, 0.24 hours would be billed to SVP/MDO/NGI, 0.32 hours would be billed to CAI and 0.18 would be billed to WF.

Program	FTE	Percentage Spread
Prisons	10.0	63%
SVP/MDO/NGI	2.0	12%
CAI	2.5	16%
WF	1.5	9%

ARTICLE 7 (Adopted July 27, 2018) (Served July 30, 2018)

DECISION

The Commission on State Mandates (Commission) heard and decided this Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) during a regularly scheduled hearing on July 27, 2018. Sean Mick appeared on behalf of the claimant, and Masha Vorobyova appeared on behalf of the State Controller's Office (Controller).

The law applicable to the Commission's determination of a reimbursable state-mandated program is article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution, Government Code section 17500 et seq., and related case law.

The Commission adopted the Proposed Decision to deny the IRC by a vote of 5-0 as follows:

Member	Vote
Lee Adams, County Supervisor	Yes
Ken Alex, Director of the Office of Planning and Research	Absent
Richard Chivaro, Representative of the State Controller	Absent

Summary of the Findings

This analysis addresses reductions made by the Controller to reimbursement claims filed by the Carlsbad Unified School District (claimant) for costs incurred during fiscal years 2005-2006 through 2008-2009 (audit period) for the Stull Act program. The claimant disputes reductions totaling $274,101 for the audit period.

The Commission denies this IRC, finding that reductions related to the claimant's time study, and disallowances of completed employee evaluations in all four fiscal years were correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

Specifically, the Controller reduced costs based on denial of 19 of 22 discrete activities identified in the claimant's time study, relating to training, meetings, observation, report writing, conferences between evaluators and teachers, and other activities relating to planning, preparation, and organizing notes, and STAR testing. These activities are beyond the very narrow scope of the approved higher level of service, and the claimant has presented no argument or evidence establishing the relationship to the mandated activities included in the Parameters and Guidelines. The reduction based on the 19 denied activities is therefore correct as a matter of law, and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

In addition, the Controller reduced reimbursement based on disallowed completed evaluations for non-instructional certificated employees, such as administrators, counselors, and librarians, among others; and preschool teachers. Preschool teachers do not perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law, and therefore evaluations of preschool teachers are not reimbursable. Similarly, evaluations of non-instructional certificated personnel are reimbursable under Part IV.B. of the Parameters and Guidelines only if such employees' last regularly-scheduled evaluation resulted in an unsatisfactory evaluation; those facts are not supported in the record. The reduction based on disallowed completed evaluations is therefore correct as a matter of law.

II. Background

The Stull Act was originally enacted in 1971 to establish a uniform system of evaluation and assessment of the performance of "certificated personnel" within each school district. (Former Ed. Code, §§ 13485-13490.) As originally enacted, the Stull Act required the governing board of each school district to develop and adopt specific guidelines to evaluate and assess certificated personnel, and to avail itself of the advice of certificated instructional personnel before developing and adopting the guidelines.[14] The evaluation and assessment of the certificated personnel was required to be reduced to writing and a copy transmitted to the employee no later than sixty days before the end of the school year.[15] The employee then had the right to initiate a written response to the evaluation, which became a permanent part of the employee's personnel file.[16] The school district was also required to hold a meeting with the employee to discuss the evaluation.[17]

Prior law also required that the evaluation and assessment be continuous.[18] For probationary employees, the evaluation had to occur once each school year. For permanent employees, the evaluation was required every other year. Former section 13489 also required that the evaluation include recommendations, if necessary, for areas of improvement in the performance of the employee. If the employee was not performing his or her duties in a satisfactory manner according to the standards, the "employing authority" was required to notify the employee in writing, describe the unsatisfactory performance, and confer with the employee making specific recommendations as to areas of improvement and endeavor to assist in the improvement. Reimbursement for these prior requirements was denied by the Commission.[19]

The test claim statutes amended the Stull Act in 1983 and 1999 to expand the scope of evaluation and assessment of certificated personnel. The test claim statutes added additional criteria that must be included in those evaluations: the employee's instructional techniques and strategies, and adherence to curricular objectives; and the performance of instructional employees that teach reading, writing, mathematics, history/social science, and science in grades 2 to 11 (i.e., the STAR test subjects) as it reasonably relates to the progress of pupils towards the state adopted academic content standards as measured by state adopted assessment tests.[20] And, in the case the employee receives an unsatisfactory result, the test claim statutes require an additional evaluation "in the years in which the permanent certificated employee would not have otherwise been evaluated."[21]

Since prior law already required evaluation and assessment of certificated personnel, the Commission partially approved the Test Claim on May 27, 2004, for those activities that represent the limited new program or higher level of service mandated by the state by the test claim statutes. The Test Claim Decision also found that the mandate was limited to certificated personnel performing the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law; in other words, if the personnel being evaluated are performing the duties of voluntary school programs, the evaluation of those personnel would not be mandated by the state.[22]

The Parameters and Guidelines were adopted September 27, 2005. As relevant to this IRC, the Parameters and Guidelines identify the following reimbursable activities and limitations:

A. Certificated Instructional Employees

1. Evaluate and assess the performance of certificated instructional employees that perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law as it reasonably relates to the instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee and the employee's adherence to curricular objectives (Ed. Code, § 44662, subd. (b), as amended by Stats. 1983, ch. 498.).

[22] See Exhibit E, Test Claim Decision, The Stull Act, 98-TC-25, pages 5-12.

Reimbursement for this activity is limited to:

a. reviewing the employee's instructional techniques and strategies and adherence to curricular objectives, and

b. including in the written evaluation of the certificated instructional employees the assessment of these factors during the following evaluation periods:

- once each year for probationary certificated employees;
- every other year for permanent certificated employees; and
- beginning January 1, 2004, every five years for certificated employees with permanent status who have been employed at least ten years with the school district, are highly qualified (as defined in 20 U.S.C. § 7801), and whose previous evaluation rated the employee as meeting or exceeding standards, if the evaluator and certificated employee being evaluated agree.

Note: For purposes of claiming reimbursement, eligible claimants must identify the state or federal law mandating the educational program being performed by the certificated instructional employees.

2. Evaluate and assess the performance of certificated instructional employees that teach reading, writing, mathematics, history/social science, and science in grades 2 to 11 as it reasonably relates to the progress of pupils towards the state adopted academic content standards as measured by state adopted assessment tests (Ed. Code, § 44662, subd. (b), as amended by Stats. 1999, ch. 4.).

   Reimbursement for this activity is limited to:

   a. reviewing the results of the Standardized Testing and Reporting test as it reasonably relates to the performance of those certificated employees that teach reading, writing, mathematics, history/social science, and science in grades 2 to 11, and

   b. including in the written evaluation of those certificated employees the assessment of the employee's performance based on the Standardized Testing and Reporting results for the pupils they teach during the evaluation periods specified in Education Code section 44664, and described below:

   - once each year for probationary certificated employees;
   - every other year for permanent certificated employees; and
   - beginning January 1, 2004, every five years for certificated employees with permanent status who have been employed at least ten years with the school district, are highly qualified (as defined in 20 U.S.C. § 7801), and whose previous evaluation rated the employee as meeting or exceeding standards, if the evaluator and certificated employee being evaluated agree.

B. Certificated (Instructional and Non-Instructional) Employees

1. Evaluate and assess permanent certificated, instructional and non-instructional, employees that perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law and receive an unsatisfactory evaluation in the years in which the permanent certificated employee would not have otherwise been evaluated pursuant to Education Code section 44664 (i.e., every other year). The additional evaluations shall last until the employee achieves a positive evaluation, or is separated from the school district (Ed. Code, § 44664, as amended by Stats. 1983, ch. 498).

   This additional evaluation and assessment of the permanent certificated employee requires the school district to perform the following activities:

   a. evaluating and assessing the certificated employee performance as it reasonably relates to the following criteria: (1) the progress of pupils toward the standards established by the school district of expected pupil achievement at each grade level in each area of study, and, if applicable, the state adopted content standards as measured by state adopted criterion referenced assessments; (2) the instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee; (3) the employee's adherence to curricular objectives; (4) the establishment and maintenance of a suitable learning environment, within the scope of the employee's responsibilities; and, if applicable, (5) the fulfillment of other job responsibilities established by the school district for certificated non-instructional personnel (Ed. Code, § 44662, subds. (b) and (c));

   b. reducing the evaluation and assessment to writing (Ed. Code, § 44663, subd. (a)). The evaluation shall include recommendations, if necessary, as to areas of improvement in the performance of the employee. If the employee is not performing his or her duties in a satisfactory manner according to the standards prescribed by the governing board, the school district shall notify the employee in writing of that fact and describe the unsatisfactory performance (Ed. Code, § 44664, subd. (b));

   c. transmitting a copy of the written evaluation to the certificated employee (Ed. Code, § 44663, subd. (a));

   d. attaching any written reaction or response to the evaluation by the certificated employee to the employee's personnel file (Ed. Code, § 44663, subd. (a)); and

   e. conducting a meeting with the certificated employee to discuss the evaluation (Ed. Code, § 44553, subd. (a)).

Note: For purposes of claiming reimbursement, eligible claimants must identify the state or federal law mandating the educational program being performed by the certificated, instructional and non-instructional, employees.[23]

[23] Exhibit A, IRC, pages 31-33 [Parameters and Guidelines, pp. 3-5].

Additionally, the Parameters and Guidelines require that actual costs claimed "must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities."[24]

Controller's Audit and Summary of the Issues

The Controller's Final Audit Report states that "[i]nitially, all costs claimed [for employee salaries and benefits] by the district were unallowable because they were based on average time increments supported with time records that were not completed contemporaneously."[25] In other words, the claimant did not provide adequate source documentation, and utilized average times to calculate the reimbursement requested. The Controller initially disallowed the entire claim. The claimant's representatives then conduced a time study in fiscal year 2010-2011, as a substitute for records of actual time spent on evaluations, to determine the costs for the audit period (fiscal years 2005-2006 through 2008-2009).[26] The Controller accepted and applied that time study to the audit period, but as explained below determined that the scope of the time study included unallowable activities and costs.

There is no indication in the record that claimant disputes the Controller's initial rejection of the claimant's source documentation; the dispute in this IRC is focused on the development and application of the claimant's time study.[27]

The claimant's time study documented the time to perform 22 "activities of the teacher evaluation process," and determined that it takes evaluators approximately 10 hours and 38 minutes, on average, to complete each required evaluation.[28] Of those 22 "activities" included in the time study, the Controller disallowed 19, as follows:

1. Preparing before training or planning meetings/conferences;
2. Training or planning meetings/conferences;
3. Preparing/organizing notes from training or planning meetings/conferences;
4. Preparing before meeting with teachers;
5. Conducting actual conference with teachers;
6. Preparing or organizing notes from meetings with teachers;
7. Preparing before "Pre-Observation" conferences with teachers;

8. Conducting "Pre-Observation" conferences with teachers;
9. Preparing/organizing notes form "Pre-Observation" conferences with teachers;
10. Preparing before classroom observations of teachers;
11. Preparing/organizing notes from classroom observations, finalizing Collect Data forms;
12. Reporting observations, preparing the Standards for Excellence in Teaching observation checklists;
13. Preparing before "Post-Observation" conferences with teachers;
14. Conducting "Post-Observation" conferences with teachers;
15. Preparing notes from "Post-Observation" conferences and preparing Reflecting Conference worksheets;
16. Preparing before Final Evaluation conferences with teachers;
17. Conducting Final Evaluation conferences with teachers;
18. Preparing/organizing notes from Final Evaluation conferences with teachers; and
19. Discussing the STAR results with teachers and assessing how to improve instructional abilities.[29]

The Controller determined that activities related to planning, preparation, and organizing notes are not reimbursable because they are not required activities under the Parameters and Guidelines; that the claimant duplicated costs by including training in the time study, which was identified as a separate reimbursable activity in the Parameters and Guidelines on a one-time basis for each employee performing the mandate; and that conferences between teachers and evaluators are not reimbursable because they were required under prior law.[30]

Accordingly, the Controller allowed three elements, or "activities" of the time study:

- Conducting "informal" classroom observations;
- Conducting "formal" classroom observations; and
- Writing Final Evaluation Reports and/or preparing Teacher Evaluation Report.[31]

[29] Exhibit A, IRC, pages 65-66 [Controller's Final Audit Report, pp. 6-7].

Based on these three activities, the Controller found that it takes approximately 5 hours and 8 minutes to complete each required teacher evaluation under the mandated program.[32]

In addition to limiting the elements of the time study, the Controller disallowed costs for 46 of 660 completed evaluations, which the Controller determined were claimed in excess of the scope of the mandate. The evaluations that the Controller found to be non-reimbursable were for:

- Principals, vice principals, directors, coordinators, counselors, psychologists, librarians, and library media specialists who are not certificated instructional employees;
- Preschool teachers who do not perform the requirements of the program that is mandated by state or federal law;
- Duplicate teacher evaluations claimed multiple times in one school year;
- Permanent biannual teacher evaluations claimed every year rather than every other year; and
- Permanent five-year teacher evaluations claimed multiple times in a five-year period rather than once every five years.[33]

The claimant responded to these findings in the Draft Audit Report, concurring with the findings on duplicate evaluations and evaluations conducted in years that they were not mandated, but asserting that the remaining reductions for administrative or library personnel, who were also certificated employees, and for preschool teachers, were not supported in the audit report or by any law or rule cited by the Controller.[34] In addition, the claimant conceded that training activities and costs were duplicated in the time study, and agreed that because the Parameters and Guidelines permitted training only once for each employee, the Controller's adjustment is reasonable.[35]

Accordingly, based on the claimant's response to the audit report and its IRC filing, the following issues are in dispute:

- Reductions based on the 19 disallowed activities in the claimant's time study; and
- Disallowed completed evaluations based on the type of certificated employee (i.e., Principals, vice principals, directors, coordinators, counselors, psychologists, librarians, and library media specialists, which are not certificated instructional employees; and preschool teachers, which the Controller found were not performing the requirements of state- or federally-mandated educational programs).[36]

III. Positions of the Parties

A. Carlsbad Unified School District

1. Time Study

The claimant groups the 19 disallowed activities from the time study into four categories: evaluation conferences; preparation activities; training activities; and STAR testing results.[37] The claimant acknowledges that the audit report allows reimbursement for training costs elsewhere in the findings, and therefore the claimant "does not dispute removal of the training time from the time study."[38] With respect to evaluation conferences, the claimant cites the Controller's finding that evaluation conferences are not new to the test claim statute, and argues that "[t]he Controller has confused the subject matter of the old and new mandates with the method of implementation."[39] The claimant notes that the Commission's Test Claim Decision found that the test claim statute added two new factors or criteria for evaluation of certificated instructional employees: "the instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee, and the employee's adherence to curricular objectives."[40] The claimant argues that "the fact that districts used evaluation conferences to implement the previous mandated activities does not exclude reimbursement to use the same method to implement the new activities."[41]

With respect to "preparation activities," the claimant argues that preparation time was stated as a separate element in the time study only to promote accuracy: "preparation time could have been logically merged with the activity relevant to the preparation."[42] The claimant notes that the Parameters and Guidelines "enumerates the subject matter of the evaluation process and not the entire process to implement the mandate."[43] The claimant further notes, "[e]ven the Controller characterizes the parameters and guidelines as an 'outline.'"[44] The claimant therefore concludes that preparation relating to evaluation conferences "is a rational, relevant, reasonable and necessary part of implementing the mandated activities in the usual course of business and the Controller has stated no basis to exclude it from the scope of the evaluation process."[45]

And with respect to STAR testing results, the claimant argues that the audit disallows time to review STAR test results "as it reasonably relates to the performance of those certificated employees that teach reading, writing, mathematics, history/social science, and science in grades 2 to 11…" despite such review being found reimbursable in the Commission's Test Claim Decision.[46]

Accordingly, the claimant alleges that the Controller incorrectly denied costs for activities properly included within the time study, and, incorrectly reduced the average time resulting from the study.

2. Excluded Evaluations

The claimant's time study assigned a value (in staff time) to each evaluation, for purposes of tracking costs and claiming reimbursement. The Controller, however, disallowed costs for 46 of 660 completed evaluations claimed, based on findings that those evaluations were beyond the scope of the mandate. Evaluations claimed beyond the scope of the mandate include those that were conducted at a time they were not required, including duplicate evaluations within a single school year and evaluations conducted more than once every five years for permanent five-year-tenured teachers, or more than every other year for permanent non-tenured teachers.[47] The remaining disallowances were for certificated employees who were not required to be evaluated under the mandate (specifically, administrative and other non-instructional personnel, and preschool instructors).[48] While the claimant concurs with the Controller's findings relating to evaluations conducted in a year they were not required, the claimant also notes in its IRC that the Controller has not identified the number of evaluations excluded based on each of these grounds.[49] With respect to excluded employees, such as "principals, vice principals, directors, coordinators, counselors, psychologists, librarians, and library media specialists,"[50] the claimant argues that the Test Claim Decision and Parameters and Guidelines do not limit reimbursement to employees providing classroom instruction. Rather, the claimant argues that the Test Claim Decision includes all certificated personnel "involved in the education process…"[51]

With respect to the exclusion of completed evaluations for preschool teachers, the claimant argues that the Commission identified a number of voluntary educational programs for which reimbursement for this mandate was not required, and preschool instruction was not among them.[52] Accordingly, the claimant asserts that "[t]here is no stated basis to exclude certificated preschool instructors."[53]

The claimant did not file comments on the Draft Proposed Decision.

B. State Controller's Office

The Controller explains that "[i]nitially, all costs claimed by the district were unallowable because they were based on average time increments supported with time records that were not completed contemporaneously."[54] The claimant conducted a time study in fiscal year 2010-2011, "as a substitute for records of actual time spent on teacher evaluations."[55] The Controller accepted and applied that time study to the audit period, but determined that the scope of the time study included unallowable activities and costs:

> The time study documented the time it took district evaluators to perform 22 separate activities of the teacher evaluation process. The time study results reported time for training, planning, preparation, meetings, observation, report writing and other activities within the evaluation process. We determined that 19 activities reported in the time study were unallowable.[56]

The claimant disputed those 19 disallowed activities, and grouped them into four categories: evaluation conferences; preparation activities; training activities; and STAR testing results.[57] Responding to the claimant's categories, the Controller asserts that "evaluation conferences" as described by the claimant are not reimbursable for two reasons: first, section IV.B.1. of the Parameters and Guidelines only provides reimbursement for evaluation conferences every other year, unless a previous evaluation results in an unsatisfactory evaluation. The Controller states that no unsatisfactory evaluations were reported.[58] And second, the Controller maintains that section IV.A.1. and IV.A.2. do not provide reimbursement for evaluation conferences, and the Commission's Statement of Decision expressly found that conferences were not reimbursable "because they were required before the enactment of the test claim legislation."[59] The Controller notes that the test claim statutes added "two new evaluation factors," but the evaluation itself was required under prior law.[60]

With respect to "preparation activities," the Controller argues that reimbursement is limited to those activities outlined in the Parameters and Guidelines, which do not list any preparation activities as reimbursable.[61] To the extent the claimant asserts that preparation activities are "reasonable and necessary," the Controller suggests that "[t]he district may filed an amendment with the Commission on State Mandates to amend the existing parameters and guidelines."[62]

And with respect to "STAR testing results," the Controller asserts that the claimant "did not claim any activity that is reimbursable."[63] The Controller notes that "[r]eimbursement for the activity IV.A.2 is limited to 'review of the results of the STAR test…and to include in the written evaluation…the assessment of the employee's performance based on STAR results…"[64] The claimant instead claimed reimbursement for "discussing the STAR results with teachers and how to improve instructional abilities."[65] The Controller asserts that "these two activities are not interchangeable," and "[w]e believe conference activities are not reimbursable, as they are not listed as allowable activities in the respective section of the program's parameters and guidelines."[66]

Finally, with respect to the number of completed evaluations claimed, and the number disallowed, the Controller notes that the claimant disagrees with the disallowed evaluations for "non-instructional certificated personnel," including administrators, counselors, librarians, and others; and disallowed evaluations for preschool teachers.[67] The Controller maintains that the claimant is reading the Commission's Test Claim Decision out of context, and therefore misinterpreting the Parameters and Guidelines with respect to employees for whom evaluations are reimbursable.[68] Addressing preschool teachers specifically, the Controller argues that the claimant failed to identify any specific state or federal law making preschool instruction mandatory, and therefore evaluations of preschool teachers are beyond the scope of this mandate.[69]

IV. Discussion

Government Code section 17561(d) authorizes the Controller to audit the claims filed by local agencies and school districts and to reduce any claim for reimbursement of state mandated costs that the Controller determines is excessive or unreasonable.

Government Code Section 17551(d) requires the Commission to hear and decide a claim that the Controller has incorrectly reduced payments to the local agency or school district. If the Commission determines that a reimbursement claim has been incorrectly reduced, section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations requires the Commission to send the decision to the Controller and request that the costs in the claim be reinstated.

The Commission must review questions of law, including interpretation of the parameters and guidelines, de novo, without consideration of legal conclusions made by the Controller in the context of an audit. The Commission is vested with exclusive authority to adjudicate disputes over the existence of state-mandated programs within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution.[71] The Commission must also interpret the Government Code and implementing regulations in accordance with the broader constitutional and statutory scheme. In making its decisions, the Commission must strictly construe article XIII B, section 6 and not apply it as an "equitable remedy to cure the perceived unfairness resulting from political decisions on funding priorities."[72]

With regard to the Controller's audit decisions, the Commission must determine whether they were arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. This standard is similar to the standard used by the courts when reviewing an alleged abuse of discretion of a state agency.[73] Under this standard, the courts have found that:

> When reviewing the exercise of discretion, "[t]he scope of review is limited, out of deference to the agency's authority and presumed expertise: 'The court may not reweigh the evidence or substitute its judgment for that of the agency. [Citation.]'" ... "In general ... the inquiry is limited to whether the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. . . ." [Citations.] When making that inquiry, the " ' "court must ensure that an agency has adequately considered all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational

The Commission must review the Controller's audit in light of the fact that the initial burden of providing evidence for a claim of reimbursement lies with the claimant. [75] In addition, section 1185.1(f)(3) and 1185.2(d) and (e) of the Commission's regulations require that any assertions of fact by the parties to an IRC must be supported by documentary evidence. The Commission's ultimate findings of fact must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.[76]

A. The Claimant Timely Filed this IRC Within Three Years From the Date It First Received From the Controller Written Notice of the Adjustment as Required by Former Section 1185.1 of the Commission's Regulations.

Government Code section 17561 authorizes the Controller to audit the reimbursement claims and records of local government to verify the actual amount of the mandated costs, and to reduce any claim that the Controller determines is excessive or unreasonable. If the Controller reduces a claim on a state-mandated program, the Controller is required to notify the claimant in writing, specifying the claim components adjusted, the amounts adjusted, interest charges on claims adjusted to reduce the overall reimbursement to the claimant, and the reason for the adjustment.[77] The claimant may then file an IRC with the Commission "pursuant to regulations adopted by the Commission" contending that the Controller's reduction was incorrect and to request that the Controller reinstate the amounts reduced to the claimant.[78]

To be complete, an IRC filing must be timely filed "no later than three years following the date of the Office of State Controller's final audit report, letter, remittance advice, or other written notice of adjustment to a reimbursement claim."[79]

Here, the Final Audit Report is dated June 15, 2012.[80] The IRC was filed with the Commission on June 9, 2015.[81] Less than three years having elapsed between the issuance of the final audit

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds the IRC was timely filed.

B. The Controller's Reductions Based on the Denial of Activities Included in the Claimant's Time Study that the Controller Found Were Beyond the Scope of the Mandate Are Correct as Matter of Law, and Not Arbitrary, Capricious, or Entirely Lacking in Evidentiary Support.

The Parameters and Guidelines for this program, adopted September 27, 2005, require that reimbursement be based on actual costs supported by contemporaneous source documents created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred, as follows:

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.[82]

The claimant's original reimbursement claim documentation is comprised of forms and schedules containing administrators' assertions of estimated staff time spent on the mandate, which were then compiled to produce average times to perform the mandated activities, and translated into costs.[83] The Controller rejected the claimant's initial claimed costs for fiscal years 2005-2006 through 2008-2009 "because they were based on average time increments supported with time records that were not completed contemporaneously."[84] This amounts to a finding that the claimant did not comply with the contemporaneous source document rule, and did not claim actual costs, as required by the Parameters and Guidelines.[85] There is no assertion or evidence in the record rebutting that finding. Pursuant to Government Code section 17564, reimbursement claims filed with the Controller shall be filed in the manner prescribed in the Parameters and Guidelines, and the Parameters and Guidelines, as a quasi-judicial decision of the Commission, are final and binding.[86] The claimant failed to comply with the Parameters and Guidelines, and therefore the Controller could have reduced the entire claim to zero. Any such reduction would have been correct as a matter of law.

Instead, the Controller permitted the claimant to conduct a time study based on fiscal year 2010-2011 activities, "as a substitute for records of actual time spent on teacher evaluations."[87] The results of that time study were then applied to the earlier audit period, and the issue before the Commission in this IRC is whether the Controller's adjustments to and application of the time study is arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

The claimant's time study identified 22 discrete activities involved in the teacher evaluation process, and identified the time spent on each item, in order to determine average times to perform the reimbursable activities.[88] Those items included time for training, planning, preparation, meetings, observation, report writing, and other activities, for a total (average) of 10 hours, 38 minutes per evaluation.[89]

The Controller disallowed 19 of the 22 discrete activities of the time study, based on the following findings:

(1) The activities related to planning, preparation, and organizing notes are not reimbursable under the mandate.

(2) Training-related activities were included in the time study, but were also claimed as a direct cost item in each fiscal year. "We determined allowable time spend on training from the district's original claims."

(3) Conferences between the evaluators and teachers are not reimbursable because they were required before the enactment of the test claim legislation.[90]

And, according to the claimant's narrative, the Controller also denied one activity related to evaluation and assessment of teachers with respect to their pupils' STAR testing results, and progress toward state standards.[91]

The Controller found that each completed evaluation takes an average of 5 hours and 8 minutes, based on the three allowed activities from the claimant's time study.[92]

The claimant disputes the disallowance of activities related to evaluation conferences, preparation and planning activities, and reviewing STAR test results.[93] Specifically, the claimant argues that evaluation conferences are "a method of implementing this mandate, and not just a subject matter activity."[94] The claimant further asserts that preparation activities were not explicitly considered or denied by the Test Claim Decision, and "[p]reparation is a rational, relevant, reasonable and necessary part of implementing the mandated activities in the usual course of business and the Controller has stated no basis to exclude it from the scope of the evaluation process."[95] In addition, the claimant argues that the Test Claim Decision approved "the review of the results of the STAR test as it reasonably relates to the performance of those certificated employees [that teach STAR test subjects], and to include in the written evaluation of those certificated employees the assessment of the employee's performance based on the STAR results for the pupils they teach."[96]

The Commission finds that the Controller's denial of the 19 activities included in the claimant's time study is correct as a matter of law, and not arbitrary, capricious, or without evidentiary support.

The Parameters and Guidelines limit reimbursement for evaluation and assessment of certificated employees as follows:

- Evaluate and assess the performance of certificated instructional employees that perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law as it reasonably relates to the instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee; and the employee's adherence to curricular objectives.

  Reimbursement for this activity is limited to:

  - review of the employee's instructional techniques and strategies and adherence to curricular objectives, and
  - include in the written evaluation of the certificated instructional employees the assessment of these factors during the specified evaluation periods.

- Evaluate and assess the performance of certificated instructional employees that teach [STAR test subjects, reading, writing, mathematics, etc.] in grades 2 to 11 as it reasonably relates to the progress of pupils toward [STAR test statewide standards].

  Reimbursement for this activity is limited to:

  - review of the results of the STAR test as it reasonably relates to the performance of those certificated employees that teach reading, writing, mathematics, history/social science, and science in grades 2 to 11, and
  - include in the written evaluation of those certificated employees the assessment of the employee's performance based on the STAR results for the pupils they teach during the specified evaluation periods.

- Evaluate and assess permanent certificated, instructional and non-instructional employees that perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law and receive an unsatisfactory evaluation in the years in which the permanent certificated employee would not have otherwise been evaluated. The additional evaluations shall last until the employee achieves a positive evaluation, or is separated from the school district. The following activities are reimbursable:
    - evaluate and assess the certificated employee performance as it reasonably relates to the following criteria: (1) the progress of pupils toward the standards established by the school district of expected pupil achievement at each grade level in each area of study, and, if applicable, the state adopted content standards as measured by state adopted criterion referenced assessments; (2) the instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee; (3) the employee's adherence to curricular objectives; (4) the establishment and maintenance of a suitable learning environment, within the scope of the employee's responsibilities; and, if applicable, (5) the fulfillment of other job responsibilities established by the school district for certificated non-instructional personnel;
    - the evaluation and assessment shall be reduced to writing. The evaluation shall include recommendations, if necessary, as to areas of improvement in the performance of the employee. If the employee is not performing his or her duties in a satisfactory manner according to the standards prescribed by the governing board, the school district shall notify the employee in writing of that fact and describe the unsatisfactory performance;
    - transmit a copy of the written evaluation to the certificated employee;
    - attach any written reaction or response to the evaluation by the certificated employee to the employee's personnel file; and
    - conduct a meeting with the certificated employee to discuss the evaluation.[97]

This is a very narrow higher level of service, and reimbursement is not required for the full evaluation and assessment of those certificated employees who have received satisfactory evaluations. For those employees, reimbursement is limited to the review and the inclusion of the new criteria mandated by the test claim statutes in the written evaluation. Further, the Parameters and Guidelines require the claimant to identify the state or federal law that mandates the educational program being performed by the employee being evaluated.[98]

Nowhere in the time study documentation, the response to the Draft Audit Report, or the IRC narrative itself, does the claimant attempt to isolate the narrow higher level of service approved by the Commission in the Test Claim Decision, or to tie the 19 disallowed time study items to the approved activities. As explained in the Test Claim Decision, prior law already required evaluation of certificated employees.[99] The test claim statutes merely added additional criteria to be considered within those evaluations, and required a follow-up evaluation when a certificated employee receives an unsatisfactory evaluation and annual evaluations thereafter until the employee receives a satisfactory evaluation or, is separated from the school district.[100] The time study activities proposed by the claimant make are not restricted to the time and costs of evaluations pertaining to only the new evaluation and assessment criteria,[101] nor are they limited to only those evaluations required for employees whose last regularly-scheduled evaluation resulted in an unsatisfactory rating.[102] The Parameters and Guidelines require documentation to establish the relationship between the activities and costs claimed and the reimbursable activities stated in the Parameters and Guidelines.[103] The claimant's time study activities (which generally include evaluation conferences, preparation and planning activities) are described too generally to establish that connection.[104]

Furthermore, the activity proposed for claimant's time study related to STAR testing goes beyond the scope of the reimbursable activity. The claimant argues that the Commission approved "the review of the results of the STAR test as it reasonably relates to the performance of those certificated employees [teaching STAR test subjects] and to include in the written evaluation of those certificated employees the assessment of the employee's performance based on the STAR results for the pupils they teach…"[105] That description is substantially similar to and consistent with the Parameters and Guidelines, which indeed provide reimbursement to evaluate and assess the performance of teachers of STAR test subjects[106] "as it reasonably relates to the progress of pupils towards the state adopted academic content standards…" The Parameters and Guidelines also clarify that reimbursement for this activity is limited to "reviewing the results" of the STAR test and "including in the written evaluation…the assessment of the employee's performance based on the [STAR test] results for the pupils they teach."[107] However, the activity stated in the claimant's proposed time study pertaining to STAR testing is "Discussing the STAR results with teachers and assessing how to improve instructional abilities."[108] The activity as described in the claimant's time study implies interaction between the teacher and the evaluator that is not required by the plain language of the approved activity as stated in the Parameters and Guidelines. Both reviewing the results of the STAR test, and including an assessment in the written evaluation can be done unilaterally by the evaluator, and do not require a discussion.

And, to the extent certain elements of the claimant's time study related to evaluation conferences, preparation, and planning activities seem "rational, relevant, reasonable and necessary part[s] of implementing the mandated activities,"[109] they are not identified as reimbursable activities in the Parameters and Guidelines. The claimant had an opportunity to include those activities within the Parameters and Guidelines as "reasonably necessary activities" pursuant to Government Code section 17557(a) and Code of Regulations, title 2, section 1183.7(d). Section 1183.7 describes the "Content of Parameters and Guidelines," and subdivision (d) defines "reasonably necessary activities" as those activities "necessary to comply with the statutes, regulations and other executive orders found to impose a state-mandated program." The section further states that "[w]hether an activity is reasonably necessary is a mixed question of law and fact," the assertion of which must be supported by documentary evidence submitted in accordance with section 1187.5.[110] In other words, if the claimant seeks reimbursement for the various elements of its time study as "reasonably necessary" elements of the reimbursable mandate, those activities have to be approved by the Commission based on substantial evidence in the record and included within the Parameters and Guidelines, either when the Parameters and Guidelines were first adopted, or as an amendment request.[111] To the extent the activities claimed exceed the scope of the mandate as stated in the Parameters and Guidelines, they are not eligible for reimbursement. The Parameters and Guidelines, as adopted, are binding on the parties.[112] The argument that such items are "reasonably necessary" cannot now be employed as an end-run around the Parameters and Guidelines.

Finally, it is the claimant's burden to establish actual costs, using "source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities."[113] The claimant argues that the Controller's reduction of costs is incorrect or arbitrary or capricious, and frames these issues in terms of the Controller's failure to state a reason for the reduction.[114] The claimant, however, ignores its duty to establish the relationship to the reimbursable activities. The Controller's concession permitting the use of a time study does not alter the scope of the mandate, which is a question of law, or otherwise relieve the claimant of the burden to show that its claimed costs are eligible for reimbursement pursuant to the Test Claim Decision and Parameters and Guidelines. Moreover, there is no evidence in the record that the Controller's reduction of costs based on the denial of these 19 activities is arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

Accordingly, the Commission finds that the Controller's reduction of costs based on the Controller's denial of 19 of the activities included in claimant's time study is correct as a matter of law, and is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

C. The Controller's Disallowance of Completed Evaluations that Are Beyond the Scope of the Mandate Is Correct as a Matter of Law.

As noted above, the Parameters and Guidelines for The Stull Act program require reimbursement for the following:

- Evaluate and assess the performance of certificated instructional employees that perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law as it reasonably relates to
  - the instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee; and
  - the employee's adherence to curricular objectives;
- Evaluate and assess the performance of certificated instructional employees that teach [STAR test subjects, reading, writing, mathematics, etc.] in grades 2 to 11 as it reasonably relates to the progress of pupils toward [STAR test statewide standards]; and
- Evaluate and assess permanent certificated, instructional, and non-instructional employees that perform the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law and receive an unsatisfactory evaluation in the years in which the permanent certificated employee would not have otherwise been evaluated. The additional evaluations shall last until the employee achieves a positive evaluation, or is separated from the school district.[115]

The Parameters and Guidelines further require the claimant to identify the state or federal law mandating the educational program being performed by the employee being evaluated and assessed.[116]

The Controller disallowed reimbursement for evaluations completed for employees that are not within the scope of the mandate. Specifically, as disputed here, the Controller disallowed reimbursement for evaluations of the following employees:

[115] Exhibit A, IRC, pages 31-33 [Parameters and Guidelines, pp. 4-6].

[116] Exhibit A, IRC, pages 31-33 [Parameters and Guidelines, pp. 4-6]. Note that this caveat is not stated under section IV.A.2. of the Parameters and Guidelines, with respect to certificated instructional employees that teach STAR test subjects in grades 2 to 11 (presumably because simply claiming costs under this very specific activity makes clear which state and federal laws are implicated).

- Principals, vice principals, directors, coordinators, counselors, psychologists, librarians, and library media specialists who are not certificated instructional employees; and
- Preschool teachers [because they] do not perform the requirements of the program that is mandated by state or federal law.[117]

The claimant argues that all certificated employees are "instructional personnel even if they are not 'classroom teachers'" and that preschool teachers are not excluded by the Parameters and Guidelines.[118] Addressing preschool instructors specifically, claimant argues that "[t]he audit report excludes preschool teachers in general based on the Controller's opinion that preschool teachers do not perform the requirements of an educational program mandated by state or federal law."[119] The claimant further argues that the Commission identified voluntary programs for which reimbursement is not required in a footnote in the Test Claim Decision, "and preschool is not included in that enumeration."[120] Accordingly, claimant asserts that "[t]here is no stated basis to exclude certificated preschool instructors."[121]

With respect to other personnel, such as administrators, librarians, and others for whom evaluations and assessments were excluded from reimbursement, the claimant states that the audit report misstates the standard for judging which employees' evaluations are reimbursable and which are not:

> The intent of this component is to evaluate the elements of classroom instruction. Principals, vice principals, directors, coordinators, counselors, psychologists, librarians, and library media specialists do not provide classroom instruction and are considered "non-instructional" certificated personnel.[122]

The claimant concedes that "the portion of the mandate relating to the evaluation of compliance with the testing assessment standards (the STAR component) is limited to classroom teachers because the parameters and guidelines specifically state 'employees that teach' specified curriculum."[123] However, the claimant maintains that all certificated employees are instructional personnel and that "[i]t has not been established as a matter of law that involvement in the educational process requires a 'classroom.'"[124]

The claimant is wrong on both counts. The Test Claim Decision analyzed at length the distinction between instructional and non-instructional personnel, in an attempt to isolate the higher level of service imposed by the test claim statutes. The Commission found that prior law "required school districts to develop evaluation and assessment guidelines and to evaluate both instructional and non-instructional certificated employees based on the guidelines on a continuing basis."[125] The Commission also found case law to support the conclusion that the Stull Act, prior to the test claim statutes, applied to both instructional and non-instructional certificated personnel.[126] In analyzing the test claim statutes the Commission found, and the Department of Finance and the test claimant agreed, that the new categories of "instructional techniques and strategies," and "the employee's adherence to curricular objectives," represented new criteria for the evaluation and assessment of certificated instructional personnel equating the term "instructional" with "teachers."[127]

Accordingly, Part IV.A.1. of the Parameters and Guidelines limits reimbursement for the higher level of service imposed by the test claim statutes to "certificated instructional employees," and to the two new components of the evaluation, both of which relate to the provision of instruction: "instructional techniques and strategies used by the employee and the employee's adherence to curricular objectives."[128] In addition, as noted, Part IV.A.1. requires the claimant to identify the state or federal law mandating the educational program being performed by the certificated instructional personnel.[129] Therefore, this section provides reimbursement for evaluation and assessment of instructional employees only, and only those performing the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law. Although administrators, librarians, counselors, and psychologists are positions requiring certification, they generally do not provide instruction to students.[130] The claimant argues that these employees are not excluded by the California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 80049.1 also authorizes a school counselor with a services credential to "develop, plan, implement and evaluate a school counseling and guidance

Parameters and Guidelines, but neither do they necessarily fall within the higher level of service that the Commission determined to be reimbursable, absent some evidence that they are indeed performing the requirements of educational programs mandated by state or federal law; a requirement that the Parameters and Guidelines expressly requires the claimant to establish and for which the claimant has submitted no evidence. Thus, the Controller correctly concludes that "instructional" employees excludes administrators, librarians, counselors, and psychologists, and others, absent additional evidence.[131]

With regard to preschool instruction, the claimant mistakenly relies on a footnote in the Test Claim Decision, which listed examples of voluntary educational programs funded by the Budget Act, to suggest that preschool instruction, which was not among the programs listed, must therefore be mandatory.[132] The list in the Test Claim Decision was not intended to represent an exhaustive cataloging of voluntary (or non-mandatory) educational programs, as the claimant suggests.[133] Rather, the Parameters and Guidelines expressly require the claimant to specifically identify the educational programs mandated by state or federal law being performed by the certificated instructional employee in order to get reimbursed for the evaluation, which the claimant has not done. In addition, Education Code section 48200 et seq., provides for compulsory education for pupils aged 6 to 18, but does not as a matter of law apply to preschool-program that includes academic, career, personal and social development; advocate for the higher academic achievement and social development of all students; provide school-wide prevention and intervention strategies and counseling services; provide consultation, training and staff development to teachers and parents regarding students' needs; and supervise a district-approved advisory program as described in Education Code Section 49600."

California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 80053, authorizes the librarian with a services credential to "instruct students in accessing, evaluating, using and integrating information and resources in the library program; to plan and coordinate school library programs with the instructional programs of a school district through collaboration with teachers; to select materials for school and district libraries; to develop programs for and deliver staff development for school library services; to coordinate or supervise library programs at the school, district or county level; to plan and conduct a course of instruction for those pupils who assist in the operation of school libraries; to supervise classified personnel assigned school library duties; and to develop procedures for and management of the school and district libraries."

California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 80054.5, authorizes the school administrator with a services credential to develop, coordinate, and assess instructional programs; supervise and evaluate certificated and classified personnel; discipline students; manage fiscal services; develop, coordinate, and supervise student support services.

And, Code of Regulations, title 5, section 16043 states that persons employed by a school district as librarians may supplement classroom instruction, or conduct "a planned course of instruction for those pupils who assist in the operation of school libraries."

aged children. The claimant argues that federal special education law requires preschool instruction for pupils when part of a pupil's Individualized Education Plan.[134] However, the claimant has not provided any evidence that preschool teachers evaluated and claimed provided instruction in educational programs mandated by federal law, as required by the Parameters and Guidelines.

In addition, Part IV.A.2. requires reimbursement only for evaluations of "certificated instructional employees that teach…" STAR test subjects in grades 2 to 11.[135] This provision also excludes non-instructional administrative and support personnel, and excludes preschool teachers, based on nothing more than its plain language.

Part IV.B.1. does provide for reimbursement for evaluation and assessment of certificated instructional and non-instructional employees, but only those whose last regularly-scheduled evaluation resulted in an unsatisfactory evaluation (i.e., off-year evaluations for permanent certificated employees, and more often than once every five years for permanent "tenured" certificated employees). Part IV.B.1. also includes the same caveat as above, that the claimant must identify the state or federal law mandating the educational program being performed. There has been no specific argument or evidence in the record to support a finding that any of the non-instructional personnel whose evaluations were disallowed were evaluated on the basis of having a previously unsatisfactory evaluation.

The claimant, with all of its arguments, attempts to shift the burden to the Controller to support its reductions, but it is the claimant's burden to make out its claim.[136] In addition, sections 1185.1(f)(3), 1185.2(d) and (e)of the Commission's regulations require that any assertions of fact by the parties to an IRC must be supported by documentary evidence. The Parameters and Guidelines specifically and expressly require the claimant to identify the state or federal law mandating the educational program being performed by the employee(s) evaluated, except in the case of STAR subject instructors in grades 2 to 11 (for whom the mandatory nature of the educational program is presumed).[137] The claimant has not complied with the Parameters and Guidelines.

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds that the Controller's disallowance of 46 completed evaluations that were beyond the scope of the mandate is correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

V. Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds that the IRC was timely filed and denies this IRC. The Commission finds that the Controller's reduction of costs based the denial of 19 activities included in the claimant's time study and the disallowance of 46 completed evaluations that were beyond the scope of the mandate, are correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

DECISION

The Commission on State Mandates (Commission) heard and decided this consolidated incorrect reduction claim (IRC) during a regularly scheduled hearing on March 25, 2016. Jim Spano, Chris Ryan, and Masha Vorobyova appeared on behalf of the State Controller's Office. The County of Santa Clara did not appear, but filed a letter indicating that it was standing on the record submitted.

The law applicable to the Commission's determination of a reimbursable state-mandated program is article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution, Government Code section 17500 et seq., and related case law.

The Commission adopted the proposed decision to deny this IRC by a vote of 6-0 as follows:

Member	Vote
Ken Alex, Director of the Office of Planning and Research	Yes
John Chiang, State Treasurer, Vice Chairperson	Yes
Richard Chivaro, Representative of the State Controller	Yes
Sarah Olsen, Public Member	Yes
Eraina Ortega, Representative of the Director of the Department of Finance, Chairperson	Yes
Carmen Ramirez, City Council Member	Yes
Don Saylor, County Supervisor	Absent

Summary of the Findings

Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) 08-4237-I-02 (fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002) and IRC 12-4237-I-03 (fiscal years 2003-2004, 2004-2005, 2005-2006, and 2006-2007)[1] have been consolidated for hearing. These consolidated IRCs challenge the State Controller's Office (Controller's) reductions to reimbursement claims of the County of Santa Clara (claimant) for the Child Abduction and Recovery program.

The only issue remaining in contention for this matter is whether the Controller's reductions totaling $1,183,619 for unsupported salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 and 2003-2004 are correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

To claim costs for employee salaries and benefits, the parameters and guidelines require that the claimant either specify the actual number of hours devoted to each mandated function and provide source documents or worksheets that show evidence of the validity of the costs, or claim costs based on the average number of hours devoted to each mandated function if supported by a documented time study. Average time accountings to support employee time claimed "can be deemed akin to worksheets."[2] However, the time study is still required to "show evidence of and the validity of [the] costs [claimed]" for the mandated program.[3]

The Commission finds that the Controller's reduction of costs claimed for fiscal year 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 is correct as a matter of law, and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. The payroll documentation originally provided by the claimant to the Controller, which does not verify the time spent on the program, does not comply with the documentation requirements of the parameters and guidelines. Moreover, based on the evidence in the record, the Controller's decision to reject the time study that claimant later prepared using data from later fiscal years as inadequate documentation to support the costs claimed for all the employees is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. The record shows that the Controller considered the claimant's arguments and all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational connection between those factors and the decision made to reject the time study. The Commission cannot substitute its judgment for that of the Controller on audit decisions.

The Commission also finds that the Controller's reduction of salary and benefit costs for fiscal year 2003-2004 is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. For this reimbursement claim, the claimant resubmitted the same four week time study conducted from November 15, 2004, through December 10, 2004 to support fiscal year 2003-2004 claimed costs, with a summary of the time study results and a projection of the results to a full fiscal year. The Controller determined, however, that the claimant's time study did not adequately support the time claimed for fiscal year 2003-2004 because the time study included three employee classifications that the county did not include in their claim for reimbursement; the time study period included a holiday week when employees worked fewer hours; and actual timesheets kept for January 2005 through June 2005 showed varying changes in staffing levels and workload.

[1] Note that there was no audit for 2002-2003 and that year is not in issue in this IRC.

[2] Clovis Unified School Dist. v. Chiang (2010) 188 Cal.App.4th 794, 804.

[3] Exhibit A, Incorrect Reduction Claim 08-4237-I-02, pages 53-60.

Since the claimant did not provide time logs or other adequate documentation supporting the time spent on the mandate in fiscal year 2003-2004, the Controller extrapolated employee hours identified on timesheets for January 2005 through June 2005 to approximate the actual hours spent on the program for the 2003-2004 fiscal year, instead of reducing costs to $0. The Commission finds that there is no evidence in the record that the Controller's rejection of the claimant's time study or the Controller's calculation of employee costs for fiscal year 2003-2004, is arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

Therefore, the Commission denies these IRCs.

II. Background

A. Child Abduction and Recovery Program

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control approved a test claim filed by the County of San Bernardino, finding that the test claim statutes imposed a reimbursable state-mandated program on counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems, including visitation disputes and the enforcement of custody and other orders of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include actions necessary to locate and return a child; the enforcement of child custody orders, orders to appear; or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted, or concealed child; proceeding with civil court actions; and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minor in court actions. Reimbursement was found not to be required for the costs associated with criminal prosecutions under the Penal Code.[14]

On January 21, 1981, the Board of Control adopted the parameters and guidelines for this program for costs incurred beginning January 1, 1977. Since the adoption of the original parameters and guidelines, the test claim statutes have been renumbered and some have been amended.[15] In addition, the parameters and guidelines have been amended several times. The parameters and guidelines that govern the reimbursement claims at issue in this case were amended on August 26, 1999, and provide that counties may claim reimbursement for the following activities:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

> Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.
>
> Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.
> Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.

(2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with court orders.

(3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

(4) Depositions.

c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

a. Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.[16]

Section VI. of these parameters and guidelines describe the non-reimbursable costs as follows: "Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency."

Section VII. of these parameters and guidelines further require that claimed costs "shall be supported" by cost element information, as specified. With respect to claims for salaries and benefits, claimants are required to:

> Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

Section VIII. further requires that "all costs claimed must be traceable to source documents and/or worksheets that show evidence of and the validity of such costs," and that these "documents must be kept on file by the agency submitting the claim for [the audit] period specified in Government Code section 17558.5." However, contemporaneous source documentation was not required by these parameters and guidelines.

B. The Audit Findings of the Controller

The audit report for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 reduced costs by $1,278,468 because claimant overstated productive hourly rates when calculating employee salaries and benefits (Finding 1) and claimed unsupported salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs (Finding 2).[17] The audit report for fiscal years 2003-2004 through 2006-2007 reduced costs by [16] Exhibit A, Incorrect Reduction Claim 08-4237-I-02, pages 53-60 (parameters and guidelines, as amended August 26, 1999).

[17] Exhibit A, Incorrect Reduction Claim 08-4237-I-02, pages 18-38. The audit report also reduced costs in Finding 3 for overstated indirect costs, which are not challenged by the claimant.

$296,732 on similar grounds: the claimant overstated productive hourly wage rates in all audit years (Finding 1) and claimed unsupported salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs in fiscal year 2003-2004 (Finding 2).[18]

The claimant originally challenged both findings made by the Controller. After the IRCs were filed, however, the claimant withdrew the challenge to audit Finding 1 in both audit reports relating to the reduction of costs based on overstated productive hourly rates.[19] Thus, the claimant now only challenges the reductions in Finding 2 of the audit reports for unsupported salaries and benefits and related indirect costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 and 2003-2004, totaling $1,183,619, described as follows:[20]

- The Controller reduced costs for salaries and benefits claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 for two full-time employees in the claimant's Child Abduction and Recovery Unit because the county did not provide any documentation to support mandate-related hours claimed. In addition, one of the full-time employees stated that she spent part of her time assisting with criminal trial preparation after the defendant's first court appearance, which is not eligible for reimbursement. Moreover, the time study later submitted by the claimant shows that the two full-time employees worked between 42.50 and 69.27 percent and 60 and 92.94 percent, respectively, on the mandated program during the four week time study,[21] which contradicts the claimant's assertion that the full-time employees performed only mandate-related activities during the audit period.

  The Controller also partially reduced costs claimed for the remaining employees working part-time on the program in these fiscal years because the county provided time logs that did not support all of the mandate-related hours claimed. The time logs identified mandate-related time, non-mandate related time, and non-productive time, but did not reconcile and support the hours claimed. Subsequently, the claimant submitted a four-week time study conducted in fiscal year 2004-2005 in lieu of the employee time logs, which the Controller rejected because the time study is not competent evidence to replace time logs provided to support the costs claimed for earlier fiscal years. In addition, the Controller found that the county did not identify how the time period studied (four weeks in fiscal year 2004-2005) was representative of the costs incurred in fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002, and did not show how the results could be projected to approximate actual costs for the audit period. The Controller concluded that a time study is not appropriate since the entire program requires varying levels of effort and includes activities that are not mandated by the state.

[18] Exhibit B, Incorrect Reduction Claim 12-4237-I-03, pages 15-43. Finding 3 of this audit report also finds understated salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs for one employee, which occurred as result of an input error in the claimant's payroll system. The adjustment in Finding 3 is not disputed.

The Controller, therefore, allowed reimbursement for salaries and benefits for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 based on mandate-related hours supported by employee time logs.

- The Controller reduced costs for salaries and benefits claimed for fiscal year 2003-2004 because the claimant did not provide documentation to support the mandate-related hours claimed. Instead, the claimant resubmitted the four week time study from fiscal year 2004-2005 with a summary of the results and a projection of the results to estimate costs for 2003-2004. However, the Controller found that the time study was still not representative of the 2003-2004 costs because the time study included three employee classifications that the county did not include in their claim for reimbursement; the time study period included a holiday week when employees worked fewer hours; and actual timesheets kept from January 2005 through June 2005 showed varying changes in staffing levels and workload.

  The Controller, therefore, rejected the claimant's time study and, instead, extrapolated the employee hours identified on the timesheets for January 2005 through June 2005 to approximate the actual hours spent on the program for the 2003-2004 fiscal year.

III. Positions of the Parties

A. County of Santa Clara

The claimant contends that the Controller's reductions for salary, benefits, and related indirect costs are incorrect and should be reinstated. For fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002, the claimant asserts that the employees working full-time on the mandated program should not be required to provide time logs, and that payroll documentation for these employees is sufficient, alone, to substantiate the hours claimed for full-time employees. The claimant argues in its rebuttal to the Controller's comments that while the "SCO response devalues the time study because it does not show that the County employees worked on mandate-related activities on a full-time basis…it does show that a percentage of these employees time was spent on mandate-related activities and the County should be reimbursed for this time."[22]

The claimant also asserts that it provided time logs to substantiate the hours spent in mandate activities for those employees who did not perform mandate-activities full time.[23] The claimant asserts that "to the extent that the SCO believed that the time logs were insufficient, a time study was performed from November 15, 2004 through December 10, 2004."[24] The claimant argues that ["t]he county did perform a time study in FY 2004-2005 to support costs claimed for FY 1999-2000, FY 2000-2001, and FY 2001-2002 because the source document requirement was not in the Commission's parameters and guidelines at the time the mandate claim was filed."[25] The claimant further argues that to the extent the Controller felt the time logs provided were insufficient, the time study performed provides a reliable measure of the time needed to perform mandated activities and that the Controller should rely on a current time study to support the hours claimed.[26] The claimant argues that the time study relied on contemporaneous documentation of mandated and non-mandated activities to fully account for the time; that it covered four weeks that corresponded with pay periods to assure that the time study documentation could be checked against payroll information; and that all employees performing mandated activities participated in order to eliminate errors due to small sample size or extrapolation. Further, the claimant argues that the time study is representative of a full fiscal year because the activities related to the program are not seasonal and have not changed appreciably over time.[27]

For fiscal year 2003-2004, the claimant makes similar arguments regarding the appropriateness of the fiscal year 2004-2005 time study to support the costs claimed. The claimant also argues that the time study was done "in close proximity to the claim period and for a reasonable length of time to merit acceptance as representative of the fiscal year." The claimant asserts that the Controller failed to recognize that the time study substantiated the County's claims and wrongfully applied its own standard.[28]

Claimant did not file comments on the draft proposed decision.

B. State Controller's Office

It is the Controller's position that the audit adjustments are correct and that these IRCs should be denied. The Controller states that unallowable salary, benefits, and indirect costs were claimed because the claimant did not provide any documentation to support the hours claimed for two full-time employees, and that for other employees the county provided time logs that did not support the hours claimed and included time for non-mandate-related activities. The Controller argues that claimant has not complied with the documentation requirements of the parameters and guidelines by merely providing payroll documentation in support of the costs claimed for full-time employees for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002. The Controller further found that for fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002, a time study conducted during fiscal year 2004-2005 and provided in lieu of time logs was not competent evidence to replace time logs in support of the costs claimed. For fiscal year 2003-2004, the Controller found that the county did not support costs claimed with source documents showing the evidence of and the validity of such costs and that the 18-day time study in fiscal year 2004-2005, was not representative of the audit period.

On January 15, 2016, the Controller filed comments on the draft proposed decision, supporting the Commission's conclusion and recommendation.

IV. Discussion

Government Code section 17561(b) authorizes the Controller to audit the claims filed by local agencies and school districts and to reduce any claim for reimbursement of state mandated costs that the Controller determines is excessive or unreasonable.

Government Code Section 17551(d) requires the Commission to hear and decide a claim that the Controller has incorrectly reduced payments to a local agency or school district. If the Commission determines that a reimbursement claim has been incorrectly reduced, section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations requires the Commission to send the decision to the Controller and request that the costs in the claim be reinstated.

The Commission must review questions of law, including interpretation of the parameters and guidelines, de novo, without consideration of legal conclusions made by the Controller in the context of an audit. The Commission is vested with exclusive authority to adjudicate disputes over the existence of state-mandated programs within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6.[29] The Commission must also interpret the Government Code and implementing regulations in accordance with the broader constitutional and statutory scheme. In making its decisions, the Commission must strictly construe article XIII B, section 6 and not apply it as an "equitable remedy to cure the perceived unfairness resulting from political decisions on funding priorities."[30]

With regard to the Controller's audit decisions, the Commission must determine whether they were arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. This standard is similar to the standard used by the courts when reviewing an alleged abuse of discretion of a state agency.[31] Under this standard, the courts have found that:

> When reviewing the exercise of discretion, "[t]he scope of review is limited, out of deference to the agency's authority and presumed expertise: 'The court may not reweigh the evidence or substitute its judgment for that of the agency. [Citation.]'"…"In general…the inquiry is limited to whether the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support…" [Citations.] When making that inquiry, the " ' "court must ensure that an agency has adequately considered all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational connection between those factors, the choice made, and the purposes of the enabling statute." [Citation.]' "[32]

The Commission must review the Controller's audit in light of the fact that the initial burden of providing evidence for a claim of reimbursement lies with claimant.[33] In addition, section 1185.1(f)(3) and 1185.2(c) of the Commission's regulations requires that any assertions of fact by the parties to an IRC must be supported by documentary evidence. The Commission's ultimate findings of fact must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.[34]

The Controller's Reduction of Costs for Employee Salaries, Benefits, and Related Indirect Costs Is Correct as a Matter of Law and Not Arbitrary, Capricious, or Entirely Lacking in Evidentiary Support.

08-4237-I-02 (fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002) and 12-4237-I-03 (fiscal years 2003-2004, 2004-2005, 2005-2006, and 2006-2007)[35] have been consolidated for hearing. These consolidated IRCs challenge the Controller's reductions to reimbursement claims filed by claimant for the Child Abduction and Recovery program.

The only issue remaining in contention for this matter is whether the Controller's reductions totaling $1,183,619 for unsupported salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 and 2003-2004 are correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

Reimbursement claims filed with the Controller are required as a matter of law to be filed in accordance with the parameters and guidelines adopted by the Commission.[36] Parameters and guidelines provide instructions for eligible claimants to prepare reimbursement claims for the direct and indirect costs of a state-mandated program, and also identify the supporting documentation required to be retained.[37]

As indicated in the Background, the parameters and guidelines amended by the Commission on August 26, 1999, apply to these reimbursement claims.[38] Section VII.A.1. of the parameters and guidelines provide instructions on how to claim costs for employee salaries and benefits as follows:

> Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related > benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefits rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed costs.

Section VIII. of the parameters and guidelines also requires that costs claimed "be traceable to source documents and/or worksheets that show evidence of and the validity of such costs."[39]

Therefore the parameters and guidelines require that the claimant either specify the actual number of hours devoted to each mandated function and provide source documents or worksheets that show evidence of the validity of the costs, or claim costs based on the average number of hours devoted to each mandated function if supported by a documented time study. Average time accountings to support employee time claimed "can be deemed akin to worksheets."[40] However, the time study is still required to "show evidence of and the validity of [the] costs [claimed]" for the mandated program.[41]

For the reasons discussed below, the Commission finds that the reduction costs claimed for employee salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs is correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

A. The Controller's Reduction of Costs for Fiscal Years 1999-2000 Through 2001-2002 Is Correct as a Matter of Law and Not Arbitrary, Capricious, or Entirely Lacking in Evidentiary Support.

1. Reduction of costs for full-time employees

The Controller reduced salary and benefit costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002 for two full-time employees because the county did not provide adequate documentation to support mandate-related hours claimed. The claimant originally provided payroll documents to support the costs claimed for these employees, and asserts that the provision of payroll documentation for full-time employees should be sufficient to substantiate the hours claimed.[42] However, payroll documentation does not show the actual number of hours the employees worked on mandated activities, as required by the parameters and guidelines. In addition, the reimbursement claims for fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002, list the employee names, job classifications, and a brief description of the activities performed, but do not identify the actual number of hours devoted to each reimbursable function.[43] Further, the Controller noted that one of the full-time employees stated during the audit that she did not work full-time on mandate-related activities, and that she assisted in trial preparation after the defendant's first court appearance, which is not eligible for reimbursement.[44] There is no evidence in the record contradicting this statement.

Therefore, for full-time employees, the payroll documentation provided by the claimant does not comply with the requirements of the parameters and guidelines to support the actual number of hours devoted to each reimbursable function.

The claimant then tried to support the salary and benefit costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002 by providing to the Controller a four-week time study of the program, conducted from November 15, 2004, through December 10, 2004. The claimant states that the time study relied on contemporaneous documentation of mandated and non-mandated activities to fully account for the time; that it covered four weeks that corresponded with pay periods to assure that the time study documentation could be checked against payroll information; and that all employees performing mandated activities participated in order to eliminate errors due to small sample size or extrapolation. Further, the claimant argues that the time study is representative of a full fiscal year because the activities related to the program are not seasonal and the time spent on the program has not changed appreciably over time.[45]

The Controller, however, rejected the time study because it does not adequately support the costs claimed for these employees. The Controller found that the time study specifically contradicted the claimant's assertion that the full-time employees worked on mandate activities full-time. The two full-time employees, a paralegal and legal clerk, reported the following percentages of time spent on mandate activities for the time study period:

	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4
Paralegal	91.50%	0.00%	60.00%	92.94%
Legal Clerk	47.44%	42.50%	67.78%	69.27%[46]

The claimant admits that the time study shows less than full-time hours for these employees, but argues that it should be reimbursed for the time identified in the study.[47] The claimant states that while the "SCO response devalues the time study because it does not show that the County employees worked on mandate-related activities on a full-time basis…it does show that a percentage of these employees time was spent on mandate-related activities and the County should be reimbursed for this time."[48]

However, the Controller found that the time study itself, was not representative of the costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002. The mandate-related hours reported during the time study, 606.5 hours,[49] extrapolates to approximately 7,885 mandate-related hours annually.[50] However, for the fiscal year in which the time study was done (2004-2005), the county only claimed 3,335 mandate-related hours.[51] In addition, and as more fully explained in the next section below, the Controller found that the time spent on this state-mandated program varied from year to year and was not constant and, thus, the time study does not adequately support the time spent on the program during these earlier fiscal years.[52]

The Commission finds that the Controller's full reduction of costs for these employees is correct as a matter of law, and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. As indicated above, the payroll documentation originally provided by the claimant, which does not verify the time spent on the program, does not comply with the documentation requirements of the parameters and guidelines. Moreover, based on the evidence in the record, the Controller's decision to reject the time study as inadequate documentation to support the costs claimed is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. The Commission cannot substitute its judgment for that of the Controller on audit decisions to reject the time study. With respect to audit decisions of the Controller, the Commission need only determine if the Controller "has adequately considered all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational connection between those factors, the choice made, and the purposes of the enabling statute."[53] The Commission finds that the Controller has met this burden. Based on the evidence in the record, the Controller's finding that the time study does not support or "show evidence of and the validity of [the] costs [claimed]" for the full-time employees is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

Accordingly, the Commission finds that the claimant did not comply with the documentation requirements of the parameters and guidelines and, thus, the Controller's reduction of all costs claimed for the full-time employees is correct as a matter of law, and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

2. Reduction of costs for the remaining employees

The Controller also partially reduced the costs claimed for the remaining employees that worked on this program part-time in these fiscal years because the county provided time logs, but the time logs did not support all of the mandate-related hours claimed. The time logs identified mandate-related time, non-mandate related time, and non-productive time, but did not reconcile and support the hours claimed. The Controller allowed the time supported by documentation as required by the parameters and guidelines, and reduced the unsupported costs claimed.[54]

Subsequently, the claimant submitted the four-week time study conducted in November and December 2004 in lieu of the employee time logs to support the costs claimed for these employees, which the Controller rejected. The Controller found that the time-study (conducted in 2004) was not competent evidence to replace actual time records provided for costs claimed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2001-2002, and that the time study results did not represent the time spent on the program in the fiscal years claimed.[55] Further, in the time study plan overview, the claimant also asserts that "the activities in this mandate do not vary by the time of year."[56] However, the Controller found that neither the time study, nor the claimant's annual reimbursement claims, support the claimant's assertion that the workload is constant as follows:

> [T]he Child Recovery Unit Lieutenant Investigator testified that the unit routinely loaned investigators to other units because of shortages or not enough work in the Child Recovery Unit. Furthermore, the county's claims show significant workload variance from year to year based on total mandate-related hours that the county reported…

Fiscal Year	Total Mandated-Related Hours Reported
1999-2000	10,694
2000-01	14,150
2001-02	13,531
2002-03	12,814
2003-04	7,783
2004-05	3,334[57]

The Commission finds that the Controller's audit decision to reject the time study as inadequate documentation to support the costs claimed is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. The record shows that the Controller considered the claimant's arguments and all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational connection between those factors and the decision made.[58] The claimant has not filed any evidence rebutting the Controller's findings on the variability of time spent on mandated activities in the fiscal years reported. Therefore, the Commission is required to defer to the Controller's audit decision.[59]

Accordingly, based on the evidence in this record, the Commission finds that the claimant did not comply with the documentation requirements of the parameters and guidelines and, thus, the Controller's partial reduction of costs claimed for employees working on the program on a part-time basis in fiscal years 1999-2000, 2000-2001, and 2001-2002 is correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

B. The Controller's Reduction of Costs for Fiscal Year 2003-2004 Is Not Arbitrary, Capricious, or Entirely Lacking in Evidentiary Support.

For fiscal year 2003-2004, the claimant did not provide time logs or payroll documentation to support the costs claimed, but resubmitted the four week time study conducted from November 15, 2004, through December 10, 2004 to support fiscal year 2003-2004 claimed costs, with a summary of the time study results and a projection of the results to a full fiscal year.[60] However, the Controller found that the time study was still not representative of the 2003-2004 costs because the time study included three employee classifications that the county did not include in their claim for reimbursement; the time study period included a holiday week when employees worked fewer hours; and actual timesheets kept from January 2005 through June 2005 showed varying changes in staffing levels and workload.[61] The Controller, therefore, rejected the claimant's time study and, instead, extrapolated the employee hours identified on the timesheets for January 2005 through June 2005 to approximate the actual hours spent on the program for the 2003-2004 fiscal year.[62] The Controller's audit resulted in a partial reduction of salary, benefit, and related indirect costs totaling $169,848.[63]

The claimant argues that the Controller wrongfully applied its own standard and failed to recognize the time study the claimant provided, which substantiates the claim.[64] The claimant argues that the time study provided is a reliable measure of the time needed to perform the mandated activities as follows:

> The time study relied on contemporaneous documentation of the mandated and non-mandated activities to provide a full accounting of time; it covered four weeks that corresponded with pay periods to assure that the time study documentation could be checked back against payroll information; it was done in close proximity to the claim period and for a reasonable length of time to merit acceptance as representative of the fiscal year; and all employees performing mandated activities participated to eliminate any errors that could have occurred due to small sample size or extrapolation. Moreover, because the activities related to the program are not seasonal and have not changed appreciably over time, the November-December 2004 time study is a reliable indicator of the time spent on the same activities during the claiming period in question.[65]

In their response to the draft audit report, the claimant also argues that the time study was conducted close in proximity to the claim period and for a reasonable length of time to be representative of the claim period.[66]

The Controller found the time study does not adequately represent the costs claimed for fiscal year 2003-2004.[67] The evidence in the record supports the Controller's decision. For example, the four week time study period included the Thanksgiving holiday, in which three employees did not work at all, and the remaining time-studied employees worked fewer hours.[68] The subsequent timesheets submitted for January 2005 through June 2005 also contradict the claimant's assertion that there were no substantial staffing level or workload changes within the program. County employees maintained actual timesheets for the period of January 2005 through June 2005. During that time, employees documented monthly mandate-related time between 440.5 hours and 662.5 hours, a variance of 50 percent.[69] The Controller concluded that this variance of 50 percent shows that the time study of 18 work days is not representative of the fiscal year 2003-2004 costs.[70] Further, the time study results for the seven employees the county claimed do not support the mandate-related hours claimed for fiscal year 2003-2004. For fiscal year 2003-2004 the county claimed 7,783 mandate-related hours attributable to seven employees.[71] However an extrapolation of the time study hours for these same seven employees total only 6,646.25 mandate-related hours.[72]

The Commission finds that the Controller considered the claimant's arguments and all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational connection between those factors and the decision made.[73] And the claimant has not filed any evidence rebutting the Controller's findings. Therefore the Controller's conclusion that the time study does not adequately support the actual hours claimed is not arbitrary, capricious, or lacking in evidentiary support.

The Commission further finds that the Controller's decision to estimate fiscal year 2003-2004 salary and benefit costs based on an extrapolation of hours actually spent on the mandate and documented on timesheets from January 2005 through June 2005 is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. As indicated above, the claimant did not provide time logs or other adequate documentation supporting the time spent on the mandate in fiscal year 2003-2004 as required by the parameters and guidelines and, instead of reducing the costs to $0, the Controller used actual time spent on the program the following year. There is no evidence in the record that the time spent on the mandate in 2005 is not representative of the fiscal year 2003-2004 costs.

The Commission therefore finds that the Controller's reduction of costs for employees' salaries, benefits, and related indirect costs for fiscal year 2003-2004 is not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

V. Conclusion

The Commission finds that the Controller's reductions are correct as a matter of law and not arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support.

Based on the foregoing, the Commission denies this IRC.

Section 278.7

278.7. (a) Section 278.5 does not apply to a person with a right to custody of a child who, with a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm, takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals that child.

(b) Section 278.5 does not apply to a person with a right to custody of a child who has been a victim of domestic violence who, with a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm, takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals that child. "Emotional harm" includes having a parent who has committed domestic violence against the parent who is taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing the child.

(c) The person who takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals a child shall do all of the following:

(1) Within a reasonable time from the taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing, make a report to the office of the district attorney of the county where the child resided before the action. The report shall include the name of the person, the current address and telephone number of the child and the person, and the reasons the child was taken, enticed away, kept, withheld, or concealed.

(2) Within a reasonable time from the taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing, commence a custody proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction consistent with the federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (Section 1738A, Title 28, United States Code) or the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 3400) of Division 8 of the Family Code).

(3) Inform the district attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number of the person and the child.

(d) For the purposes of this article, a reasonable time within which to make a report to the district attorney's office is at least 10 days and a reasonable time to commence a custody proceeding is at least 30 days. This section shall not preclude a person from making a report to the district attorney's office or commencing a custody proceeding earlier than those specified times.

(e) The address and telephone number of the person and the child provided pursuant to this section shall remain confidential unless released pursuant to state law or by a court order that contains appropriate safeguards to ensure the safety of the person and the child.

Exhibit C

Re: County of Sacramento's Rebuttal to State Controller's Response – Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC 24-4237-I-04)

Dear Ms. Gmur and Commission Members,

Sacramento County respectfully submits this rebuttal to the response dated March 6, 2025 issued by the State Controller's Office (SCO) regarding the Custody of Minors - Child Abduction and Recovery (CAR) program for fiscal years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019. We respectfully dispute the SCO's disallowance of costs associated with Standard Distributed (SD) Time, "Good Cause" Cases (Penal Code 278.7), and Materials and Supplies Costs, as detailed below.

Standard Distributed (SD) Time

The SCO incorrectly concluded that Standard Distributed (SD) time claimed by the Sacramento County District Attorney's (DA's) Office under the CAR mandate is unallowable. The SCO's interpretation of the Parameters and Guidelines (P&Gs) is overly narrow and misapplies the documentation requirements for allowable costs. The SD time claimed represents actual, traceable costs incurred in support of the CAR program and is therefore reimbursable.

SD Time Reflects Actual Costs Incurred in Support of the CAR Program

The SCO contends that costs must be "direct to the CAR program" and rejects SD time because it is "non-program specific." This interpretation is inconsistent with the P&Gs, which allow reimbursement for both direct and indirect costs incurred to implement the mandated activities. The SD time consists of administrative, clerical, and supervisory functions performed within the DA's Office State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP) unit — which includes the CAR program. These functions are part of the infrastructure needed to carry out mandated activities.

Employees working under STOP recorded their time daily, and SD time was distributed across reimbursable programs, including CAR, using a proportionate full-time equivalent (FTE) allocation based on actual time worked. This method ensures that only actual, incurred costs attributable to the CAR program are claimed — consistent with the P&Gs definition of "actual costs."

P&Gs Permit Cost Allocation and Corroborating Documentation

Section V of the P&Gs allows for the use of time records, time logs, and system-generated cost allocation reports to substantiate costs:

> "Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs… Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs… Evidence corroborating the validity of costs may include worksheets [and] cost allocation reports (system generated)."

The DA's Office used employee time records created contemporaneously and allocated general support time (SD time) using widely accepted cost methodologies. The costs are not estimates or averages; they are derived from actual time worked and apportioned based on documented, traceable activities that support the CAR program.

While the SCO argues that SD time is not "direct to the CAR program," the P&Gs do not require all costs to be tied to individual staff working exclusively on CAR tasks. Instead, they require the claimed costs to be attributable to the operation of the reimbursable mandate. The administrative and operational work captured under SD time is essential to executing the CAR mandate and should not be excluded merely because it is not tied to a single child abduction case or person.

The Controller Misapplies the Precedent Set in the Carlsbad Decision

The SCO cites the Carlsbad decision in an attempt to support its rejection of allocated time. However, Carlsbad involved the use of estimated averages and time studies created after the fact — without contemporaneous source documentation. That case is not analogous here.

In Sacramento County's case, the DA's Office tracked actual time daily throughout the audit period as well as subsequently, and SD time was part of a consistent timekeeping methodology based on real work performed. System-generated reports supported the allocation. This distinction is critical: Sacramento County's costs were incurred, tracked, and allocated in real time — exactly what the P&Gs contemplate and allow.

The CAR Mandate Encompasses Administrative Functions Required to Implement the Program

Section V.A of the P&Gs states that counties are entitled to reimbursement for:

> "all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding... This includes both direct and indirect costs."

Administrative functions like case intake support, general clerical duties, billing, and supervision are necessary for the DA's Office to implement the CAR program effectively. The fact that these activities support the CAR mandate broadly — rather than one specific child abduction case or person — does not disqualify them from reimbursement. Denying these costs ignores the operational reality of how mandated programs are delivered.

“Good Cause” Cases in Mandated Cost Reimbursement Claims

In response to the SCO determination that activities under Penal Code (PC) section 278.7—commonly referred to as "Good Cause" cases—are not reimbursable mandated activities under the applicable P&Gs, we submit the following justification:

Mandated Activities Under the P&Gs Support Inclusion of “Good Cause” Activities

Section V of the Parameters and Guidelines explicitly defines reimbursable activities to include:

> “All actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding” and “complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5”.

Under PC section 278.7, a parent who conceals a child with a good faith and reasonable belief that the child is at risk of harm may assert an affirmative defense. While PC 278.7 provides a legal justification for the abduction, the operational activities performed by District Attorney staff in these cases—such as locating the child, verifying the basis of the concealment, and mediating between parties—fall squarely within the reimbursable scope under the P&Gs. These actions are undertaken to resolve custody disputes, enforce visitation orders, and secure the return of children, aligning directly with reimbursable mandates.

Clarification: Costs Incurred Under PC 278/278.5, Not PC 278.7

It is important to clarify that all child custody and abduction cases are initially investigated under the authority of PC 278 or 278.5. Only after a thorough assessment of the facts and circumstances might a case be reclassified as involving a potential PC 278.7 affirmative defense. At that point, investigative efforts typically cease, and no additional actions are taken under that categorization.

As a result, no costs are incurred under PC 278.7. All time and resources claimed are associated with the initial investigation and recovery efforts pursuant to PC 278 and 278.5, which are clearly identified as reimbursable under the P&Gs. This process ensures proper case handling, aligns with statutory mandates, and demonstrates that claims were not submitted for activities outside the reimbursable scope.

PC 278.7 Supports and Supplements Activities Under PC 278 and 278.5

Although the SCO notes that PC 278.7 is not explicitly incorporated into the P&Gs, it was added concurrently with PC 278 and 278.5 by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996. PC 278.7 does not operate independently but rather modifies or provides context for enforcement actions under PC 278/278.5. In practice, the same investigative activities are performed at the outset of these cases regardless of whether a PC 278.7 defense is later raised.

This means that functional implementation aligns with reimbursable mandates, and any distinction based solely on final case classification fails to account for the procedural reality of how these cases are handled.

SCO Interpretation Is Too Narrow and Conflicts with the Intent of the Mandate

The SCO's determination appears to rest on a technical omission rather than the substantive mandate and its implementation. The P&Gs do not explicitly exclude PC 278.7. Moreover, the only non-reimbursable activities identified in Section VI are:

> "Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5...".

This exclusion pertains to court-related prosecution activities and does not address pre-prosecution investigative efforts, nor does it refer to PC 278.7. Therefore, it does not support disallowing the costs claimed in "good cause" cases that never reached that stage.

County IRC Supports a Consistent Interpretation

The County's own Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) affirms that:

> "Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems... and all actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a 'Good Cause' claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities".

This is consistent with the P&Gs, which emphasize reimbursement for all efforts necessary to locate and return children, enforce court orders, and resolve custody disputes.

Overstated Materials and Supplies Costs

The District Attorney's Office respectfully disagrees with the SCO finding that allocated materials and supplies costs were overstated and not allowable. The methodology employed by the County to allocate these costs is both reasonable and consistent with the P&Gs governing the CAR Program.

Permissibility of Cost Allocation Methodology

The Parameters and Guidelines, Section V, explicitly allow for the reimbursement of both direct and indirect costs of materials and supplies, provided they are traceable and supported by appropriate documentation. Specifically, the P&Gs state:

> "Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents... Evidence corroborating the source documents may include... cost allocation reports (system generated)... time logs, and worksheets".

The methodology used by the County relies on time-tracked data by employees who only recorded billable hours for reimbursable CAR activities. From this, the County calculated the percentage of time spent on CAR work and proportionally allocated materials and supplies used to support these efforts. This method meets the standard of being reasonable, supported by documentation, and traceable to the mandate.

Mischaracterization of Allocated Costs as Direct Costs

The SCO contends that allocated costs were improperly claimed as direct costs. We respectfully submit that while the costs were physically incurred across programs, the purpose and use of those resources—when proportionally allocated using FTEs or time records—were directly supportive of CAR-mandated work. As an example, office phones, supplies, and facilities were necessary tools to carry out the mandated duties. Employees would not require those materials but for the need to fulfill CAR-related responsibilities. Disallowing these costs, while permitting desks or chairs only to the extent someone sits in them during a particular case, leads to an impractical and inconsistent reimbursement standard.

Support from the Parameters and Guidelines

The SCO cites Section VII.A.3 of the P&Gs to assert that only direct costs may be claimed. However, this section also permits claims for items such as communication devices and office equipment, provided they are used for the mandate and consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. The County's cost allocation methodology achieves exactly that: it identifies the proportion of consumption attributable to CAR-related activities. The P&Gs do not require item-by-item attribution per case but allow cost allocation supported by worksheets and time records.

Sacramento County respectfully maintains that the costs disallowed by the SCO were reasonable, necessary, and fully supported by contemporaneous documentation and methodologies consistent with the P&Gs. The interpretations applied by the SCO are overly restrictive and do not reflect the operational realities of implementing the CAR program.

Conclusion:

We therefore request that the Commission on State Mandates fully reconsider the audit findings and reinstate the disallowed costs associated with SD Time, activities involving “Good Cause” cases under Penal Code section 278.7, and proportionally allocated materials and supplies. These costs were incurred in good faith, aligned with the reimbursable mandate, and are essential to fulfilling Sacramento County’s legal obligations in child abduction and recovery efforts.

Dear Mr. Blazina and Ms. Kato:

The Draft Proposed Decision for the above-captioned matter is enclosed for your review and comment.

Written Comments

Written comments may be filed on the Draft Proposed Decision by February 20, 2026. Please note that all representations of fact submitted to the Commission must be signed under penalty of perjury by persons who are authorized and competent to do so and must be based upon the declarant's personal knowledge, information, or belief. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 1187.5.) Hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence but shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over an objection in civil actions. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 1187.5.) The Commission's ultimate findings of fact must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.[1]

You are advised that comments filed with the Commission are required to be electronically filed (e-filed) in an unlocked legible and searchable PDF file, using the Commission's Dropbox. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 1181.3(f).) Refer to https://www.csm.ca.gov/dropbox.shtml on the Commission's website for electronic filing instructions. If e-filing would cause the filer undue hardship or significant prejudice, filing may occur by first class mail, overnight delivery or personal service only upon approval of a request to the executive director. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 1181.3(j).)

If you would like to request an extension of time to file comments, please refer to section 1187.9(a) of the Commission's regulations.

Hearing

This matter is set for hearing on Friday, April 10, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. The Proposed Decision will be issued on or about March 27, 2026.

If you plan to address the Commission on this item, please notify the Commission Office not later than noon on the Tuesday prior to the hearing, February 10, 2026. Please also include the names of the people who will be speaking for inclusion on the witness list and the names and emails addresses of the people who will be speaking both in person and remotely to receive a hearing panelist link in Zoom. When calling or emailing, please identify the item you want to testify on and the entity you represent. The Commission Chairperson reserves the right to impose time limits on presentations as may be necessary to complete the agenda.

If you would like to request postponement of the hearing, please refer to section 1187.9(b) of the Commission's regulations.

Very truly yours,

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Overview

This Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) addresses reductions made by the State Controller's Office (Controller) to costs claimed by the County of Sacramento's (claimant's) district attorney's office during fiscal years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019 (audit period) for costs incurred while implementing the Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery (CAR) program. CAR is a state mandated program originally approved by the Board of Control in 1979, which requires district attorney's offices to "actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions."[1]

For the period between July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019, the claimant claimed $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program.[2] The audit found that $1,420,782 of the claimed costs were allowable and $465,094 were unallowable.[3] Of the unallowable costs, $248,074 were reduced from the claimant's costs for salaries and benefits (including $61,671 for related indirect costs), and $217,020 for materials and supplies.[4] For the unallowable salaries and benefits costs, there were two issues the Controller found: the claimant claimed $154,127 in direct costs for time that was not actual time spent on mandated activities, but was instead spent on non-program specific activities, a portion of which was then allocated to child abduction cases based on standard distribution time ("SD time"); and the claimant claimed $32,276 in direct costs for time spent on cases classified under Penal Code section 278.7 ("good cause" cases), which the Controller asserted are not reimbursable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to good cause under Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[5] For the materials and supplies issue, the Controller found that the claimant claimed costs that were allocated to the entire unit that contains their child abduction program, rather than identifying and claiming actual costs for the mandated child abduction program.[6]

Staff finds that the Controller's reduction of $32,276 in salaries and benefits for time spent investigating "good cause" cases is incorrect as a matter of law and recommends that the Commission on State Mandates (Commission) partially approve this IRC.

Procedural History

The claimant filed the IRC on November 25, 2024.[7] The Controller filed comments on the IRC on March 6, 2025.[8] The claimant filed rebuttal comments on April 4, 2025.[9] Commission staff issued the Draft Proposed Decision on January 30, 2026.[10]

Commission Responsibilities

Government Code section 17561(d) authorizes the Controller to audit the claims filed by local agencies and school districts and to reduce any claim for reimbursement of state-mandated costs if the Controller determines that the claim is excessive or unreasonable.

Government Code section 17551(d) requires the Commission to hear and decide a claim that the Controller has incorrectly reduced payments to the local agency or school district. If the Commission determines that a reimbursement claim has been incorrectly reduced, section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations requires the Commission to send the decision to the Controller and request that the costs in the claim be reinstated.

[10] Exhibit D, Draft Proposed Decision.

The Commission must review questions of law, including interpretation of parameters and guidelines, de novo, without consideration of legal conclusions made by the Controller in the context of an audit. The Commission is vested with exclusive authority to adjudicate disputes over the existence of state-mandated programs within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution.[11] The Commission must also interpret the Government Code and implementing regulations in accordance with the broader constitution and statutory scheme. In making its decisions, the Commission must strictly construe article XIII B, section 6 and not apply it as an "equitable remedy to cure the perceived unfairness resulting from political decisions on funding priorities."[12]

With regard to the Controller's audit decisions, the Commission must determine whether they were arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support. This standard is similar to the standard used by the courts when reviewing an alleged abuse of discretion of a state agency.[13]

The Commission must also review the Controller's audit in light of the fact that the initial burden of providing evidence for a claim of reimbursement lies with the claimant.[14] In addition, section 1185.1(f)(3) and 1185.2(d) and (e) of the Commission's regulations requires that any assertions of fact by the parties to an IRC must be supported by documentary evidence. The Commission's ultimate findings of fact must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.[15]

Direct costs are "costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions."[21] To claim direct costs for salary and employees' benefits, claimants' documentation must "Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits," while for materials and supplies direct costs, claimants' documentation must "list the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate."[22] Indirect costs	allocated costs as direct costs. Allocated costs are not direct costs, as the goods, services, etc., which benefitted the unit as a whole, cannot be traced to CAR specifically. Furthermore, the claimant did not provide proper source documentation to support these costs. The salaries and benefits cost based on standard distribution (SD) time were supported with billing detail reports, which show the SD time costs after they were already allocated amongst CAR cases.[24] This makes the billing detail reports a cost allocation report, which is a type of corroborating document, and the claimant did not provide time logs or any other records that could serve as source documentation to support these costs. For the allocated materials and supplies costs, the claimant provided

Penal Code sections 278, 278.5, and 278.7 do not impose any state mandated requirements but rather put into context and define the scope of the mandate created by Family Code section 3130 and 3131. The criminal intent or malice requirement in Penal Code section 278.5 and the good cause defense in section 278.7 are intertwined,[27] thus facts or circumstances relating to "good cause" need to be addressed by the district attorney's office to comply with the mandate. Furthermore, the Controller is incorrect in its assertion that the "good cause" defense in Penal code section 278.7 has never been part of the Parameters and Guidelines. Although that specific code section was

Staff Analysis

This IRC addresses reductions made by the State Controller's Office (Controller) to costs claimed by the County of Sacramento's (claimant) district attorney's office during fiscal years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019 (audit period) for costs incurred while implementing the Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery (CAR) program. CAR is a state mandated program originally approved by the Board of Control in 1979, which requires district attorney's offices to "actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions."[29]

[28] Prior to the Legislature renumbering the child abduction chapter in 1996, Penal Code section 277, as added by Statutes 1984, Chapter 1207, established a crime when, absent an existing court order determining custody or visitation rights, a person with a right to custody maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away the child without good cause and with the intent to deprive another person of their right to custody or visitation. "Good cause" was defined as "a good faith belief that the taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away of the child is necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or physical harm." (See Statutes 1986, Chapter 1210). Penal Code section 277 was added to the Parameters and Guidelines prior to the 1999 amendment in the caption and alongside Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 in the section defining non-reimbursable costs, and the 1999 amendment removed it from the non-reimbursable costs section but retained it in the caption. See Exhibit X (1), 1990 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines, pages 7-8 (section VI.); Exhibit X (3), 1999 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines Staff Analysis and Proposed Amendments, pages 11, 16. This item was adopted on consent. (Exhibit X (4), Commission on State Mandates Minutes, August 26, 1999, page 7.)

For the period between July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019, the claimant claimed $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program.[30] The audit found that $1,420,782 of the claimed costs were allowable and $465,094 were unallowable.[31] Of the unallowable costs, $248,074 were reduced from the claimant's costs for salaries and benefits (including $61,671 for related indirect costs), and $217,020 for materials and supplies.[32] For the unallowable salaries and benefits costs, there were two issues the Controller found: the claimant claimed $154,127 in direct costs for time that was not actual time spent on mandated activities, but was instead spent on non-program specific activities, a portion of which was then allocated to child abduction cases based on standard distribution time ("SD time"); and the claimant claimed $32,276 in direct costs for time spent on cases classified under Penal Code section 278.7 ("good cause" cases), which the Controller asserted are not reimbursable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to good cause under Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[33] For the materials and supplies issue, the Controller found that the claimant claimed costs that were allocated to the entire unit that contains their child abduction program, rather than identifying and claiming actual costs for the mandated child abduction program.[34]

The Commission finds that the Controller's reductions related to salaries and benefits costs of $154,127 for non-program specific activities based on SD time, and for the claimant's materials and supplies costs of $217,020, plus any related indirect costs, are correct as a matter of law.

Claims for reimbursement shall be filed in the manner prescribed in the Parameters and Guidelines, which are regulatory in nature and binding on the claimant.[35] To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement, only actual costs may be claimed, which are "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities."[36] The Parameters and Guidelines allow reimbursement for both direct and indirect costs, with separate reimbursement claim preparation instructions for each, and define direct costs as "costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions."[37] To claim actual direct costs for salary and employees' benefits, claimants' must "Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits," while for materials and supplies direct costs, claimants' must "list the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate."[38] In addition, the Parameters and Guidelines require that direct costs must be traceable and supported by contemporaneous source documents, which are created at or near the time at which the cost was incurred, and show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to reimbursable activities.[39]

In this case, however, the claimant did not claim the actual direct costs for salaries and benefits and materials and supplies for the mandated program. Instead, the claimant claimed salary and benefit and material and supply costs allocated to the CAR program, similar to claiming an indirect cost. Specifically, the claimant has a unit within its district attorney's office that serves several different programs which are all reimbursed by the state, including CAR, called the State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP). The claimant calculated the time employees spent on "non-program specific activities" that supported STOP as a whole, and the materials and supplies costs incurred by STOP as a whole, and used a cost allocation methodology to determine a share of these costs which it attributed to CAR cases, and then claimed these allocated costs as direct costs. Allocated costs are not direct costs which "can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions," because the goods, services, etc., benefited the STOP unit as a whole, not the CAR program specifically.[40] Allocated salary and benefits costs do not identify the actual number of hours devoted to each function for this program specifically, nor do allocated materials and supplies costs identify the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purpose of this mandate.

Furthermore, the claimant did not provide proper source documents in support of these claimed costs. Although the Parameters and Guideline allow the use of cost allocation reports to support actual costs, they are specifically allowed as corroborating documents, which are not a substitute for contemporaneous source documentation.[41] The claimant's salaries and benefits costs, including SD time, were supported with billing detail reports, which showed SD time after it was allocated to CAR cases using the claimant's cost allocation methodology, making this a cost allocation report.[42] The claimant asserts that it used "time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program," but the claimant did not provide any of these documents that could act as source documentation to support the allocated costs.[43] For the materials and supplies costs, the claimant provided documentation of the method used to calculate CAR's allocated share of STOP's materials and supplies costs, accounting journals which listed all costs incurred by STOP in a given year, and excerpts from the county's OMB A-87 cost allocation plan.[44] Some of the costs included in the claimant's cost allocation methodology were themselves allocated costs apportioned to the STOP unit, without any source documentation to support them.[45] These documents show how costs were allocated to the program and are not proper source documentation showing the actual costs incurred for the state-mandated program. Unlike the materials and supplies which were directly consumed by the CAR program, which were supported with case files and records that showed how they were consumed, and with invoices and receipts to support their costs, no documentation provided supports that the allocated materials and supplies costs were consumed specifically for the purpose of the CAR program. comply with the Parameters and Guidelines, and as such, the Controller's reduction of $154,127 for salaries and benefits and $217,020 for materials and supplies, and any related indirect costs, is correct as a matter of law.

However, the Controller's reduction of $32,276 in costs for "good cause" cases and any related indirect costs is incorrect as a matter of law. The Controller denied the claimant's salaries and benefits costs that were attributed to time spent on activities related to "good cause" cases (now identified in Penal Code section 278.7), because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[46] Penal Code section 278.7 states that a crime for taking or concealing a child may not be established if a person with a right to custody of the child has a good faith and reasonable belief the child will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm if left with the other person and thereafter reports to the district attorney's office their name, address and telephone number, and the reason for his or her actions; commences a custody proceeding; and informs the district attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number of the defendant and the child.

The Parameters and Guidelines authorize reimbursement for "obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of custody or visitation orders, and "utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance," which includes the preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.[47] The Parameters and Guidelines define the scope of the mandate as follows:

> Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.[48]

The only non-reimbursable costs are those "associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency."[49]

Although the Controller argues that since Penal Code section 278.7 is not expressly identified in the Parameters and Guidelines the costs associated with section 287.7 are not eligible for reimbursement, Penal Code sections 278, 278.5 (which establish crimes), and 278.7 (the good cause exception to those crimes) simply put the reimbursable activities, which are mandated by Family Code sections 3130 and 3131, into context and define the scope of the mandate. The Penal Code sections themselves do not impose any state-mandated activities on the county.

Specifically, Family Code section 3130 requires that when a petition to determine custody has been filed with the courts or a temporary custody order has been entered pending a determination of custody, and the whereabouts of the party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, "the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for the purposes of adjudication of custody."[50] Family Code section 3131 requires that if a custody or visitation order has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, "the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order and to assist in the enforcement of the custody or visitation order by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceedings."[51] These code sections and their predecessors are what created the state mandate approved by the Board of Control, which, as the Parameters and Guidelines state "require district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and any other order of the court [both civil and criminal] in a child custody proceeding."[52]

Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 establish the crimes for maliciously taking or concealing a child in cases where the defendant has or does not have a right to custody. And, pursuant to the plain language of the Parameters and Guidelines, all costs to obtain compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of those orders, and utilizing any appropriate criminal court action to secure compliance are eligible for reimbursement up to the point of the "defendant's first appearance in a California Court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code."[53] Any costs incurred by the district attorney's office after the defendant's direct appearance in court on those crimes is not reimbursable.

If the facts establish that the defendant acted with "good cause" when taking or concealing the child pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7, the defendant will not be guilty of the crime. As the courts have determined, the criminal intent or malice requirement in the Penal Code and the good faith defense in section 278.7 are intertwined.[54] Thus, facts or circumstances addressing any "good cause" element in these proceedings have to be addressed by the district attorney's office in order to comply with the mandate to "actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation."

Furthermore, the Controller is incorrect that the "good cause" defense in Penal Code section 278.7 has never been part of the Parameters and Guidelines. Although that specific code section was never formally incorporated in the Parameters and Guidelines, its predecessor (Penal Code section 277) was, and is still included in the Parameters and Guidelines today.[55] Accordingly, the reduction of costs to comply with Family Code sections 3130 and 3131 for "good cause" cases (up to the point of the defendant's first appearance in court on criminal charges) is incorrect as a matter of law.

Accordingly, staff recommends that the Commission partially approve this IRC and request, pursuant to Government Code section 17551(d) and section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations, that the Controller reinstate $32,276, plus any related indirect costs, to the claimant.

[54] People v. Neidinger (2006) 40 Cal.4th 67, 79, emphasis added.

[55] Prior to the Legislature renumbering the child abduction chapter in 1996, Penal Code section 277, as added by Statutes 1984, Chapter 1207, established a crime when, absent an existing court order determining custody or visitation rights, a person with a right to custody maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away the child without good cause and with the intent to deprive another person of their right to custody or visitation. "Good cause" was defined as "a good faith belief that the taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away of the child is necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or physical harm." (See Statutes 1986, Chapter 1210). Penal Code section 277 was added to the Parameters and Guidelines prior to the 1999 amendment in the caption and alongside Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 in the section defining non-reimbursable costs, and the 1999 amendment removed it from the non-reimbursable costs section but retained it in the caption. See Exhibit X (1), 1990 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines, pages 7-8 (section VI.); Exhibit X (3), 1999 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines Staff Analysis and Proposed Amendments, pages 11, 16. This item was adopted on consent. (Exhibit X (4), Commission on State Mandates Minutes, August 26, 1999, page 7.)

Conclusion

Based on the forgoing analysis, staff concludes that the Controller's reduction of $32,276 in salaries and benefits for time spent investigating "good cause" cases, and any related indirect costs, is incorrect as a matter of law and incorrectly reduced.

All other reductions are correct as a matter of law and the corresponding claims denied.

Staff Recommendation

Staff recommends that the Commission adopt the Proposed Decision to partially approve the IRC and to request, pursuant to Government Code section 17551(d) and section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations, that the Controller reinstate $32,276, plus related indirect costs, to the claimant. Staff further recommends that the Commission authorize staff to make any technical, non-substantive changes to the Proposed Decision following the hearing.

DECISION

The Commission on State Mandates (Commission) heard and decided this Incorrect Reduction Claim (IRC) during a regularly scheduled hearing on April 10, 2026. [Witness list will be included in the adopted Decision.]

The law applicable to the Commission's determination of a reimbursable state-mandated program is article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution, Government Code sections 17500 et seq., and related case law.

The Commission [adopted/modified] the Proposed Decision to partially approve the IRC by a vote of [vote will be included in the adopted Decision], as follows:

Summary of the Findings

This IRC addresses reductions made by the State Controller's Office (Controller) to costs claimed by the County of Sacramento's (claimant's) district attorney's office during fiscal years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019 (audit period) for costs incurred while implementing the Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery (CAR) program. CAR is a state mandated program originally approved by the Board of Control in 1979, which requires district attorney's offices to "actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions."[56]

For the period between July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2019, the claimant claimed $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program.[57] The audit found that $1,420,782 of the claimed costs were allowable and $465,094 were unallowable.[58] Of the unallowable costs, $248,074 were reduced from the claimant's costs for salaries and benefits (including $61,671 for related indirect costs), and $217,020 for materials and supplies.[59] For the unallowable salaries and benefits costs, there were two issues the Controller found: the claimant claimed $154,127 in direct costs for time that was not actual time spent on mandated activities, but was instead spent on non-program specific activities, a portion of which was then allocated to child abduction cases based on standard distribution time ("SD time"); and the claimant claimed $32,276 in direct costs for time spent on cases classified under Penal Code section 278.7 ("good cause" cases), which the Controller asserted are not reimbursable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to good cause under Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[60] For the materials and supplies issue, the Controller found that the claimant claimed costs that were allocated to the entire unit that contains their child abduction program, rather than identifying and claiming actual costs for the mandated child abduction program.[61]

The Commission finds that the Controller's reductions related to salaries and benefits costs of $154,127 for non-program specific activities based on SD time, and for the claimant's materials and supplies costs of $217,020, plus any related indirect costs, are correct as a matter of law.

Claims for reimbursement shall be filed in the manner prescribed in the Parameters and Guidelines, which are regulatory in nature and binding on the claimant.[62] To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement, only actual costs may be claimed, which are "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities."[63] The Parameters and Guidelines allow reimbursement for both direct and indirect costs, with separate reimbursement claim preparation instructions for each, and define direct costs as "costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions."[64] To claim actual direct costs for salary and employees' benefits, claimants' must "Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits," while for materials and supplies direct costs, claimants' must "list the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate."[65] In addition, the Parameters and Guidelines require that direct costs must be traceable and supported by contemporaneous source documents, which are created at or near the time at which the cost was incurred, and show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to reimbursable activities.[66]

In this case, however, the claimant did not claim the actual direct costs for salaries and benefits and materials and supplies for the mandated program. Instead, the claimant claimed salary and benefit and material and supply costs allocated to the CAR program, similar to claiming an indirect cost. Specifically, the claimant has a unit within its district attorney's office that serves several different programs which are all reimbursed by the state, including CAR, called the State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP). The claimant took the time employees spent on "non-program specific activities" that supported STOP as a whole, and the materials and supplies costs incurred by STOP as a whole, and used a cost allocation methodology to determine a share of these costs which it attributed to CAR cases, and then claimed these allocated costs as direct costs. Allocated costs are not direct costs which "can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions," because the goods, services, etc., benefited the STOP unit as a whole, not the CAR program specifically.[67] Allocated salary and benefits costs do not identify the actual number of hours devoted to each function for this program specifically, nor do allocated materials and supplies costs identify the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purpose of this mandate.

Furthermore, the claimant did not provide proper source documents in support of these claimed costs. Although the Parameters and Guidelines allow the use of cost allocation reports to support actual costs, they are specifically allowed as corroborating documents, which are not a substitute for contemporaneous source documentation.[68] The claimant's salaries and benefits costs, including SD time, were supported with billing detail reports, which showed SD time after it was allocated to CAR cases using the claimant's cost allocation methodology, making this a cost allocation report.[69] The claimant asserts that it used "time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program," but the claimant did not provide any of these documents that could act as source documentation to support the allocated costs.[70] For the materials and supplies costs, the claimant provided documentation of the method used to calculate CAR's allocated share of STOP's materials and supplies costs, accounting journals which listed all costs incurred by STOP in a given year, and excerpts from the county's OMB A-87 cost allocation plan.[71] Some of the costs included in the claimant's cost allocation methodology were themselves allocated costs apportioned to the STOP unit, without any source documentation to support them.[72] These documents show how costs were allocated to the program and are not proper source documentation showing the actual costs incurred for the state-mandated program. Unlike the materials and supplies which were directly consumed by the CAR program, which were supported with case files and records that showed how they were consumed, and with invoices and receipts to support their costs, no documentation provided supports that the allocated materials and supplies costs were consumed specifically for the purpose of the CAR program. Accordingly, the claimant did not comply with the Parameters and Guidelines, and as such, the Controller's reduction of $154,127 for salaries and benefits and $217,020 for materials and supplies, and any related indirect costs, is correct as a matter of law.

However, the Controller's reduction of $32,276 in costs for "good cause" cases and any related indirect costs is incorrect as a matter of law. The Controller denied the claimant's salaries and benefits costs that were attributed to time spent on activities related to "good cause" cases (now identified in Penal Code section 278.7), because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[73] Penal Code section 278.7 states that a crime for taking or concealing a child may not be established if a person with a right to custody of the child has a good faith and reasonable belief the child will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm if left with the other person and thereafter reports to the district attorney's office their name, address and telephone number, and the reason for his or her actions; commences a custody proceeding; and informs the district attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number of the defendant and the child.

civil or criminal court action to secure compliance," which includes the preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.[74] The Parameters and Guidelines define the scope of the mandate as follows:

> Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.[75]

The only non-reimbursable costs are those "associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency."[76]

Although the Controller argues that since Penal Code section 278.7 is not expressly identified in the Parameters and Guidelines the costs associated with section 287.7 are not eligible for reimbursement, Penal Code sections 278, 278.5 (which establish crimes), and 278.7 (the good cause exception to those crimes) simply put the reimbursable activities, which are mandated by Family Code sections 3130 and 3131, into context and define the scope of the mandate. The Penal Code sections themselves do not impose any state-mandated activities on the county.

Specifically, Family Code section 3130 requires that when a petition to determine custody has been filed with the courts or a temporary custody order has been entered pending a determination of custody, and the whereabouts of the party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, "the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for the purposes of adjudication of custody."[77] Family Code section 3131 requires that if a custody or visitation order has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, "the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order and to assist in the enforcement of the custody or visitation order by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceedings."[78] These code sections and their predecessors are what created the state mandate approved by the Board of Control, which, as the Parameters and Guidelines state "require district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and any other order of the court [both civil and criminal] in a child custody proceeding."[79]

Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 establish the crimes for maliciously taking or concealing a child in cases where the defendant has or does not have a right to custody. And, pursuant to the plain language of the Parameters and Guidelines, all costs to obtain compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of those orders, and utilizing any appropriate criminal court action to secure compliance are eligible for reimbursement *up to the point of the "defendant's first appearance i*n a California Court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code."[80] Any costs incurred by the district attorney's office after the defendant's direct appearance in court on those crimes is not reimbursable.

If the facts establish that the defendant acted with "good cause" when taking or concealing the child pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7, the defendant will not be guilty of the crime. As the courts have determined, the criminal intent or malice requirement in the Penal Code and the good faith defense in section 278.7 are intertwined.[81] Thus, facts or circumstances addressing any "good cause" element in these proceedings have to be addressed by the district attorney's office in order to comply with the mandate to "actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation."[82]

Furthermore, the Controller is incorrect that the "good cause" defense in Penal Code section 278.7 has never been part of the Parameters and Guidelines. Although that specific code section was never formally incorporated in the Parameters and Guidelines, its predecessor (Penal Code section 277) was, and is still included in the Parameters and Guidelines today.[83] Accordingly, the reduction of costs to comply with Family Code sections 3130 and 3131 for "good cause" cases (up to the point of the defendant's first appearance in court on criminal charges) is incorrect as a matter of law.

Accordingly, the Commission partially approves this IRC and requests, pursuant to Government Code section 17551(d) and section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations, that the Controller reinstate $32,276, plus any related indirect costs, to the claimant.

[83] Prior to the Legislature renumbering the child abduction chapter in 1996, Penal Code section 277, as added by Statutes 1984, Chapter 1207, established a crime when, absent an existing court order determining custody or visitation rights, a person with a right to custody maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away the child without good cause and with the intent to deprive another person of their right to custody or visitation. "Good cause" was defined as "a good faith belief that the taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away of the child is necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or physical harm." See Statutes 1986, Chapter 1210. Penal Code section 277 was added to the Parameters and Guidelines prior to the 1999 amendment in the caption and alongside Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 in the section defining non-reimbursable costs, and the 1999 amendment removed it from the non-reimbursable costs section but retained it in the caption. See Exhibit X (1), 1990 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines, pages 7-8 (section VI.); Exhibit X (3), 1999 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines Staff Analysis and Proposed Amendments, pages 11, 16. This item was adopted on consent. (Exhibit X (4), Commission on State Mandates Minutes, August 26, 1999, page 7.)

II. Background

A. The Test Claim Statute

In 1979, the Board of Control found Statutes of 1976, chapter 1399, to impose a reimbursable state mandate on county district attorney offices to assist in the resolution of child custody problems, and the enforcement of custody decrees and other orders of the court in a child custody proceeding. The Board of Control found that the mandated activities include "all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceedings with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions."[85]

Specifically, the 1976 test claim statute added sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended sections 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code, added sections 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478 and 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which required county district attorney offices to become involved in child custody matters.[86] "Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees."[87]

Civil Code section 4604 required that when there is a petition to determine custody of a child filed with the courts or a temporary custody order pending a determination of custody, and either the location of the party with possession of the child is not known or there is a reason to believe that party will defy court orders to appear in the proceedings with the child personally, the district attorney "shall take all actions necessary to locate such party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for the purposes of adjudication of custody."[88] It also said that after a custody decree has been entered, when a child is taken, enticed away, detained, or concealed in violation of that decree, the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate the person who violated the decree and the child and to assist in enforcing the custody order or decree.[89] Welfare and Institutions Code section 11478 also required all state, county, and local agencies to cooperate in the location of parents who have abandoned, deserted, or abducted children.[90]

To facilitate this, several tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to ensure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments.

Penal Code section 278 established a crime when a defendant, who does not have a right to custody of a child, acts with malicious intent to detain or conceal the child from their parent, guardian, or other person with lawful charge of the child, as follows:

> Every person, not having a right to custody, who maliciously takes, entices away, detains, or conceals any minor child with intent to detain or conceal such child from a parent, or guardian, or other person having lawful charge to such child shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both, or imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year, a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.[91]

Penal Code section 278.5 established a crime when the defendant takes, retains after the end of a visitation period, or conceals the child from their legal custodian in violation of a custody decree, or if the defendant has custody of the child pursuant to a court order and detains or conceals the child with intent to deprive another person of their right to custody or visitation in violation of a court order, as follows:

> Every person who in violation of a custody decree takes, retains after the expiration of a visitation period, or conceals the child from his legal custodian, and every person who has custody of a child pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of any court which grants another person rights to custody or visitation of such child, and who detains or conceals such child with the intent to deprive the other person of such right to custody or visitation shall be punished by imprisonment in state prison for a period of not more than one year and one day or by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year, a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.[92]

The 1976 statute also added Civil Code section 4600.1 (allowing parties in a dissolution of marriage proceeding to petition the court for a temporary custody order of any minor children); added Civil Code section 4605 (authorizing the state to reimburse district attorney expenses incurred pursuant to Civil Code section 4604, and for courts to allocate liability for reimbursement of district attorneys' actual expenses to either or both parties); amended Civil Code section 5157 (prohibiting courts from exercising jurisdiction to modify a custody decree when the petitioner has violated the custody decree of another state, unless required in the interest of the child); amended Civil Code section 5160 (granting courts authority to order a party in a custody proceeding to appear personally with the child, and to issue an arrest warrant against the party if they do not comply); amended Civil Code section 5169 (authorizing courts competent to hear custody matters in this state to order a person in this state to appear at a hearing or produce evidence upon the request of the court of another state; and amended Welfare and Institutions Code section 11478.5 (directing the Attorney General to use its parent locator service to locate parents who deserted or abandoned their children to enforce their liability for child support and to locate and return abducted children and their parents.)[93]

In 1983, the Legislature amended Civil Code section 4604(b) to clarify it to also require district attorneys to enforce visitation orders.[94] Subsequent amendments to the program are described below.

B. Child Abduction and the "Good Cause" Defense in Former Penal Code Section 277, which Was Recodified as Section 278.7 in 1996

In 1984, the Legislature added what is now the former version of Penal Code section 277.[95] Unlike former Penal Code section 278, which applied to defendants who had no right to custody of a child, and former Penal Code section 278.5, which applied when the defendant had a right to custody or visitation pursuant to a court order, former Penal Code section 277 applied when there was no court order determining custody or visitation rights. Under the circumstances when no court order determining custody exists, a crime is established if the defendant intentionally deprives another person of their right to custody, and maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away the child, without good cause, as follows:

> In the absence of a court order determining rights of custody or visitation to a minor child, every person having a right of custody of the child who maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away that child within or without the state, without good cause, and with the intent to deprive the custody right of another person or a public agency also having a custody right to that child, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of one year and one day, a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or both.
> A subsequently obtained court order for custody or visitation shall not affect the application of this section.
>
> For the purposes of this section, "a person having a right of custody" means the legal guardian of the child or a person who has a parent and child relationship with the child pursuant to Section 197 of the Civil Code.[96]

In 1986, an urgency statute amended former Penal Code section 277 to clarify that "As used in this section, 'good cause' means a good faith belief that the taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away of the child is necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or emotional harm."[97] Thus, "good cause" for taking the child means that no crime exists.

Defendants charged under former Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 also sometimes asserted a common law necessity defense for their actions of taking or concealing the child, which required the defendant have no other legal course of action available to them, and for the "individual committing the crime to report to the proper authorities immediately after attaining a position of safety from the peril."[98] Affirmative defenses such as necessity have a burden of proof requiring the defendant to prove the necessity of their actions by a preponderance of evidence.[99]

In 1992, the defendant in People v. Dewberry was charged with violating former Penal Code section 277, and he argued that the trial court improperly instructed the jury that he had the burden of proving the affirmative defense of good cause or necessity to take the child by a preponderance of the evidence, rather than making good cause an element of the offense. If good cause is an element of the offense, the defendant only has to create reasonable doubt in the prosecution's assertion that his actions were without good cause.[100] The appellate court agreed with the defendant, comparing former Penal Code section 277 with Penal Code section 270, which prohibits parents of minor children from willfully failing to provide the child necessities such as clothing, food, shelter, or medical assistance without lawful excuse.[101] The court noted:

> If the absence of lawful excuse is an element of the offense prescribed by Penal Code section 270, then it logically follows that the absence of good cause is an element of the offense prescribed by section 277.

> Accordingly, in attempting to show good cause for taking David to Texas, Dewberry need only have raised a reasonable doubt on this point.[102]

In 1996, the Legislature repealed and added back in all of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 277), of the Penal Code, but renumbered some provisions.[103] Penal Code section 277 now provides statutory definitions for terms used in the chapter such as "right to custody" and "visitation."[104] Penal Code section 278 was mostly unchanged from former section 278, and says:

> Every person, not having a right to custody, who maliciously takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals any child with the intent to detain or conceal that child from a lawful custodian shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both that fine and imprisonment.[105]

The changes made to Penal Code section 278.5 however combine elements of both former Penal Code sections 277 and 278.5, as it applies regardless of whether there is a court order regarding custody or visitation rights, but no longer specifies the taking of the child must be without good cause. Section 278.5 states:

> (a) Every person who takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals a child and maliciously deprives a lawful custodian of a right to custody, or a person of a right to visitation, shall be punished by imprisonment in county jail not exceeding one year, a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both that fine and imprisonment.
> (b) Nothing contained in this section limits the court's contempt power.
> (c) A custody order obtained after the taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing of a child does not constitute a defense to a crime charged under this section.[106]

[106] Penal Code section 278.5, as added by Statutes of 1996, chapter 988, section 9. The current version received one last amendment since then with Statutes of 2011,

The Legislature also added Penal Code section 278.7, which now states that Penal Code section 278.5 does not apply and a crime may not be established if a person with a right to custody of the child has a good faith and reasonable belief the child will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm if left with the other person and thereafter reports to the district attorney's office with their name, address and telephone number, and the reason for his or her actions; commences a custody proceeding; and informs the district attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number of the defendant and the child. Penal Code section 278.7 says:

> (a) Section 278.5 does not apply to a person with a right to custody of a child who, with a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm, takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals that child.
> (b) Section 278.5 does not apply to a person with a right to custody of a child who has been a victim of domestic violence who, with a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm, takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals that child. "Emotional harm" includes having a parent who has committed domestic violence against the parent who is taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing the child.
>
> (c) The person who takes, entices away, keeps, withholds, or conceals a child shall do all of the following:
> (1) Within a reasonable time from the taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing, make a report to the office of the district attorney of the county where the child resided before the action. The report shall include the name of the person, the current address and telephone number of the child and the person, and the reasons the child was taken, enticed away, kept, withheld, or concealed.
>
> (2) Within a reasonable time from the taking, enticing away, keeping, withholding, or concealing, commence a custody proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction consistent with the federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (Section 1738A, Title 28, United States Code) or the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 3400) of Division 8 of the Family Code).
>
> (3) Inform the district attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number of the person and the child.
> (d) For the purposes of this article, a reasonable time within which to make a report to the district attorney's office is at least 10 days and a reasonable time to commence a custody proceeding is at least 30 days. This section shall not preclude a person from making a report to the district attorney's office or commencing a custody proceeding earlier than those specified times.

(e) The address and telephone number of the person and the child provided pursuant to this section shall remain confidential unless released pursuant to state law or by a court order that contains appropriate safeguards to ensure the safety of the person and the child.[107]

In 2006, the California Supreme Court found in People v. Neidinger that the "good faith and reasonable belief" language still only requires the defendant, like under former Penal Code section 277, to raise a reasonable doubt regarding the prosecution's allegations that the defendant had malice and did not have "good cause" when taking or concealing the child, and that the malice requirement in section 278.5 and the good faith defense in section 278.7 are "intertwined, not entirely separate."[108]

Thus, when asserting a defense under Penal Code section 278.7, defendants are only required to show reasonable doubt that a crime under Penal Code section 278.5 occurred by presenting evidence of their good faith and reasonable belief that the child will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm if left with the other person and that the defendant complied with the reporting and custody proceeding requirements set forth in section 278.7(c) and (d).[109]

C. The Board of Control's Mandate Determination and Subsequent Amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines

In 1979, the Board of Control approved the Test Claim and found Statutes of 1976, chapter 1399 to impose a reimbursable state mandate on county district attorney offices.[110] Parameters and Guidelines were approved on January 21, 1981.[111] Records show the Parameters and Guidelines were amended on July 19, 1984; July 27, 1987; and October 26, 1989, however copies of these amendments and the original Parameters and Guidelines are not available.[112]

On February 22, 1990, the Parameters and Guidelines were amended again.[113] The 1990 Parameters and Guidelines identify the 1976 statute (the test claim statute) and 1983 statute (which provided that the enforcement requirements applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees) as the statutes creating the reimbursable state-mandated program and the 1990 Parameters and Guidelines define the scope of the mandate as follows:

> Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney: actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; the enforcement of custody and visitation decrees; take all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and comply with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Civil Code Section 4604, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.[114]

The reimbursable activities identified in the 1990 Parameters and Guidelines are as follows:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation degrees [sic]:

    a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

        (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

        (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

        (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child.

    b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

        (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

        (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with decrees or court orders.

        (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

c. Cost of transporting the child to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child.

(2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

3. Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

a. Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

b. Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

4. Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child to the legal custodian or agency.

   a. Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

   b. Cost of an escort for the child, including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

      Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.[115]

The 1990 version lists the following "non-reimbursable costs:

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's apprehension, surrender, or first appearance, for offenses defined in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code. [¶]

B. Costs associated with locating an offender and serving a warrant related either to criminal or civil proceedings defined in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.[116]

The Parameters and Guidelines were amended again on July 22, 1993.[117] Most of the changes made were non-substantive. However, some of the items in the "Reimbursable Costs" section were moved to a higher list level; i.e., activities 3 and 4 above (securing the appearance of the offender and the child on order of the court and return of an illegally obtained or concealed child to the legal custodian or agency) were moved under activity 2.[118] In addition, new phrasing in the "Required Certification"

On August 26, 1999, the Parameters and Guidelines were amended again and adopted on the Commission's consent calendar.[120] The caption identifies the 1976 test claim statute, the 1983 amendment, and two subsequent statutory amendments in 1992 and 1996, which are explained in Section I, Summary of Mandate, as follows:

> Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.
> Chapter 988, statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order.[121]

In addition, the description of the "Non-Reimbursable Costs" was amended as follows:

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the ~~defendant's apprehension, surrender, or~~ first appearance, for offenses defined in Sections ~~277,~~ 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

Finally, the “Claim Preparation” section was amended to add language regarding direct and indirect costs, with clarifying amendments for materials and supplies, travel, and training conducted on the mandate.[123]

On October 30, 2009, the Parameters and Guidelines were amended beginning with claims filed for the July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 fiscal year.[124] The 2009 Parameters and Guidelines govern the reimbursement claims at issue here. This amendment added what is now boilerplate text found at the start of every Reimbursable Costs and Activities section, stating that only actual costs may be claimed, that actual costs are costs that are actually incurred to implement the mandated activities, and that actual costs must be supported by contemporaneous source documents, which cannot be substituted for corroborating documents, as follow:

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.
>
> Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge."
>
> Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.
>
> The claimant is only allowed to claim and be reimbursed for increased costs for reimbursable activities identified below. Increased cost is limited to the cost of an activity that the claimant is required to incur as a result of the mandate.[125]

[125] Exhibit A, IRC, page 1891 (2009 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines, section V.).

The scope of the mandate remains stated as follows:

> Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.[126]

The reimbursable activities and "non-reimbursable costs" remain the same as the earlier version of the Parameters and Guidelines, with only "Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code" listed as not eligible for reimbursement. [127]

And allowable direct costs are identified in Section VII., which must be "traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions" of the mandate as follows:

> A. Direct Costs
>
> Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities or functions.
>
> Claimed costs shall be supported by the following cost element information:
>
> 1. Salary and Employees' Benefits
>
> Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.
>
> 2. Contracted Services
>
> Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended, and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes, and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.[128]

D. The Controller's Audit

For the period between July 1, 2016 through Jun 30, 2019, the claimant claimed $1,885,876 for costs of the mandated program.[129] The audit found that $1,420,782 of the claimed costs were allowable and $465,094 were unallowable.[130] Of the

unallowable costs, $248,074 were reduced from the claimant's costs for salaries and benefits (including $61,671 for related indirect costs), and $217,020 for materials and supplies.[131] For the unallowable salaries and benefits costs, there were two issues the Controller found: the claimant claimed costs for time that was not actual time spent on mandated activities, but was instead spent on non-program specific activities, a portion of which was then allocated to child abduction cases; and the claimant claimed costs for time spent on "good cause" cases classified under Penal Code section 278.7, which the Controller asserted are not reimbursable.[132] For the materials and supplies issue, the Controller found that the claimant had tried to claim costs that were allocated to the entire unit that contains their child abduction program, rather than identifying and claiming actual costs for the mandated child abduction program.[133]

1. Reduction of Salaries and Benefits

a. Reduction of allocated "SD time" distributed among several programs, including the mandated program here.

The Controller found that $154,127 of the claimed salaries and benefits direct costs and related indirect costs were unallowable, because it was not actual time spent on traceable mandated activities, but was instead time spent on non-program specific activities — including supervisory, general clerical and billing — for the State Targeted Offenders Program (STOP).[134] This time was recorded in the claimant's billing reports for the Child Abduction and Recovery Program with a note marking it as Standard Distributed (SD) time, which the claimant allocated monthly based on STOP's caseload and the full-time equivalent percentage for each program served by that unit.[135]

The claimant responded by explaining that STOP is a unit within its District Attorney's Office dedicated solely to various state-reimbursed programs, such as CAR and CDCR prison prosecutions.[136] This allows the claimant to consolidate overhead costs for these programs such as "supervisory, clerical, and other general costs such as rent, phones, office supplies, and insurance," which are then allocated among the programs served by the unit based on time studies.[137] When an employee works on a child abduction case, their time is tracked daily and only time worked on applicable cases is billed to the state, however some employees for the unit who provide support services such as clerical, supervisory, or billing reported their time generally, which the claimant then proportioned based on the number of cases worked on that month.[138] This time was

[133] Exhibit A, IRC, page 1922 (Final Audit Report).

categorized in its billing reports for CAR as "SD time." The claimant argued it would not have these dedicated employees and their related costs of employment if not for the state mandated programs, and that it believed its methodology for allocating costs was reasonable and applied consistently among the programs, and did not cause disproportional costs to be allocated to the mandated program here, CAR.[139]

The claimant characterized the auditor's findings as requiring a claimant's costs to be attributed to an actual case, however Section V. of the Parameters and Guidelines uses the term "actual costs" defined as "those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities."[140] The claimant argued that the Parameters and Guidelines "specifically allows the use of 'employee time records or time logs,' as a methodology to show actual costs," and these actual costs may be corroborated using worksheets and cost allocation reports (system generated), and that these terms anticipate and allow the use of allocated costs.[141] Additionally, the claimant noted the scope of the mandate includes both direct and indirect costs. "The DA's Office used time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the fulltime equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program. These reflect the DA's actual costs associated with providing these mandated actions. The DA's Office consolidation of services saves the state by avoiding duplicative costs."[142]

This did not convince the Controller. By the claimant's own definition of "SD time," this is time spent on activities that are not specific to the child abduction program. According to the claimant:

> This is time spent working on non-program specific activities for the [State Targeted Offenders] unit as a whole. For example, a clerical person performs the mail run which takes 2.0 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the whole unit. If we only worked on 4 cases that month, (1 Child Abduction, 1 SVP, 1 Prisons and 1 WF), each case in the month would get the 2.0 hours spread based on the FTE percentage for each unit.[143]

As the claimant says, SD time is time spent on "non-program specific activities." Because these costs are not program specific, the Controller was unable to determine the validity of these costs and their relationship to reimbursable activities.[144]

[144] Exhibit A, IRC, page 1921 (Final Audit Report).

As for the claimant's characterization of the Controller's findings to require all costs to be tied to an actual case, the Controller expressly denied that is the reason it found the costs to be unallowable, and refuted this by pointing to the claimant's use of Program Distributed (PD) time — time spent doing activities that were not tied to a specific case, but for CAR as a whole, which it then allocated among the child abduction cases each month in a similar manner to how it allocated SD time.[145] The Controller found those costs to be allowable, as those activities were directly related to the program.[146] The issue with SD time is not that it is not tied to a specific case, but rather is time spent on "non-program specific" activities, which, per the Parameters and Guidelines, is not considered an "actual cost" of the mandated program.

b. "Good cause" cases

The other issue the Controller found with the claimant's salaries and benefits costs was the time spent on activities for "good cause" cases. The Controller found that $32,276 of the claimant's salaries and benefits costs and related indirect costs were unallowable because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[147] The Parameters and Guidelines incorporate elements of Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 as amended by the same statute that added Penal Code section 278.7, however Penal Code section 278.7 was not incorporated into the Parameters and Guidelines, therefore the Controller argues these costs are not reimbursable.[148]

The claimant responded to the audit by explaining that when it investigates a reported child abduction case, often the alleged offender will claim they have good cause under Penal Code Section 278.7, or good cause may have been raised in a prior case with the same involved parties, but the circumstances must be investigated anew for the current case.[149] The District Attorney's mandate from the state can be found in Family Code sections 3130 and 3131: "to take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order" to appear in court with the child for purposes of adjudication of custody, and "to take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the [custody or visitation] order," as well as assist in enforcement of the custody or visitation order or other order of the court by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceeding.[150] "Good cause" cases are still a type of child abduction case district attorneys are required to investigate under the state's mandate, as they involve a person depriving another of their lawful custody or visitation as described in Family Code section 3131, but for which there is a lawfully excused reason justifying it. The District Attorney is still mandated by the state to take all actions necessary to locate the parties and procure compliance with court orders, which necessarily involves evaluating the validity of any "good cause" claims raised. The Parameters and Guidelines state "Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…" Sometimes actively assisting in resolving these disputes and in locating and returning the child results in the district attorney determining the alleged offender has good cause and is compliant with Penal Code 278.7.[151] Good cause cases are still cases of child abduction as defined by Penal Code section 278.5, just ones in which there is a lawfully excused justification according to Penal Code section 278.7. The costs should therefore be allowable because they fall within mandated activities.

The Controller did not find this argument convincing, stating again that "the costs do not 'fall within the mandated activities,' because activities for PC 278.7 are not identified in the parameters and guidelines."[152] In its conclusion, the Controller noted that, during the audit, the claimant identified several cases that had been misidentified as "good cause" cases that later turned out to be child abduction cases after all.[153] The Controller allowed reimbursement for time spent on mandated activities for the misidentified cases, but all other "good cause" cases verified by the claimant were disallowed.[154]

2. Reduction of Materials and Supplies

The claimant claimed a total of $260,652 in materials and supplies costs during the audit period.[155] The Controller found that the claimant overstated materials and supplies, finding $43,632 of these costs to be allowable and $217,020 of these costs to be unallowable.[156] The costs were unallowable because the costs were allocated to STOP, rather than actual costs for the mandated program supported by source documents.[157] The claimant had a methodology for allocating materials and supplies costs incurred by STOP directly to the mandated program, which involved calculating the ratio of child abduction-related salaries and benefits to STOP's total salaries and benefits, and then applying the applicable percentage to STOP's material and benefits costs.[158] These are not actual costs supported by source documentation.

In response, the claimant characterized the Controller as imposing additional requirements and limitations to claim costs directly attributable to a particular case in order to be reimbursable.[159] The Parameters and Guidelines permit cost allocation and allow for determining actual cost based on time records, time logs, and worksheets.[160] Using the percentage of time employees worked on mandated activities to determine the actual costs of materials and supplies for the mandate is a reasonable methodology for cost allocation. To further demonstrate this method's validity, the claimant provided an alternative cost allocation worksheet based on productive hourly rates and actual hours worked, which would have resulted in costs of $222,966 after backing out the unallowed SD time, a difference of only $5,946 compared to the methodology used.[161] The claimant asserted this shows its methodology was comparably accurate and reasonable.

The Controller was not convinced, stating again that it is not arguing that each cost must be directly attributable to a particular case, but that claimed costs must be actual costs for the reimbursable state-mandated program. The claimant claimed both direct and allocated materials and supplies costs. When asked for source documentation, the claimant provided case files to support the direct materials supplies costs, which the Controller found to be acceptable.[162] However, the claimant used its own methodology for allocating a percentage of the materials and supplies costs incurred by STOP as a whole to CAR, and then claimed these allocated costs as direct costs attributable to CAR. Additionally, the claimant did not provide source documentation for these costs, as required by the Parameters and Guidelines. It only provided cost allocation reports.[163] The Controller asserted the claimant can only claim actual costs for the reimbursable state-mandated program, which must be supported by source documents. Cost allocation reports are corroborating documents, not source documents, and therefore, the audit report concluded the allocated materials and supplies costs which were only supported with cost allocation reports have not been properly supported and are unallowable.

III. Positions of the Parties

A. County of Sacramento

The claimant in its IRC disputes all of the audit's reductions related to the reduction of salaries and benefits (SD time, "good cause" cases), and overstated materials and supplies costs. Most of the claimant's arguments in the Written Narrative are identical to the ones it raised against the audit's initial findings, discussed above, with slight variations that reflect changes caused by the context changing from discussing the audit's findings directly with the auditor to explaining those findings to the Commission.

The claimant's IRC expands the explanation for how it handles "good cause" cases. The claimant explains that these cases are all initially classified as child abduction cases under Penal Code section 278.5, and it's only after the investigation finds all required elements for Penal Code section 278.7 have been met that the case is marked as a "good cause" case. Once that happens, the District Attorney's Office stops billing the state for any additional time spent on the case. The claimant states as follows:

> Penal Code section 278.7 provides that section 278.5 does not apply if three criteria are met. First, the person must make a report within a reasonable time frame to the office of the district attorney of the county where the child resided before the action. Second, the person must commence within a reasonable time a custody proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction consistent with the federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act or the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act. Third, the person must inform the district attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number of the person and the child. Until all three criteria are met, the person is still considered to fall under the provisions of section 278.5, for which all costs are reimbursable per the program's parameters and guidelines. This is the practice that the DA's Office has followed: once these criteria are met, the DA's Office marks the case as a "Good Cause" and stops billing time.[164]

Additionally, for the materials and supplies costs, the claimant provides additional information identifying some of the specific things that were included in the allocated materials and supplies costs and describes the documentation that was provided to support those costs. According to the claimant:

> Included in materials and supplies is State Unemployment Insurance (UI), Workers Compensation, and employee pension obligations. The UI program is mandated in accordance with federal law, the California UI Code and the California Code of Regulations, Title 22. All California employers must provide workers' compensation benefits to their employees under California labor Code Section 3700. Sacramento County is one of 20 counties which created and operated pension systems under the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937. All three of these employee costs are calculated and distributed through the County's Allocated Cost Package (ACP) and specifically excluded from the Productive Hour Rates provided by the Department of Finance. In the Audit Report under Finding 2 it is noted, "These costs are unallowable because the county claimed costs that were allocated to the State Targeted Offenders Unit, rather than actual cost supported by source documentation." [citation omitted] The County does allocate the above reference costs because Sacramento County self-insures these mandated payroll costs, which is cheaper for the County and ultimately cheaper for the program.

The auditors determined, "The costs are unallowable because the county did not claim actual costs supported by source documentation." [citation omitted] The general ledger of actual cost for STOP with cost calculations was provided to the auditors as requested by the California State Controller in the January 14, 2021, Sacramento County Engagement Letter. All material provided to the auditors followed the language from Section V of the Parameters and Guidelines. The general ledger only included actual cost, supported by time records, invoices, and receipts. All accounting and worksheets show the validity of such cost, are traceable and were created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred.[165]

The claimant submits the following supporting documents with the IRC:

- Declarations from John Black, Administrative & Financial Services Chief for Sacramento County District Attorney's Office, declaring the authenticity of the STOP Billing Detail Reports; COMPASS Account Journals; and Sacramento County OMB A-87 Cost Allocation Plans for Fiscal Years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019.[166]
- STOP Billing Detail Reports for Fiscal Years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019. The Billing Detail Reports list the salaries and benefits costs incurred by the Child Abduction program each fiscal year. These billing detail reports are organized by case number, with cost entries for each case sorted by the job title of the employee who incurred that cost. Each individual entry in the billing detail reports gives the employee's initials; the date the cost was incurred; time spent to the hundredths decimal place; the employee's hourly rate; resulting salary; the employee's benefit rate; resulting benefits cost; indirect cost rate; resulting indirect costs; a general description of the activity performed and the total cost. Examples of some of the descriptions used include but are not limited to "case meeting," "interview," "on site investigation," "supplemental investigation," "report preparation," "warrant preparation," and "file review." Many of the entries with descriptions such as "billing," "supervision," "general clerical," "general attorney," or "general investigation," are prefaced with the initials "PD" or "SD." Subtotals

- COMPASS Account Journals for Fiscal Years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019. The Account Journals list all costs for STOP for each fiscal year. Entries are sorted by comment number, and each entry gives the comment number; posting date; reference document number; product document number, if available; funds center identification number (which is always 5805812 — the identification number the claimant's COMPASS system uses for STOP, which was how the claimant identified the program's costs within its COMPASS system); a brief descriptor of the cost item; the cost of that entry; and an additional comment line for providing more information about the entry, if needed. Some entries, such as for worker's compensation insurance, state unemployment insurance liability, countywide IT services, and benefit administrative services include a note in the additional comments section marking it as an allocated cost. Subtotals are provided for each comment number, and the grand total for each fiscal year is provided at the end.[168] According to John Black's Declarations, these Account Journals reflect billings "associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program during this time period."[169]
- Excerpts from the Sacramento County OMB A-87 Cost Allocation Plans for Fiscal Years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019. Because the full Cost Allocation Plans are several hundred pages long, the claimant only provided the specific pages relevant to STOP.[170] These cost allocation plans list proposed allocated costs for each department, with entries for each type of possible allocated costs. The allocated costs categories listed are equipment use, CEO, shared systems, non-dept, civil services, personnel services, finance, regional parks, county counsel, and DRR. These allocated costs are then added together for the total costs, adjusted for any costs rolled forward and any other adjustments, and then the final sum of the proposed allocated costs for each department listed at the bottom of the equation.[171] According to John Black's declarations, the final sum given for the proposed allocated costs of STOP "shows the costs associated with the Child Abduction and Recovery Program during this time period."[172]

In its rebuttal comments, the claimant reasserts that the Controller's interpretation of the Parameters and Guidelines is overly narrow, as the Parameters and Guidelines allow for reimbursement of both direct and indirect costs, and permit the use of both cost allocation reports and corroborating documentation to support costs.[173] The claimant claims that the Parameters and Guidelines do not require all costs to be tied to individual staff working exclusively on CAR tasks, but instead require the claimed costs to be attributable to the operation of the reimbursable mandate, and that SD time represents administrative and operational work that is essential to the infrastructure that allows it to carry out mandated activities.[174] The claimant also argues that the Controller's reliance on a previous IRC decision is misapplied, as that case involved estimated averages and time studies created after the fact without contemporaneous source documentation, whereas here, costs were incurred, tracked, and allocated in real time.[175]

The claimant further argues the Controller's interpretation of the Parameters and Guidelines with respect to "good cause" cases is also overly narrow, as reimbursable activities include "All actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding" and "complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5," and only exclude "Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5."[176] These costs were technically incurred under Penal Code sections 278/278.5, as the claimant only reclassifies cases under 278.7 after a thorough assessment to confirm the defendant meets all required elements, and 278.7 does not operate independently but rather modifies or provides context to 278/278.5.[177]

Finally, the claimant continues to assert that the cost allocation methodology used for its materials and supplies costs is compliant with the Parameters and Guidelines, and that the allocated costs were properly claimed as direct costs because they were "directly supportive of CAR-mandated work."[178] The Parameters and Guidelines explicitly permit reimbursement for items such as communication devices and office equipment, provided they are used for the mandate and consumed specifically for the purpose of this mandate; the claimant asserts its cost allocation methodology achieves exactly that by identifying "the proportion of consumption attributable to CAR-related activities."[179]

B. State Controller's Office

The Controller, in its comments on the IRC, asserts it found the denied costs unallowable "primarily because the County did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities and did not claim actual costs supported by source documentation."[180] For SD time, the Controller stresses that, per the claimant's own definitions, SD time is an allocated cost and is not specific to the CAR program.[181] Although the claimant may have determined consolidating supervisory, clerical, and other general costs to be the most efficient way of operating the program, claimed costs must comply with the program's Parameters and Guidelines, and SD time cannot be traced to the program's reimbursable state-mandated activities. The Controller is unable to determine the validity of the costs of non-program specific activities and their relationship to reimbursable activities.[182] The Controller cites to a previous IRC which dealt with a similar issue, Carlsbad Unified School District's implementation of the Stull Act program (The Stull Act, 14-9825-I-02). In that Decision, the Commission found that it was correct as a matter of law, and not arbitrary or capricious for the Controller to completely reduce claimed costs to zero when its audit found that the claimant did not establish the relationship between claimed costs and the reimbursable activities using proper source documentation.[183] The billing detail reports reviewed during the audit did not describe the mandated functions performed or specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, as required by the Parameters and Guidelines.[184] During the audit at issue here, the Controller was able to verify the validity of costs for activities performed directly on cases by reviewing case files to verify the time spent, when it occurred, and the relationship to reimbursable activities.[185] The billing detail reports show SD time based on allocated hours, but actual costs must be supported by source documents, and worksheets and system generated cost allocation reports are specific examples of corroborating documents, which can be used to support source documents but cannot be substituted for source documents themselves.[186] The claimant's assertion that including both direct and indirect costs suggests "a range of related activities, even if not tied to a specific case, may be considered reimbursable if they are essential to fulfilling the mandated program activities," is incorrect. The Parameters and Guidelines outline a list of specific reimbursable activities, and do not "suggest" a range of mandated activities or allow consideration of "essential" mandated activities as reimbursable.[187] Claimed costs for this program must be actual costs, and the actual number of hours must be linked to mandated activities. The Controller also cites to another previous IRC, this one regarding the CAR program, to support that to claim salaries and benefits incurred by this mandated program, the claimant's source documentation must show the actual number of hours worked on mandated activities, as required by the Parameters and Guidelines (Child Abduction and Recovery, 08-4237-I-02 and 12-4237-I-03).[188] The claimant suggests reimbursement should also include additional activities it deems to be "essential to fulfilling the mandated program activities." The Controller states this would be an expansion of the reimbursable activities and the claimant should request an amendment to the Parameters and Guidelines if it feels these activities should be included as reimbursable activities.[189]

Regarding "good cause" cases, the Controller reiterates these costs do not "fall within the mandated activities," because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities for Penal Code section 278.7. The Controller notes that during the audit, the claimant provided a list of cases that had been misidentified as "good cause" cases that turned out to be child abduction cases after all, which caused the auditor to segregate the misidentified cases and review them separately; all other "good cause" cases identified by the claimant were denied.[190] The Parameters and Guidelines incorporate Penal Code section 278 and 278.5, which were amended by Chapter 988, Statutes of 1996. This same statute added Penal Code section 278.7, however it was not added to the Parameters and Guidelines. The Controller concludes, "PC 278.7 was never part of the Ps and Gs. Therefore, costs associated with PC 278.7 are not reimbursable."[191]

Finally, the Controller disagrees with the claimant that the allocation methodology it used for its overstated materials and supplies costs was a reasonable approach to capture the actual costs associated with the program.[192] The claimant claimed both direct and allocated materials and supplies costs. The direct materials and supplies costs were supported with case files and expense reports as well as invoices and receipts, and the Controller found these costs to be allowable.[193] For the allocated costs, the claimant developed a methodology for allocating a percentage of the materials and supplies costs incurred by STOP and tried to claim these as direct costs applicable to CAR.[194] These costs were allocated across all programs within STOP, but were claimed as direct costs attributable to the mandated program. The Parameters and Guidelines require that when claiming direct costs for materials and supplies, the claimant is required to "list the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate."[195] The claimant never identifies how the allocated costs were consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate, the auditors were therefore unable to determine how the allocated costs were "a direct cost of the mandate."[196] Additionally, the large non-direct pool of allocated costs was for the STOP unit collectively, and the CAR program is only part of this unit, among other programs.[197] "The county calculated the ratio of the State Targeted Offenders Unit's program-related salaries and benefits to the units total salaries and benefits," and then applied that percentage to STOP's materials and supplies costs to allocate those costs to the CAR program.[198]

As noted above, in prior IRC Decisions, the Commission found that when a claimant fails to comply with the Parameters and Guidelines, the Controller has the ability to reduce the claim — and by extension, individual claim components — to zero. For the claimed allocated costs, the claimant did not list the costs of materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purpose of the mandate.[199] The audit found that $465,094 of the claimant's claimed costs during the audit period were unallowable because the claimant did not claim actual time spent on mandated activities and did not claim actual costs supported by source documentation. The Controller requests that the Commission find that the Controller correctly reduced the claimant's claims for fiscal years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019.[200] time as "time spent working on non-program specific activities for the unit as a whole"; the Commission's Decision in Carlsbad Unified School District's Incorrect Reduction Claim regarding the Stull Act (14-9825-I-02), the Commission's Decision in County of Santa Clara's Incorrect Reduction Claim regarding the Child Abduction and Recovery program (08-4237-I-02 and 12-4237-I-03); Penal Code section 278.7; and an email correspondence dated August 27, 2021, between the auditor and a representative of the claimant in which the claimant's representative identified the "good cause" cases which "may have been reported to our office as good cause cases, but turned out to be child abduction cases after all."[203]

IV. Discussion

Government Code section 17561(d) authorizes the Controller to audit the claims filed by local agencies and school districts and to reduce any claim for reimbursement of state-mandated costs if the Controller determines that the claim is excessive or unreasonable.

Government Code section 17551(d) requires the Commission to hear and decide a claim that the Controller has incorrectly reduced payments to the local agency or school district. If the Commission determines that a reimbursement claim has been incorrectly reduced, section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations requires the Commission to send the decision to the Controller and request that the costs in the claim be reinstated.

The Commission must review questions of law, including interpretation of the parameters and guidelines, de novo, without consideration of legal conclusions made by the Controller in the context of an audit. The Commission is vested with exclusive authority to adjudicate disputes over the existence of state-mandated programs within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution.[204] The Commission must also interpret the Government Code and implementing regulations in accordance with the broader constitutional and statutory scheme. In making its decisions, the Commission must strictly construe article XIII B, section 6 and not apply it as an "equitable remedy to cure the perceived unfairness resulting from political decisions on funding priorities."[205] is similar to the standard used by the courts when reviewing an alleged abuse of discretion of a state agency.[206] Under this standard, the courts have found:

> When reviewing the exercise of discretion, "[t]he scope of review is limited, out of deference to the agency's authority and presumed expertise: 'The court may not reweigh the evidence or substitute its judgement for that of the agency. [Citation.]'" … "In general … the inquiry is limited to whether the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or entirely lacking in evidentiary support…." [Citations.] When making that inquiry, the " ' "court must ensure that an agency has adequately considered all relevant factors, and has demonstrated a rational connection between those factors, the choice made, and the purposes of the enabling statute." [Citation.]' "[207]

The Commission must review the Controller's audit in light of the fact that the initial burden of providing evidence for a claim of reimbursement lies with the claimant.[208] In addition, sections 1185.1(f)(3) and 1185.2(d) and (e) of the Commission's regulations require that any assertions of fact by the parties to an IRC must be supported by documentary evidence. The Commission's ultimate findings of fact must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.[209]

A. The Claimant Timely Filed this IRC Within Three Years from the Date the Claimant First Received from the Controller a Final State Audit Report, Letter, or Other Written Notice of Adjustment to a Reimbursement Claim, which Complies with Government Code Section 17558.5(c).

Government Code section 17558.7(a) states: "If the Controller reduces a claim approved by the commission, the claimant may file with the commission an incorrect reduction claim pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission." Section 1185.1(c) of the Commission's regulations requires an IRC to be filed no later than three years after the date the claimant receives a final state audit report, letter, or other written notice of adjustment to a reimbursement claim, which complies with Government Code section 17558.5(c). Under Government Code section 17558.5(c), the Controller is required to notify the claimant in writing within 30 days after issuance of a remittance advice of any adjustment to a reimbursement claim resulting from an audit or review.

The notice must specify which claim components were adjusted and in what amount, as well as interest charges, and the reason for the adjustment.[210]

Here, the final audit report was issued on February 23, 2022.[211] The audit report specifies the claim components and amounts adjusted, as well as the reasons for the adjustments, and therefore complies with the section 17558.5(c) notice requirements.[212] The IRC was filed on November 25, 2024.[213] This is within three years of issuing the final audit report, meaning the IRC was timely filed.

B. The Controller's Reduction of Salaries and Benefits Costs Based on SD Time and Reduction of Materials and Supplies Costs Are Correct as a Matter of Law.

1. The Reduction of Salaries and Benefits for the $154,127 in Direct Costs and any Related Indirect Costs Based on Standard Distributed Time ("SD Time") Is Correct as a Matter of Law, because SD Time Is for "Non-Program Specific" Activities and Does Not Represent the Claimant's Actual, Direct Costs to Implement the Mandated Program.

Government Code section 17564(b) states that reimbursement claims filed with the Controller shall be filed in the manner prescribed in the Parameters and Guidelines. The Parameters and Guidelines for a state-mandated program are regulatory in nature and are binding on the parties, and the interpretation of the Parameters and Guidelines is a question of law.[214]

In this case, when claiming direct costs for salary and employees' benefits, Section VII.A.1. of the Parameters and Guidelines state claimants must:

> Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.[215]

[215] Exhibit A, IRC, page 1894 (2009 Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines, section VII.A.1.).

The claimant argues that rejecting SD time because it is non-program specific and costs must be directly related to the program is inconsistent with the Parameters and Guidelines, because the Parameters and Guidelines allow reimbursement for both direct and indirect costs.[216]

It is true that the Parameters and Guidelines allow reimbursement for both direct and indirect costs, but the claimant claimed SD time as a direct cost, not an indirect cost. Direct costs are "costs that can be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions" of the state-mandated program.[217] When claiming direct costs for salary and employees' benefits, Section VII.A.1. of the Parameters and Guidelines expressly requires the claimant to "identify the employees, show their classification, and describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function."

As admitted by the claimant, however, the employees who provided support to STOP as a whole — performing activities for the benefit of the entire unit such as clerical, supervisory, and billing — recorded their time generally as Standard Distributed, or SD time, and the claimant then allocated this time among the cases worked each month based on FTE percentages. According to the definition the claimant provided during the audit:

> This is time spent working on non-program specific activities for the [STOP] unit as a whole. For example, a clerical person performs the mail run which takes 2.0 hours. They enter this as 2.0 hours general clerical and charge it to the whole unit. If we only worked on 4 cases that month, (1 Child Abduction, 1 SVP, 1 Prisons and 1 WF), each case in the month would get the 2.0 hours spread based on the FTE percentage for each unit.[218]

By the claimant's own definition, SD time is time spent on "non-program specific activities." Time spent on non-program specific activities does not satisfy the requirement in the Parameters and Guidelines to "specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function" of the state-mandated program. Moreover, SD time cannot be traced to specific goods, services, units, programs, activities, or functions of the mandated program because it is time spent on activities for the benefit of the STOP unit in general, not the mandated CAR program specifically. Using a cost allocation methodology does not fix this problem, because all the cost allocation does is determine the CAR program's fair share of the costs of these activities that it jointly benefitted from, and still does not trace the costs to goods, services, etc., of the CAR program specifically. It is therefore incorrect to claim it as a direct cost of the program.

Even assuming the claimant's SD time could be considered a direct cost of the program, the claimant did not support its actual costs with proper source documentation. Section V. of the Parameters and Guidelines states:

> To be eligible for mandated cost reimbursement for any fiscal year, only actual costs may be claimed. Actual costs are those costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities. Actual costs must be traceable and supported by source documents that show the validity of such costs, when they were incurred, and their relationship to the reimbursable activities. A source document is a document created at or near the same time the actual cost was incurred for the event or activity in question. Source documents may include, but are not limited to, employee time records or time logs, sign-in sheets, invoices, and receipts.
> Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated), purchase orders, contracts, agendas, training packets, and declarations. Declarations must include a certification or declaration stating, "I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct based upon personal knowledge." Evidence corroborating the source documents may include data relevant to the reimbursable activities otherwise in compliance with local, state, and federal government requirements. However, corroborating documents cannot be substituted for source documents.[219]

Thus, only the costs actually incurred to implement the mandated activities can be claimed for reimbursement, and these costs must be traceable and supported by contemporaneous source documents. Corroborating documents can be used to support source documents by providing additional context to the source documents, but they are not a substitute for the source documents themselves.

The claimant argues its billing detail reports met these requirements because it allocated SD time to the mandated program using employee time records that were created contemporaneously and used a widely accepted cost methodology.[220] To claim salaries and employees' benefits as a direct cost pursuant to the Parameters and Guidelines, the claimant needs to be able to provide source documents that show the employees' name and their job classification, the mandated activities performed, and the actual time spent on each activity, the hourly rate, and the related benefit.[221] The claimant's billing detail reports provide employee initials, job classifications, the number of hours spent on an activity, their hourly rates, and a brief description of the activity. In the case of the claimant's SD time entries, these entries had descriptions such as "supervision," "billing," "general clerical," and "general attorney."[222] However, the SD time entries in the billing detail reports represent each case's allocated share of the time spent on non-program specific activities, after these costs were allocated.

The claimant argues that the Parameters and Guidelines allow the use of time records and time logs as source documentation.[223] However the billing detail reports are not time records or time logs for claimant's SD time; they are records of how costs for SD time were allocated to each case within the program. In other words, they are cost allocation reports. The claimant asserts that it used "time records, time logs, and worksheets generated by employees detailing the time they worked on Child Abduction and Recovery activities, and then used cost allocation to determine the full-time equivalent percentage of those expenses attributable to that particular program," but the claimant did not provide any of these documents to support the costs.[224] Although the Parameters and Guidelines allow claimants to use the average number of hours devoted to each function when supported with a documented time study, a documented time study was not provided and using a cost allocation methodology to determine this program's share of non-program specific costs is not the same thing as performing a time study.[225]

According to the Parameters and Guidelines, cost allocation reports are not source documents, they are corroborating documents ("Evidence corroborating the source documents may include, but is not limited to, worksheets, cost allocation reports (system generated) . . . "). Allocated time is not a substitute for the actual time spent on an activity because there is no way to be certain that the claimant's allocation methodology results in an accurate representation of the actual time spent on the mandated CAR Program. The claimant may presume this to be an irrelevant detail, as its STOP unit only handles state mandated programs, and thus all time spent on non-program specific activities for STOP would be reimbursed by the state in the end, regardless of whether its allocation methodology distributed hours accurately to each program. However, the Parameters and Guidelines still require claimants to report the actual number of hours spent on the reimbursable activity for this program when claiming employee salaries and benefits as a direct cost.

Costs which cannot be directly attributed to the program because they are not solely for the benefit of one program are more properly reimbursed as indirect costs. Indirect costs are "costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved," and specific examples of indirect costs listed in the Parameters and Guidelines include the overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate and the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.[226] This description fits the claimant's "non-program specific" SD time perfectly. To claim indirect costs, claimants utilize the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87, and they have the option of either using 10% of direct labor costs or submitting an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal with their reimbursement claim if their indirect costs exceed 10%.[227] The claimant did in fact claim and receive indirect costs using an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal for all three audit years, which calculated indirect costs based on a percentage of the claimed direct salaries and benefits costs at a rate between 31.58 and 34.98 percent each year.[228] By claiming its costs from non-program specific activities as direct costs, the claimant also increased the indirect costs it received according to its indirect cost rate as a result. Using cost allocation methods to determine a program's share of overhead expenses, such as time spent on non-program specific administrative tasks for the benefit of the unit as a whole, does not change those costs from indirect to direct costs. The costs of the claimant's non-program specific activities should have more properly been factored into the claimant's Indirect Cost Rate Proposal and claimed as an indirect cost.

Here, the claimant claimed time spent on non-program specific activities as a direct cost of the program and did not support these activities with contemporaneous source documentation that showed the actual time spent on these activities for the program specifically, but only provided corroborating documentation of how it allocated costs to CAR for its share of costs incurred by the whole STOP unit. This does not comply with the Parameters and Guidelines requirements for claiming actual direct costs for reimbursement.

Accordingly, the Controller's reduction of costs for salaries and benefits based on allocated time is correct as a matter of law because time allocation does not specify the actual number of hours employees devoted to each function for this program specifically, as required by Section VII.A.1. of the Parameters and Guidelines.

2. The Reduction of the Costs for Materials and Supplies Is Correct as a Matter of Law, Because Allocated Costs for Materials and Supplies Do Not Comply with the Parameters and Guidelines.

Regarding the claimant's overstated materials and supplies costs, the issue here is fairly similar to the issue with SD time, in that both involve the claimant using cost allocation methods to determine what it believes is CAR's fair share of costs that were incurred by the STOP unit as a whole, and then claiming those costs as a direct cost incurred by the program itself.

Section VII.A.3. of the Parameters and Guidelines state the requirements for when claiming direct costs for materials and supplies:

> Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied.[229]

Thus, the Parameters and Guidelines require the claimant to list the actual cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the mandated program.

The claimant's reimbursement claims included documentation of the method it used to calculate CAR's allocated share of STOP's materials and supplies costs (listed in its system as services and supplies).[230] The claimant calculated its materials and supplies costs for the program by taking the total services and supplies costs (Object 20 in the claimant's accounting journal) incurred by STOP in the given year, excluding costs for business/conference expenditures, business travel, education/training, employee transportation, transportation of persons, and any direct costs incurred by CAR, and added that to STOP's costs for Intrafund transfers (Object 60 in the claimant's accounting journal), state unemployment insurance, workers' compensation, pension obligation bond debt, pension obligation bond debt services, and STOP's share of the county's OMB A-87 cost allocation plan, and considered this total STOP's pro-rated non-travel and training costs.[231] Many of these costs were themselves allocated to STOP using undisclosed methodologies.[232] The claimant then took the salaries and benefits direct costs it claimed for CAR that year and divided it by the total salaries and benefits costs incurred by STOP as a whole, and used this to determine a percentage of STOP's costs that it can attribute to CAR. It then applied that percentage to STOP's pro-rated non-travel and training costs and added that amount to CAR's direct costs to find the total non-travel and training CAR costs to be reported as direct costs for CAR "Services and Supplies."[233]

The claimant's services and supplies costs therefore consist of a mix of both costs directly incurred by the program and costs that were incurred by STOP as a whole, of which a portion was then allocated to CAR using a cost allocation methodology based on the percentage of STOP's salaries and benefits costs it reported as direct costs of CAR.

The Controller found that the claimant's direct material and supply costs were properly supported with case files and invoices which showed the direct costs consumed specifically for the purpose of the mandate, and therefore found these costs to be allowable; while the claimant's allocated costs were not supported with source documentation, and therefore these costs were reduced to zero.[234]

The claimant argues that using a cost allocation methodology is permissible under the Parameters and Guidelines, because Section V. allows for reimbursement of both direct and indirect costs of materials and supplies; evidence corroborating source documentation may include cost allocation reports, time logs, and worksheets; and its cost allocation methodology relied on time-tracked data of billable hours for employees complying with the CAR program-related activities.[235]

Although the Parameters and Guidelines do allow reimbursement for both direct and indirect costs, the claimant claimed all of its materials and supplies costs — including its allocated costs — as direct costs, not indirect costs.[236] As discussed above, the Parameters and Guidelines lay out a separate procedure for claiming indirect costs, which involves either using ten percent of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or submitting an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal.[237] Additionally, the Parameters and Guidelines define cost allocation reports as corroborating documents, not source documents. The documentation of claimant's cost allocation methodology is a cost allocation report, making it a corroborating document. Some of the items recorded in the accounting journals are themselves costs that were allocated to the claimant's STOP unit, without any source documentation to support them.[238] And unlike the materials and supplies costs that the claimant asserted were directly consumed by the CAR program, and which were supported with case files and records that showed how exactly these materials and supplies were consumed specifically for the purpose of this mandate, and with invoices and receipts that supported their costs, no documentation provided supports that the allocated costs were consumed specifically for the purpose of the CAR program.

In Fiscal Year 2018-2019, the claimant claimed its services and supplies costs as Contract Services instead of Materials and Supplies. The Controller noted this to be an error during its audit (see Exhibit A, IRC, page 1915 (Final Audit Report, Footnote C).).

[238] For example, the entries in claimant's accounting journals for liability insurance, countywide IT services, facility use, and employee benefits include a comment noting it to be an allocated cost. See Exhibit A, IRC, pages 513, 519, 522, and 523 (COMPASS Accounting Journal, fiscal year 2016-2017); 1166, 1172, and 1176 (COMPASS Accounting Journal, fiscal year 2017-2018); and 1870, 1871, 1878, and 1883 (COMPASS Accounting Journal, fiscal year 2018-2019). Additionally, the OMB A-87 Cost Allocation Plan shows STOP's allocated share of some county-wide costs. Exhibit A, IRC, pages 525 (Excerpt from the Sacramento County OMB A-87 Cost Allocation Plan, Fiscal Year 2016-2017), 1179 (Excerpt from the Sacramento County OMB A-87 Cost Allocation Plan, Fiscal Year 2017-2018), and 1885 (Excerpt from the Sacramento County OMB A-87 Cost Allocation Plan, Fiscal Year 2018-2019).

The claimant asserts that it was proper to claim allocated costs as a direct cost because the purpose and use of those resources were "directly supportive of CAR's state-mandated work," and that its cost allocation methodology identifies the proportion of consumption that can be attributed to CAR's activities.[239] However, using cost allocation methodologies does not change an indirect cost into a direct one, because allocated costs do not show those costs were for "materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate."[240] The services and supplies costs listed in the claimant's accounting journals include entries for a broad range of supplies and services such as books, membership dues, office supplies, postal service, cellphones, legal services, data processing services, interpretation services, and witness fees, just to name a few.[241] While it's a reasonable assumption that CAR consumed some of these materials and may have benefitted in a broad sense by having them available, there is no guarantee the claimant's cost allocation methodology resulted in an accurate assessment of what the CAR program consumed specifically to comply with the mandate. Furthermore, there is no evidence that the claimant's methodology for determining STOP's pro-rated non-travel and training costs made any efforts to exclude the costs of materials and supplies consumed specifically by the other state reimbursable programs served by STOP, meaning CAR may have been allocated a share of the costs directly incurred by other programs.

The allocated costs for materials and supplies were claimed as direct costs, but the documentation provided to support the allocated costs does not show the allocated materials and supplies costs were consumed specifically for the purpose of the mandate. Therefore, the claimant's direct costs for materials and supplies are not adequately supported with contemporaneous source documents that support the claimant's actual costs to implement the mandated program. The claimant's claim therefore did not comply with the Parameters and Guidelines and the Controller's reduction is correct as a matter of law.

C. Reduction of Salaries and Benefits for the $32,276 in Direct Costs and any Related Indirect Costs for "Good Cause" Cases Is Incorrect as a Matter of Law. District Attorneys Are Obligated by the Parameters and Guidelines to Obtain Compliance with Court Orders Relating to Child Custody or Visitation Proceedings; Determining that the Offender Has Good Cause and Is Compliant with the Requirements in Penal Code Section 278.7 Is One Possible Resolution. Therefore, the Difference of $32,276, Plus Related Indirect Costs, Has Been Incorrectly Reduced and Should Be Reinstated to the Claimant.

The Controller denied $32,276 of the claimant's salaries and benefits costs that were attributed to time spent on activities related to "good cause" cases (now identified in Penal Code section 278.7), because the Parameters and Guidelines do not identify activities related to Penal Code section 278.7 as a reimbursable cost.[242] The Controller states that Penal Code section 278.7 was added by the 1996 legislation, which also amended Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5. Sections 278 and 278.5, as amended in 1996, were incorporated into the current Parameters and Guidelines.[243] Because these two sections were incorporated into the Parameters and Guidelines, but Penal Code section 278.7 was not, the Controller reasoned that no costs claimed under section 278.7 are reimbursable. The Controller then ends its analysis by noting that during the audit, the claimant identified several cases that were originally identified as "good cause" cases that later turned out to be child abduction cases after all; the Controller therefore allowed reimbursement for time spent on mandated activities for the mis-identified cases.[244]

The Commission finds that the Controller's interpretation of the Parameters and Guidelines applicability to "good cause" cases is incorrect as a matter of law.

The Parameters and Guidelines define the scope of the mandate as follows:

> Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Family Code Sections 3130 to 3134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.[245]

The Parameters and Guidelines authorize reimbursement for "obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of custody or visitation orders, and "utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance," which includes the preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.[246]

The only non-reimbursable costs are those "associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code, wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency."[247]

Thus, under the Parameters and Guidelines, and as further explained below, all activities performed by district attorney offices in these cases relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of those proceedings pursuant to Family Code sections 3130 to 3134.5, including the use of any appropriate criminal court action to secure compliance, is eligible for reimbursement until the defendant's first appearance in court for allegations that the defendant committed the crimes in sections 278 and 278.5.

Although the Controller argues that since Penal Code section 278.7 is not expressly identified in the Parameters and Guidelines the costs associated with section 287.7 are not eligible for reimbursement, Penal Code sections 278, 278.5, and 278.7 simply put the reimbursable activities, which are mandated by Family Code sections 3130 and 3131, into context and define the scope of the mandate. The Penal Code sections themselves do not impose any state-mandated activities on the county.

Specifically, Family Code section 3130 requires that when a petition to determine custody has been filed with the courts or a temporary custody order has been entered pending a determination of custody, and the whereabouts of the party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, "the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for the purposes of adjudication of custody."[248] Family Code section 3131 requires that if a custody or visitation order has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, "the district attorney shall take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order and to assist in the enforcement of the custody or visitation order by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceedings."[249] These code sections and their predecessors are what created the state mandate approved by the Board of Control, which, as the Parameters and Guidelines state "require district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and any other order of the court [both civil and criminal] in a child custody proceeding."[250]

Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 establish the crimes for maliciously taking or concealing a child in cases where the defendant has or does not have a right to custody. And, pursuant to the plain language of the Parameters and Guidelines, all costs to obtain compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of those orders, and utilizing any appropriate criminal court action to secure compliance are eligible for reimbursement *up to the point of the "defendant's first appearance i*n a California Court, for offenses defined in Sections 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code."[251] Any costs incurred by the district attorney's office after the defendant's direct appearance in court on those crimes is not reimbursable.

If the facts establish that the defendant acted with "good cause" when taking or concealing the child pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7, the defendant will not be guilty of the crime in section 278.5. As the court determined, the criminal intent or malice requirement in Penal Code section 278.5 and the good faith defense in section 278.7 are intertwined.[252] Thus, facts or circumstances addressing any "good cause" element in these proceedings have to be addressed by the district attorney's office in order to comply with the mandate to "actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation." In this respect, the claimant explains the way in which investigation into an alleged claim of child abduction intermingles with investigation into whether the elements of a "good cause" defense under section 278.7 are met as follows:

> Child abduction cases take many different forms, oftentimes evolving as an investigation unfolds. Complaints of a child abduction are received and reviewed by DA staff. It is not uncommon that while investigating a complaint, the DA's Office will be contacted by the alleged offender with a "Good Cause" claim pursuant to Penal Code section 278.7 that the person has a good faith and reasonable belief that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or physical harm. Furthermore, frequently the DA's Office will receive multiple complaints regarding the same child or children and involved parties, which may relate back to a

The Legislature created the Child Abduction and Recovery Mandate by statute in 1976. The code sections that set forth these provisions and the specific mandates were thereafter repealed and reissued with different section numbers. Former Civil Code section 4604 was reissued as Family Code sections 3130 and 3131. Family Code section 3130 provides that if a petition to determine custody of a child has been filed in court or a temporary order pending determination of custody has been entered, and the whereabouts of a party in possession of the child are not known or there is reason to believe that the party may not appear in the proceedings although ordered to appear personally with the child, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate the party and the child and to procure compliance with the order to appear with the child for purposes of adjudication of custody. Family Code section 3131 provides that if a custody or visitation order has been entered and the child is taken or detained by another person in violation of the order, District Attorneys are mandated to take all actions necessary to locate and return the child and the person who violated the order, as well as assist in enforcement of the custody or visitation order or other order of the court by use of an appropriate civil or criminal proceeding. Neither section provides for or mentions a “Good Cause” exception. Although such a claim may arise in the course of an investigation, District Attorneys are still mandated by statute to take all actions necessary in locating the parties and procuring compliance, which would necessarily involve an evaluation of any “Good Cause” claim that is made.

Furthermore, as previously noted, subsection A of section V in the Parameters and Guidelines provides, “Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody and visitation…” (emphasis added). Actively assisting in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems can involve and result in a “Good Cause” claim. All actions necessary in locating and returning a child can involve and result in a “Good Cause” claim. Thus, those costs should be allowable as they fall within mandated activities.

Part of investigating a potential criminal matter involves a determination of whether any particular defenses would excuse or justify the behavior, thus negating the possibility of successfully utilizing criminal proceedings to > prosecute the matter. Imagine the state mandated that DA's Offices investigate homicide cases under Penal Code section 187. However, Penal Code section 196 sets forth when a homicide may be justified, which includes homicides committed in self-defense. Using the same logic followed in the Audit Report, prosecutors would not be entitled to reimbursement for investigation for any homicide where the investigation led to a determination that the homicide was committed in self-defense because Penal Code section 196 is a different provision than section 187. However, it is still a homicide. Similarly, "Good Cause" cases are still a form of child abduction, where one person has deprived another of lawful custody or visitation, but for a lawfully excused reason.[253]

Furthermore, the claimant explains that all child abduction cases reported to it are initially classified under Penal Code section 278.5; it's only after the district attorney's investigation finds that a case meets all elements needed for section 278.7 that the case is reclassified, at which point it stops billing the state for any additional time spent on the case.[254]

District attorneys are thus obligated to investigate any cases of alleged child abduction or deprivation of custody reported to it according to the mandate imposed by Family Code section 3130 and 3131 to actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems. This mandate exists regardless of what the specific outcome of a given case may be. A determination that the defendant had "good cause" for taking or concealing the child and is compliant with requirements to report to the district attorney's office and initiate custody proceedings is one such possible resolution.

However, according to the Controller's reasoning, claimants are not entitled to reimbursement simply because the Parameters and Guidelines do not mention the code section which outlines the conditions under which "good cause" exists. The Controller even notes that it approved costs for some cases that were misclassified as "good cause" cases, thereby acknowledging that costs incurred would otherwise be reimbursable, but for the determination that the defendant had "good cause" under Penal Code section 278.7.[255] This is incorrect as a matter of law, as the costs incurred are pursuant to the state mandate imposed by Family Code sections 3130 to 3134.5, and are eligible for reimbursement until the defendant's first appearance in court for allegations that the defendant committed the crimes in sections 278 and 278.5.

Furthermore, the Controller is incorrect in its assertion that the good cause defense in Penal Code section 278.7 has never been part of the Parameters and Guidelines.[256] Although that specific code section as it exists today was never formally incorporated, its predecessor was incorporated and is still included in the Parameters and Guidelines today. As discussed in the background section above, prior to the 1996 statute, Penal Code section 277 provided for the "good cause" defense and stated that:

> In the absence of a court order determining rights of custody or visitation to a minor child, every person having a right of custody of the child who maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away that child within or without the state, without good cause, and with the intent to deprive the custody right of another person or a public agency also having a custody right to that child, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of one year and one day, a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or both.[257]

It also defined "good cause" to mean "a good faith belief that the taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away of the child is necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or emotional harm," which is the same definition used now in Penal Code section 278.7.[258] Prior to enacting current Penal Code section 278.7, the common law necessity defense also "require[d] the individual committing the crime to report to the proper authorities immediately after attaining a position of safety from the peril."[259] Thus, there was an existing practice that a person had a statutory and common law defense to maliciously taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away a child with the intent to deprive a person or agency of their right to custody, if the person had a right to custody of the child and had a good faith belief it was necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or emotional harm, and the person was expected to report to the proper authorities as part of the defense, just like with Penal Code section 278.7.

Penal Code section 277 was added in 1984, with the definition of "good cause" added in 1986.[260] This was after the enactment of the statute that created this state-mandated program. However, amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines expressly identified former section 277 alongside Penal Code sections 278 and 278.5 when defining costs associated with prosecuting a defendant for criminal offenses identified in those sections as non-reimbursable costs.[261] This shows that the expectation to consider whether a defendant had "good cause" existed as a reimbursable component in prior amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines and district attorneys were required and were eligible to claim reimbursement to determine what court actions (civil or criminal) would be most appropriate when actively assisting in the resolution of custody disputes at the time (i.e., costs that were not tied to the criminal prosecution of the defendant, which are not reimbursable).

At some point, Penal Code section 277 was also added to the list of statutes located in the Parameters and Guidelines' caption.[262] In 1996, the Legislature renumbered the Child Abduction chapter of the Penal Code, which merged former Penal Code sections 277 and 278.5 into the current Penal Code section 278.5; changed Penal Code section 277 to define terms used in the chapter; and added Penal Code section 278.7.[263] When the Parameters and Guidelines were amended in 1999 to reflect these changes, Penal Code section 277 was removed from the non-reimbursable costs section, but was not removed from the caption.[264]

Accordingly, although Penal Code section 278.7 is not mentioned in the current Parameters and Guidelines, the Penal Code section that was its predecessor is included, and has been since before the change in law, making the exclusion of "good cause" cases (up to the point of the defendant's first appearance in court on criminal charges) from the mandate incorrect as a matter of law. Thus, the $32,276 in direct costs for good cause cases, and any related indirect costs, has been incorrectly reduced.

V. Conclusion

Based on the forgoing analysis, the Commission partially approves this IRC and concludes that the Controller's reduction of $32,276 in salaries and benefits for time spent investigating "good cause" cases is incorrect as a matter of law. The Commission requests, pursuant to Government Code section 17551(d) and section 1185.9 of the Commission's regulations, that the Controller reinstate $32,276 to the claimant and any related indirect costs.

All other reductions are correct as a matter of law and the corresponding claims denied.

No changes are noted for Penal Code section 277, 278, and 278.5 in the caption.). This item was adopted on consent. (Exhibit X (4), Commission on State Mandates Minutes, August 26, 1999, page 7.)

Re: Written Comments on Draft Proposed Decision – Custody of Minors – Child Abduction and Recovery Program
Incorrect Reduction Claim: No. 24-4237-I-04
Fiscal Years 2016–2017, 2017–2018, and 2018–2019

Director Gmur and Commission Members:

On behalf of the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office, we respectfully submit these comments in response to the Draft Proposed Decision issued on January 30, 2026, regarding the above-referenced Incorrect Reduction Claim.

The Sacramento County District Attorney's Office agrees with staff's conclusion that the Controller's reduction of $32,276 in salaries and benefits associated with "good cause" cases was incorrect as a matter of law. As set forth in the Draft Proposed Decision, activities performed by district attorney offices pursuant to Family Code sections 3130 and 3131 require active assistance in resolving child custody and visitation matters, including the enforcement of custody and visitation orders through appropriate civil or criminal proceedings, up to the point of a defendant's first appearance in court for offenses defined in Penal Code sections 278 or 278.5. The Draft Proposed Decision correctly recognizes that Penal Code section 278.7 does not impose separate or distinct state-mandated activities, but instead defines and contextualizes the scope of the existing mandate. Accordingly, staff's recommendation to reinstate these costs is consistent with the Parameters and Guidelines and supported by the record.

With respect to the disallowance of shared costs, the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office respectfully acknowledges the framework applied in the Draft Proposed Decision, including the conclusion that only actual costs traceable to the Child Abduction and Recovery program and supported by contemporaneous source documentation are reimbursable under the Parameters and Guidelines, and that allocated unit-wide costs generally do not qualify as direct costs for this mandate. The Office also recognizes the distinction drawn between direct costs claimed for program-specific activities and costs recoverable, if at all, through established indirect cost procedures.

At the same time, our Office notes that OMB Circular A-87, which is referenced in the Parameters and Guidelines, was formally superseded and consolidated into 2 CFR Part 200 in 2014. While the Parameters and Guidelines continue to reference A-87, the successor guidance reflects the current articulation of the cost principles that replaced it. In particular, 2 CFR section 200.405(a)(2) recognizes that costs benefiting both a specific program and other work of an organization may be distributed using reasonable methods that approximate proportional benefit, and section 200.405(d) further provides that where precise proportions cannot be readily determined due to the interrelated nature of the work involved, costs may be allocated on any reasonable and documented basis. These principles reflect the operational reality that the Child Abduction and Recovery program is implemented in Sacramento County where a specialized unit performs multiple state-mandated functions and necessarily relies on shared personnel, equipment, and services to carry out reimbursable activities.

Within this context, the Office respectfully requests narrow reconsideration of the disallowance of certain shared costs to the extent contemporaneous employee time records and supporting documentation exist that identify actual hours devoted to Child Abduction and Recovery activities. Where such documentation supports the portion of shared labor, materials, or services attributable to reimbursable program activities, those costs represent actual costs incurred to implement the mandate, notwithstanding that the same resources also support other programs. This request is not intended to challenge the overall legal conclusions of the Draft Proposed Decision or to recharacterize unit-wide costs as direct costs without adequate support, but rather to allow limited reassessment of whether specific portions of the disallowed shared costs can be substantiated as actual, documented costs incurred in performing reimbursable Child Abduction and Recovery activities.

For these reasons, the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office supports the Draft Proposed Decision's allowance of costs associated with "good cause" cases and the recommendation to reinstate $32,276 plus related indirect costs. The Office respectfully requests, however, that the Commission reconsider the disallowance of shared costs where those costs can be supported by documentation demonstrating actual program-specific work and proportional benefit in implementing the state-mandated program.

Thank you for the opportunity to submit these comments and for your consideration of our position.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Blazina
Assistant District Attorney

County of Sacramento, Claimant

Dear Ms. Halsey:

The State Controller's Office has reviewed the Commission on State Mandates' draft proposed decision dated January 30, 2026, for the above incorrect reduction claim filed by the County of Sacramento. We agree with the Commission's conclusion related to the time spent investigating "good cause" cases, and will reinstate $32,276 (plus any related indirect costs) upon adoption of the Proposed Decision. We also agree with the Commission's conclusion that "all other reductions are correct as a matter of law."

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my personal knowledge, information, and belief.

If you have any questions, please contact me by telephone at (916) 327-3138 or by email at lkurokawa@sco.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Lisa Kurokawa

Dear Mr. Haas:

Amendments to the parameters and guidelines and/or State Controller's claiming instructions for the above-entitled mandated programs were adopted by the Commission on State Mandates at its February 22, 1990, hearing. The amended parameters and guidelines are enclosed. In addition, amendments to the claiming instructions for the above-entitled mandated programs should be made as follows:

1) Chapter 1357, Statutes of 1976

At "Reimbursement Limitations":

"Costs related to 'court operations' as defined in the Government Code Section 77003 are not reimbursable when the county opts into the Trial Court Funding Program pursuant to Section 77300. ~~Costs related to court appointed investigators and any costs for a jury trial shall not be claimed if the county is participating in the Trial Court Funding Program.~~ In light of Government Code Section 77003, the costs associated with court appointed investigators and any costs for a jury trial shall not be claimed if the county is participating in the Trial Court Funding Program. Pursuant to Section 77203, block grant disbursements to the county shall be in lieu of any reimbursement of state-mandated local programs for trial courts during those fiscal years in which it is a participant of the program. This provision does not apply to the first half of the 1988-89 fiscal year."

2) Chapter 991, Statutes of 1979

At "Reimbursement Limitations":

"Costs related to 'court operations' as defined in the Government Code Section 77003 are not reimbursable when the county opts into the Trial Court Funding Program pursuant to Section 77300. ~~Costs/of/trial/and/juror/fees/are/mandated/by/the/definition/of/'court/operations'/~~ In light of Government Code Section 77003, the cost of trial and juror fees shall not be claimed if the county is participating in the Trial Court Funding Program. Pursuant to Section 77203, block grant disbursements to the county shall be in lieu of any reimbursement of state-mandated local programs for trial courts during those fiscal years in which it is a participant of the program. This provision does not apply to the first half of the 1988-89 fiscal year."

3) Chapter 644, Statutes of 1980

At "Reimbursement Limitations", first item under part 5:

"costs incurred for investigation, preparation for, and conduct of such proceedings (These costs shall not be claimed if the county is participating in the Trial Court Funding Program, unless they are incurred by the District Attorney.);"

Finally, as you are aware, it is not necessary to address the issue of statewide cost estimate surveys for these programs because sufficient funding is currently provided through the Commission's Local Assistance budget item.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

ROBERT W. EICH

PARAMETERS AND GUIDELINES
CHAPTER 1399, STATUTES OF 1976
CUSTODY OF MINORS

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976 added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5157, 5160 and 5169 of the Civil Code, added Sections 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended Sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters. Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interest in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional "tools" were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983 amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISION

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, contained a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceedings with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate are eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976 became effective July 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) states that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to Section 17561(d)(3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of notification by the State Controller of the enactment of the claims bill.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by GC Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney: actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; the enforcement of custody and visitation decrees; take all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and comply with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Civil Code Section 4604, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, the following cost items are reimbursable:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation degrees.

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child.

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance.

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with decrees or court orders.

      (3) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (4) Depositions.

   c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child.

(2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation decrees from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (Civil Code Sections 5150 through 5174) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

a. District Attorney cost of notifications sent if jurisdiction is refused.

b. Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

c. Cost of transporting the child to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child.

(2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized. Costs recovered from any party, individual or agency must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

3. Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

   a. Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

   b. Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having physical custody. The number of days for foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

4. Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child to the legal custodian or agency.

   a. Cost of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

   b. Cost of an escort for the child, including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's apprehension, surrender or first appearance, for offenses defined in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code.B.Costs associated with locating an offender and serving a warrant related to either criminal or civil proceedings defined in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

C. Governing Authority

The costs for the salary and expenses of the governing authority, as defined by the (Federal) Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87, such costs occur as an integral part of "general government" and, therefore, are not increased or decreased by mandated programs.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

A. Filing

Each claim for reimbursement pursuant to this mandate must be timely filed and set forth a listing of each reimbursable activity for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate.

B. Supporting Documentation

Claimed costs should be supported by the following:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s), involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however, benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract service performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. Services and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate can be claimed.

Expenditures will be categorized in accordance with the State Controller manual entitled "Accounting Standards and Procedures for Counties." Compensation for use of equipment is allowable through a use allowance or depreciation charge for the period it is assigned to the mandate; however, the cost is normally claimable through an indirect cost rate. If such cost is directly charged, a supporting schedule showing how this cost was computed must be attached.

4. Allowable Overhead Cost

Indirect costs may only be claimed through an indirect cost rate proposal prepared in accordance with the provisions of (Federal) Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87. Normally, the indirect cost rate will be a percentage of direct salary and benefit costs. Indirect costs may include cost of space, equipment, utilities, insurance, administration, etc. (i.e., those elements of indirect costs incurred as a result of the mandate, origination in the performing unit and the cost of central administrative services not otherwise treated as direct cost). The indirect cost rate must be shown on the report.

5. Reimbursements

On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

6. Mileage and Travel

Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

VIII. SUPPORTING DATA

For auditing purposes, all costs claimed must be traceable to source documents and/or worksheets that show evidence of and the validity of such costs. These documents must be kept on file by the agency submitting the claim for a period of no less than three (3) years from the date of the final payment of the claim pursuant to this mandate, and made available on the request of the State Controller or his agent.

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from this claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

The following certification must accompany the claim:

I DO HEREBY CERTIFY under penalty of perjury:

THAT the foregoing is true and correct;

THAT Sections 1090 through 1096, inclusive, of the Government Code and other applicable provisions of the law have been complied with;

and

THAT I am the person authorized by the local agency to file claims for funds with the State of California.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISION

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceedings with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandated program is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561(d)(3) of the Government Code (GC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of notification by the State Controller of the enactment of the claims bill.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by GC Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation decrees; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in Civil Code Section 4604, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

         a. Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

b. Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having physical custody. The number of days for foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor,

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

a. Cost of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

b. Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's apprehension, surrender or first appearance, for offenses defined in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code.

B. Costs associated with locating an offender and serving a warrant related to either criminal or civil

Child Abduction and Recovery- 98-4237-PGA-11

The enclosed Proposed Amendment to Parameters and Guidelines is scheduled for the August 26, 1999, Commission hearing beginning at 9:45 a.m. in Room 437 of the State Capitol. This item will be included on the proposed consent calendar.

Staff made minor revisions to the proposal submitted by your office to incorporate some of the format and language for parameters and guidelines recently adopted by the Commission. We believe the amendments proposed by staff accomplish the objectives discussed at the prehearing conference that was held on June 29, 1999.

Please contact Piper Rodrian or Shirley Opie at (916) 323-3562 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

PAULA HIGASHI
Executive Director

Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery

Executive Summary

Local agencies, school districts, or state agencies may request the Comrnission amend, modify, or supplement parameters and guidelines, [1] The State Controller's Office is required to issue revised claiming instructions within 60 days after receiving revised adopted parameters and guidelines. Eligible claimants have 120 days following the issuance date of the revised claiming instructions to file a claim.[2]

The County of Yolo Child Abduction Unit requested an amendment to the Parameters and Guidelines for the Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery program. The test claim statute'changed the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by county and state agencies.

A prehearing was held on June 29, 1999 at the County's request. Representatives from the County, the State Controller's Office, and the Department of Finance attended. The County subsequently submitted a revised proposal for amending the Parameters and Guidelines (see Exhibit B).

County's Proposed Amendments

The County proposes to revise the current Parameters and Guidelines to provide a more definitive list of allowable direct costs specific to salaries and benefits for District Attorney employees; equipment, including but not limited to vehicles, office equipment, and

The summary of the decision of the Board of Control in the current Parameters and Guidelines specifically states that the test claim statutes "imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems. " Therefore, staff finds: 1) that salaries and benefits for District Attorney employees are reimbursable to the extent they can be traced to specific reimbursable activities, and 2) it is not necessary to further amend the Parameters and Guidelines to specify that these costs are reimbursable. For purposes of determining which costs are reimbursable, the Parameters and Guidelines must be read as a whole.

The SCO recommends that "boilerplate" language regarding materials and supplies recently adopted by the Commission be added to the Parameters and Guidelines. Staff agrees and recommends that specific items (vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, and publications) be cited as examples of the types of cost elements that may be reimbursable as suggested by the County.

Travel and training are not specifically addressed in the current Parameters and Guidelines. Thus, staff agrees with the County that amendments are appropriate. Staff recommends the addition of language recently adopted by the Commission for these cost elements. Further, staff recommends adding examples of the types of training that may be reimbursed as requested by the County.

The proposed amendments pertaining to indirect costs are consistent with the methodology specified for computing indirect costs recently adopted by the Commission. This methodology was identified in workshops attended by claimants' representatives, Commission staff, State Controller's Office staff and Department of Finance staff. Staff also recommends that the Parameters and Guidelines be further amended to require claims to be submitted within 120 days of when the Controller issues claiming instructions to be consistent with existing law.

Staff Recommendation

Staff recommends the Commission approve the amendment to the Parameters and Guidelines requested by the County of Yolo Child Abduction Unit, as modified by staff (see Exhibit A). Staff's amendments to the County's revised proposal are shown in double strike though (deletions) and underline (additions).

Staff Analysis

Local agencies, school districts, or state agencies may request the Commission amend, modify, or supplement parameters and guidelines .[4] The State Controller's Office is required to issue revised claiming instructions within 60 days after receiving revised adopted parameters and guidelines. Eligible claimants have 120 days following the issuance date of the revised claiming instructions to file a claim.'

The County of Yolo Child Abduction Unit requested an amendment to the Parameters and Guidelines for the Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery program. The County alleges that the current Parameters and Guidelines do not provide enough definition of allowable costs which has "resulted in confusion as to whether some necessary costs, such as training and subscriptions to periodicals are reimbursable under the mandate."

The test claim statute was enacted in 1976. It changed the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by county and state agencies .[6]

[4] See footnote 1.

[5] See footnote 2.

[6] Statutes of 1992, Chapter 162, repealed sections 4600.1, 4604, 5 157, 5 160, and 5 169 of the Civil Code and enacted sections 3060 to 3064, 3 130 to 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code. Statutes of 1996, Chapter 988 repealed Penal Code sections 277, 27% and 278.5 and enacted Penal Code sections 277,278 and 278.5.

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that the test claim statute imposed a reimbursable state mandate by requiring district attorneys to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems, including visitation disputes, and the enforcement of child custody orders, orders to appear and any other order of the court in a custody proceeding. Reimbursable activities include locating and returning children that are illegally detained or concealed, proceeding with civil court action, and guaranteeing the appearance of the offenders in court actions.

A prehearing was held on June 29, 1999 at the County's request. Representatives from the County, the State Controller's Office, and the Department of Finance attended. The County subsequently submitted a revised proposal for amending the Parameters and Guidelines (see Exhibit B).

County's Proposed Amendments

The County proposes the following changes to the current Parameters and Guidelines:

- Add language describing the changes in law that occurred since the original statute was enacted and update references accordingly.
- Provide a more definitive list of allowable direct costs specific to salaries and benefits for District Attorney employees; equipment, including but not limited to vehicles, office equipment, and communication devices; training; and research material, including publications and subscriptions.
- Replace existing language in the "Allowable Overhead Costs" section with the "Indirect Costs" language recently adopted by the Commission that defines indirect costs and describes the procedures that must be used to calculate the indirect rate (OMB Circular A-87).
- Make other non-substantive amendments for clarity.

State Agency Comments

State Controller's Office

In response to the original request made by the County, the State Controller's Office (SCO) commented in their letter dated April 20, 1999 that the current Parameters and Guidelines clearly identify the activities and costs that are reimbursable under the mandate and, therefore, no amendments are necessary. The SCO submitted comments in a letter dated August 10, 1999 suggesting amendments to the County's amended proposal for the purpose of clarifying that claimed costs must be directly related to the mandate. The SCO suggested additional amendments to clarify that the equipment costs must be required for the mandate and suggests that language be added to limit training seminars/workshops that may be reimbursed to a "reasonable number." It is also recommended that the language for services and supplies be amended to be consistent with the "boilerplate" language used for other mandates. The SCO contends that the cost of membership in civic, business, technical, and professional organizations is optional, and not essential to carrying out the mandate. (See Exhibit C.)

Department of Finance

In their letter dated April 20, 1999, the Department of Finance deferred to the State Controller (see Exhibit D).

Office of the Attorney General

On April 30, 1999, the Attorney General (AG) submitted a letter expressing strong support for amending the Parameters and Guidelines (see Exhibit E). The AG noted that there is confusion as to which costs are reimbursable to district attorneys under the mandate. Recently, training costs which had been previously reimbursed were denied.

District Attorneys

Letters of support for amending the Parameters and Guidelines were received from ten District Attorneys (see Exhibit F).

Issue: Should the Commission approve the County of Yolo Child Abduction Unit's proposed amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines?

Staff reviewed the County's proposed amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines and finds the following:

Section I. Summary of the Mandate

The updates to statutory references proposed by the County merely reflect changes in law that pertain to the original mandate. Statutes of 1992, Chapter 162 repealed provisions in the Civil Code and enacted them in the Family Code to establish a comprehensive scheme relating to family law, adoption procedures, and the prevention of domestic violence. Statutes of 1996, Chapter 988, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a pre-existing child custody order. Updates are made in other sections of the Parameters and Guidelines as appropriate.

Section IV. Period of Reimbursement

Staff recommends that the Parameters and Guidelines be further amended to update provisions for claiming costs. The existing language is obsolete. Current Government Code section 17561 (d)(3) requires claims to be submitted within 120 days of when the Controller issues claiming instructions.

Section V. Reimbursable Costs, Paragraph B. Reimbursable Activities

The County also proposes to add language to the Reimbursable Activities (Section V) of the Parameters and Guidelines that relates to direct and indirect costs associated with salaries and benefits of District Attorney employees, equipment, research material and training. Staff recommends that these modifications be addressed in "Claim Preparation and Submission" (Section VII) of the Parameters and Guidelines to distinguish between what activities are reimbursable from what cost elements can be claimed.

The summary of the decision of the Board of Control in the current Parameters and Guidelines specifically states that the test claim statutes "imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems. " Therefore, staff finds: 1) that salaries and benefits for District Attorney employees are reimbursable to the extent they can be traced to specific reimbursable activities, and 2) it is not necessary to further amend the Parameters and Guidelines to specify that these costs are reimbursable. For purposes of determining which costs are reimbursable, the Parameters and Guidelines must be read as a whole.

Section VII. Claim Preparation and Submission, Paragraph A, Direct Costs

The SCO recommends that "boilerplate" language regarding materials and supplies recently adopted by the Commission be added to the Parameters and Guidelines. Staff agrees and recommends that specific items (vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, and publications) be cited as examples of the types of cost elements that may be reimbursable as suggested by the County.

Travel and training are not specifically addressed in the current Parameters and Guidelines, Thus, staff agrees with the County that amendments are appropriate. Staff recommends the addition of language adopted by the Commission for these cost elements. Further, staff recommends adding examples of the types of training that may be reimbursable as recornmended by the County.

Section VII. Claim Preparation and Submission, Paragraph B, Indirect Costs

The proposed amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines are consistent with the methodology for computing indirect costs recently adopted by the Commission.' This methodology was identified in workshops attended by claimants, representatives, Commission staff, and staff from the State Controller's Office and the Department of Finance. Recent amendments to other parameters and guidelines included this change. As noted by the State Controller's Office, the language regarding services and supplies should be revised to be consistent with "boilerplate" language used more recently in parameters and guidelines adopted by the Commission.

Technical Changes. Staff made other non-substantive changes.

Staff Recommendation

Staff recommends the Commission approve the amendments to the Parameters and Guidelines as requested by the County of Yolo Child Abduction Unit as modified by staff (see Exhibit A). Staff's amendments to the County's revised proposal are shown in Exhibit A in double strike through (deletions) and underline (additions),

CHAPTER 162, STATUTES OF 1992
CHAPTER 988, STATUTES OF 1996
CUSTODY OF MINORS-CHILD ABDUCTION AND RECOVERY

I. SUMMARY OF MANDATE

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, added Sections 4600.1 and 4604 to and amended Sections 5 157, 5 160, and 5 169 of the Civil Code, added Section 278 and 278.5 to the Penal Code, and amended sections 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which increased the level of service provided by several county departments which must become involved in child custody matters, Where previously parents or others interested in the custody status of minors pursued their interests in court with no assistance from law enforcement agencies, due to this statute counties are required to actively assist in the resolution of custody problems and the enforcement of custody decrees. To accomplish this, several additional tools were provided to the courts and enforcement agencies in this legislation, including changes in the procedures for filing petitions to determine custody and enforce visitation rights, increased authorization to issue warrants of arrest to insure compliance, and increased access to locator and other information maintained by County and State departments. These activities increased the level of service provided to the public under Title 9 of Part 5 of the Civil Code, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Chapter 990, Statutes of 1983, amended Section 4604 of the Civil Code to clarify that the enforcement requirements of this section applied to visitation decrees as well as custody decrees.

Chapter 162, Statutes of 1992, repealed Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5 157, 5 160, and 5 169 of the Civil Code and without substantial change enacted Sections 3060 to 3064, 3 130 to ~~3133~~, 3134.5, 3408, 3411, and 3421 of the Family Code.

Chapter 988, statutes of 1996, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, repealed Sections 277,278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code and enacted in a new statutory scheme in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 which eliminated the distinction between cases with and cases without a preexisting child custody order,

II. BOARD OF CONTROL DECISIONS

On September 19, 1979, the Board of Control determined that Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, imposed a reimbursable state mandate upon counties by requiring district attorney offices to actively assist in the resolution of child custody problems including visitation disputes, the enforcement of custody decrees and of any other order of the court in a child custody proceeding. These activities include all actions necessary to locate a child, the enforcement of child custody decrees, orders to appear, or any other court order defraying expenses related to the return of an illegally detained, abducted or concealed child, proceeding with civil court actions, and guaranteeing the appearance of offenders and minors in court actions. The Board's finding was in response to a claim of first impression filed by the County of San Bernardino.

III. ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS

Any county which incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement of those costs.

IV. PERIOD OF REIMBURSEMENT

Chapter 1399, Statutes of 1976, became effective January 1, 1977. Section 17557 of the Government Code (GC) stated that a test claim must be submitted on or before November 30th following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim for this mandate was filed on April 17, 1979; therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1978, are reimbursable. San Bernardino County may claim and be reimbursed for mandated costs incurred on or after July 1, 1977.

Actual costs for one fiscal year should be included in each claim. Estimated costs for the subsequent year may be included on the same claim, if applicable. Pursuant to section 17561 (d) (3) of the Government Code (CC), all claims for reimbursement of costs shall be submitted within 120 days of -issuance of the claiming instructions by the State Controller ~~of the enactment of the claim bill~~.

If the total costs for a given fiscal year do not exceed $200, no reimbursement shall be allowed, except as otherwise allowed by GC Section 17564.

V. REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Scope of the Mandate

Counties shall be reimbursed for the increased costs which they are required to incur to have the district attorney actively assist in the resolution of child custody and visitation problems; for the enforcement of custody and visitation ~~decrees~~ orders; for all actions necessary to locate and return a child(ren) by use of any appropriate civil or criminal proceeding; and for complying with other court orders relating to child custody or visitation, as provided in ~~Civil Code Section 4604~~ Family Code Sections 3 130 to 3 134.5, with the exception of those activities listed in Section VI.

B. Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant meeting the above criteria, all direct and indirect costs of labor, materials and supplies, training and travel for the following-- activities are eligible for reimbursement:

1. Obtaining compliance with court orders relating to child custody or visitation proceedings and the enforcement of child custody or visitation ~~decrees~~ orders, including:

   a. Contact with child(ren) and other involved persons.

      (1) Receipt of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Mediating with or advising involved individuals. Mediating services may be provided by other departments. If this is the case, indicate the department.

      (3) Locating missing or concealed offender and child(ren).

   b. Utilizing any appropriate civil or criminal court action to secure compliance,

      (1) Preparation and investigation of reports and requests for assistance.

      (2) Seeking physical restraint of offenders and/or the child(ren) to assure compliance with ~~decrees or~~ court orders.

      (3)

      (4) Process services and attendant court fees and costs.

      (5) Depositions.

c. Physically recovering the child(ren).

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child. All such items purchased must be itemized.

2. Court actions and costs in cases involving child custody or visitation ~~decrees~~ orders from another jurisdiction, which may include, but are not limited to, utilization of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act ~~(Civil Code Sections 5150 through 5174)~~ (Family Code Sections 3400 through 3425) and actions relating to the Federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (42 USC 1738A) and The Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Senate Treaty Document 99-11, 99th Congress, 1st Session).

a. ~~District Attorney=s cost of notifications sent if jurisdiction is refused.~~ Cost of providing foster care or other short-term care for any child pending return to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian. The reimbursable period of foster home care or other short-term care may not exceed three days unless special circumstances exist.

Please explain the special circumstances. A maximum of ten days per child is allowable. Costs must be identified per child, per day. This cost must be reduced by the amount of state reimbursement for foster home care which is received by the county for the child(ren) so placed.

b. Cost of transporting the child(ren) to the out-of-jurisdiction custodian.

(1) Travel expenses, food, lodging, and transportation for the escort and child(ren).

(2) Other personal necessities for the child(ren). All such items purchased must be itemized. Cost recovered from any party, individual or agency, must be shown and used as an offset against costs reported in this section.

(3) Securing appearance of offender and/or child(ren) when an arrest warrant has been issued or other order of the court to produce the offender or child(ren).

(a) Cost of serving arrest warrant or order and detaining the individual in custody, if necessary, to assure appearance in accordance with the arrest warrant or order.

(b) Cost of providing foster home care or other short-term care for any child requiring such because of the detention of the individual having custody. The number of days for the foster home care or short-term care shall not exceed the number of days of the detention period of the individual having physical custody of the minor.

(4) Return of an illegally obtained or concealed child(ren) to the legal custodian or agency.

(a) Costs of food, lodging, transportation and other personal necessities for the child(ren) from the time he/she is located until he/she is delivered to the 'legal custodian or agency. All personal necessities purchased must be itemized.

(b) Cost of an escort for the child(ren), including costs of food, lodging, transportation and other expenses where such costs are a proper charge against the county. The type of escort utilized must be specified.

Any funds received as a result of costs assessed against a defendant or other party in a criminal or civil action for the return or care of the minor(s) (or defendant, if not part of a criminal extradition) must be shown and used as an offset against these costs.

~~3. For eligible claimants the following costs expended pursuant to this mandate are reimbursable:~~

~~a. Salaries and benefits for District Attorney employees.~~

~~(1) Salaries and benefits for employee exclusively used pursuant to this mandate, shall be completely reimbursed.~~

~~(2) Salaries and benefits for employee partially used pursuant to this mandate, shall be proportionally reimbursed for that time actually spent performing mandated activities.~~

~~b. Cost of equipment including but not limited to vehicles, office equipment, and communication devices.~~

~~(1) Equipment used exclusively in the performance of this mandate, shall be completely reimbursed.~~

~~(2) Equipment used partially to perform mandated activities, shall be reimbursed for the proportion of time used performing mandated activities relative to its overall use.~~

~~c. ost of child abduction training, including tuition, travel, and per diem shall be fully reimbursable. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training reasonably related to child abduction and this mandate.~~

~~d. Cost of research material, including but not limited to, publications and subscriptions.~~

~~(1) esearch material used exclusively in the performance of this mandate, shall be completely reimbursed.~~

~~(2) Research material used partially to perform mandated activities, shall be reimbursed for the proportion of time used performing mandated activities relative to its overall use.~~

~~e. Cost of memberships, subscriptions, and professional activities in furtherance of this mandate.~~

VI. NON-REIMBURSABLE COSTS

A. Costs associated with criminal prosecution, commencing with the defendant's ~~apprehension, surrender or~~ first appearance in a California court, for offenses defined in Sections ~~277,~~ 278 or 278.5 of the Penal Code~~, wherein the~~ missing,~~-~~ abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

B Costs associated with locating an offender and serving a warrant related to either criminal or civil proceedings defined in Sections 277, 278 and 278.5 of the Penal Code wherein the missing, abducted, or concealed child(ren) has been returned to the lawful person or agency.

C. Governing Authority

The cost for the salary and expenses of the governing authority, as defined by the (Federal) Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87, such costs occur as an integral part of "general government" and, therefore, are not increased or decreased by mandated programs.

VII. CLAIM PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION

Claims for reimbursement must be timely filed and identify each cost element for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate. Claimed costs must be identified to each reimbursable activity identified in Section V of this document.

A. iling

Each claim for reimbursement pursuant to this mandate must be timely filed and set forth a listing of each reimbursable activity for which reimbursement is claimed under this mandate.

A. Direct Costs

Direct costs are defined as costs that can be traced to specific goods. services, units. programs, activities or functions.

Claimed costs shall be supported by the following: cost element information:

B. Supporting Documentation

Claimed costs should be supported by the following:

1. Salary and Employees' Benefits

Identify the employee(s), show the classification of the employee(s) involved, describe the mandated functions performed and specify the actual number of hours devoted to each function, the productive hourly rate, and the related benefits. The average number of hours devoted to each function may be claimed if supported by a documented time study. Benefits are reimbursable; however benefit rates must be itemized. If no itemization is submitted, 21 percent must be used for computation of claimed cost.

2. Contracted Services

Provide copies of the contract, separately show the contract services performed relative to the mandate, and the itemized costs for such services. Invoices must be submitted as supporting documentation with the claim.

3. ~~Services~~ Materials and Supplies

Only expenditures which can be identified as a direct cost of the mandate such as, but not limited to,, vehicles, office equipment, communication devices, memberships, subscriptions, publications, ~~training registration fees, can~~ may be claimed. List the cost of the materials and supplies consumed specifically for the purposes of this mandate. Purchases shall be claimed at the actual price after deducting cash discounts, rebates and allowances received from the claimant. Supplies that are withdrawn from inventory shall be charged based on a recognized method of costing, consistently applied. ~~Expenditures will be categorized in accordance with the State Controller manual entitled "Accounting Standards and Procedures for Counties." Compensation for use of equipment is allowable through a use allowance or depreciation charge for the period it is assigned to the mandate; however, the cost is normally claimable through an indirect cost rate. If such cost is directly charged, a supporting schedule showing how this cost was computed must be attached.~~

4. Travel

Travel expenses for mileage, per diem, lodging, and other employee entitlement are eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules of the local jurisdiction. Provide the name(s) of the traveler(s), purpose of travel, inclusive dates and times of travel, destination points, and travel costs.

5. Training

The cost of training an employee to perform the mandated activities is eligible for reimbursement. Identify the employee(s) by name and job classification. Provide the title and subject of the training session, the date(s) attended? and the location. Reimbursable costs may include salaries and benefits, registration fees, transportation, lodging, and per diem. Ongoing training is essential to the performance of this mandate because of frequent turnover in staff, rapidly changing technology, and developments in case law, statutes and procedures. Reimbursable training under this section includes child abduction training scheduled during the California Family Support Council's conferences, the annual advanced child abduction training sponsored by the California District Attorney Association, and all other professional training.

~~4.~~B. Indirect Costs

Indirect costs are defined as costs which are incurred for a common or joint purpose, benefiting more than one program and are not directly assignable to a particular department or program without efforts disproportionate to the result achieved. Indirect costs may include both (1) overhead costs of the unit performing the mandate, and (2) the costs of central government services distributed to other departments based on a systematic and rational basis through a cost allocation plan.

Compensation for indirect costs is eligible for reimbursement utilizing the procedure provided in the OMB Circular A-87. Claimants have the option of using 10% of direct labor, excluding fringe benefits, or preparing an Indirect Cost Rate Proposal (ICRP) for the department if the indirect cost rate claimed exceeds 10%. If more than one department is claiming indirect costs for the mandated program, each department must have its own ICRP prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-87. An ICRP must be submitted with the claim when the indirect cost rate exceeds 10%.

~~4. Allowable Overhead Costs~~

~~Indirect costs may only be claimed through an indirect cost rate proposal prepared in accordance with the provisions of (Federal) Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87. Normally, the indirect cost rate will be a percentage of direct salary and benefit costs. Indirect costs may include costs of space, equipment, utilities, insurance, administration, etc. (i.e., those elements of indirect costs incurred as a result of the mandate, origination in the performing unit and the cost of central administration services not otherwise treated as direct cost). The indirect cost rate must be shown on the report.~~

~~5.~~ 1. Reimbursements

On a separate schedule, show details of any reimbursements received from the individuals or agencies involved in these cases. Show the total amount of such reimbursements as a reduction of the amount claimed on the cost summary form.

In addition, the costs claimed must be reduced by the amount recovered from the charges imposed by the court.

Any amount received by a county and forwarded directly to the state, must be reported on the cost summary form, but will not reduce the amount of the claim.

~~6.~~ 2. Mileage and Travel

Local entities will be reimbursed according to the rules of the local jurisdiction.

~~7. Training~~

~~Local entities will be reimbursed for training conducted pursuant to section V. B. 3. e., herein.~~

VIII. SUPPORTING DATA

For auditing purposes, all costs claimed must be traceable to source documents and/or worksheets that show evidence of and the validity of such costs. These documents must be kept on file by the agency submitting the claim for a period specified in Government Code section 17558.5. ~~of no less than three (3) years from the date of the final payment of the claim pursuant to this mandate, and made available on the request of the State Controller or his agent.~~

IX. OFFSETTING SAVINGS AND OTHER REIMBURSEMENT

Any offsetting savings the claimant experiences as a direct result of this statute must be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate received from any source e.g., federal, state, etc., shall be identified and deducted from the claim.

X. REQUIRED CERTIFICATION

An authorized representative of the claimant will be required to provide a certification of the claim, as specified in the State Controller's claiming instructions, for those costs mandated by the state contained herein.

III. REPORT FROM CLOSED EXECUTIVE SESSION

At 9:45 a.m., Chairperson Porini reported that, as noticed under Section II of the Notice and Agenda, the Commission met in closed executive session pursuant to Government Code section 11126 to confer with and receive advice from legal counsel for consideration and action as necessary and appropriate upon pending litigation listed on the published notice and agenda.

IV. APPROVAL OF MINUTES (action)

Item 1 July 29, 1999

Upon motion by Member Steinmeier and second by Member Gomes, the minutes were adopted unanimously. Member Van Houten abstained.

V. PROPOSED CONSENT CALENDAR

The Consent Calendar consisted of Items 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8. Upon motion by Member Beltrami and second by Member Steinmeier, the Consent Calendar was adopted unanimously.

VI. HEARING PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA CODE OF REGULATIONS, TITLE 2, CHAPTER 2.5, ARTICLE 7

A. TEST CLAIM (action)

Item 2 Peace Officers Procedural Bill of Rights – CSM-4499
City of Sacramento, Claimant
Statutes of 1976, Chapter 465
Statutes of 1978, Chapters 775, 1173, 1174, 1178
Statutes of 1979, Chapter 405
Statutes of 1980, Chapter 1367
Statutes of 1982, Chapter 944
Statutes of 1983, Chapter 964
Statutes of 1989, Chapter 1165
Statutes of 1990, Chapter 675

Camille Shelton of Commission staff introduced this item. She noted that this test claim legislation, the Peace Officers Procedural Bill of Rights (POBOR), provides procedural protection to peace officers employed by local agencies and school districts when a peace officer is interrogated by the employee, is facing punitive action, or receives an adverse comment. All parties agree that the test claim legislation imposes some of the notice and hearing protections to employees required by the due process clause of the United States and California Constitutions. The Commission staff analyzed the due process clause and the test claim legislation to determine if the activities required by the legislation constitute a new program or higher level of service and if those activities impose costs mandated by the state. The parties dispute the staff's analysis regarding the extent that the procedural protections are already covered under the due process clause and when the requirements of the test claim legislation kick in.

Parties were represented as follows: Pamela Stone, Dee Contreras, Director of Labor Relations, and Edward Takach, Labor Relations Officer, all for the City of Sacramento; Allan Burdick for California Cities' SB 90 Service; Elizabeth Stein, Staff Counsel for the State Personnel Board; and, Joseph Shinstock and Jim Apps for the Department of Finance. The witnesses were sworn in.

Ms. Contreras provided detailed testimony of the effects of the legislation on the City of Sacramento. She explained that, in the State of California, with the exception of peace officers, you do not have the right to tape somebody without their permission. If a police officer, and his/her attorney, decides to tape an interview and the City does not, they have a record that the City does not have, or the City must rely on a tape made by the employee it is investigating. (Ms. Contreras submitted that all police officers being interviewed tape the session.) If the City takes notes rather than tapes, its record will be inferior. Before reinterviewing an employee, the city is required to transcribe the tapes and provide the employee with a copy. She submitted that the test claim legislation requires the City to provide additional rights to people, which impacts staff, time, documentation, and record-keeping for all of those activities.

Ms. Contreras concurred with staff's recommendation to the extent that it acknowledges the additional burden placed on local government, but was still concerned that the issue of at-will employees is not recognized in its totality. In other words, under the City's system, at-will employees have no right to appeal or respond to discipline because they have no property interest in their management jobs. However, the test claim legislation gives them that right.

Ms. Stein submitted the following:

- In Stanton v. State Personnel Board, there is clear language that due process rights are covered by POBOR and that POBOR is consummate with due process protections. On this point, Ms. Stein agreed with staff's analysis.
- Though she understood the problems local governments have regarding tape recordings, Ms. Stein noted that case law says that if the activity is not mandated, it is not reimbursable.
- Ms. Stein disagreed with staff's consideration of POBOR as it existed when the test claim was enacted and submitted that it was inherently wrong not to recognize the amendment to the statute, which limits the right to an administrative appeal to public safety officers who have successfully completed the probationary period.
- Regarding disciplinary transfer cases, Ms. Stein submitted that the State regularly has cases of transfers clearly designated as disciplinary. In those cases, the State does provide due process protections.

Ms. Shelton explained staff's interpretation of the Runyon and Howell cases relating to due process rights for transfers. Ms. Stein disagreed with staff's analysis.

Member Beltrami thought the Personnel Board made an interesting argument that the City should like this legislation because it tightens up things and should therefore save money in the long run. Ms. Contreras responded that, "To the extent anybody thinks that this law, in particular, or that legislation, in general, creates harmony and improves processes, they are naïve in the extreme."

Member Steinmeier agreed with most of staff's analysis. However, even if the law says "may", she submitted that taping is required by the nature of doing business—the employer must have its own record if the employee tapes. Regarding the issue on written reprimands, Member Steinmeier submitted that it flows from the Federal Constitution. Ms. Stone disagreed.

In response to Member Foulkes, the parties explained the distinction between "adverse comment" and "written reprimand." Ms. Shelton clarified that, in its analysis, staff acknowledged two different steps: The first step is an adverse comment, and if that results in another disciplinary action, then the next steps required for that stage are followed. These steps may be duplicative.

In response to Member Beltrami, Ms. Shelton explained that the 1998 amendment regarding administrative appeals became effective on January 1, 1999. However, probationary and at-will employees were entitled to an administrative appeal until December 31, 1998.

Member Foulkes asked whether additional duties were being added regarding the notice of interrogation. Ms. Shelton replied that staff found that was a new program or higher level of service since notice is required before any misconduct is charged. This is a requirement before they even get into due process rights. If the interrogation results in a disciplinary action, the employer would still be required to send another notice for the disciplinary action.

In response to Member Gomes, Ms. Contreras explained how a higher burden is created by the notice of interrogation since the employee knows what is going to be happening during the investigation.

Ms. Shelton explained to Member Beltrami that staff broke down its analysis on adverse comments by entity because prior law was different for each type of entity.

Mr. Burdick expressed his hope that, if any areas are unclear, they can be left on the table to be dealt with during the parameters and guidelines. Ms. Shelton agreed that the activities in the parameters and guidelines will be more detailed, but the activities in staff's analysis are required to be analyzed by the Commission to first determine if there is a reimbursable state mandated program. She noted that the issue regarding written reprimands needs to be determined today, though the questions on scope and extent could be left to the parameters and guidelines. Mr. Burdick submitted that the Commission could leave those questions if they wanted to. Ms. Shelton disagreed.

Member Steinmeier moved staff's recommendation, with the additional finding that the activity of tape recording the interrogation when the employee records the interrogation constitutes a reimbursable state mandated activity. Member Beltrami seconded the motion. The motion passed 5-1, with the Chair voting "No."

B. REQUESTS TO AMEND PARAMETERS AND GUIDELINES (action)

Item 5 Mandate Reimbursement Process – Amendment
CSM-4485-PGA-98-01
Statutes of 1975, Chapter 486
Statutes of 1984, Chapter 1459
Statutes of 1995, Chapter 303 (Budget Act of 1995)
Statutes of 1996, Chapter 162 (Budget Act of 1996)
Statutes of 1997, Chapter 282 (Budget Act of 1997)
Statutes of 1998, Chapter 324 (Budget Act of 1998)
Statutes of 1999, Chapter 50 (Budget Act of 1999)

Piper Rodrian of Commission staff introduced this item. These parameters and guidelines allow claimants to seek reimbursement for costs incurred during the mandate process. The original parameters and guidelines were adopted in 1986. Since 1995, staff has updated them annually to include the language in that year's Budget Act. Ms. Rodrian noted that the Education Mandated Cost Network (EMCN) and California State Association of Counties (CSAC) requested further amendment to include reimbursement for participation in workshops, rulemaking proceedings, and similar Commission business. Staff disagreed because these activities are not required, nor are they tied to the resolution of a successful test claim.

Parties were represented as follows: Leonard Kaye for the County of Los Angeles; Carol Berg for EMCN; Allan Burdick for CSAC; Marcia Faulkner for San Bernardino County; and, Jim Cunningham for San Diego Unified School District.

Mr. Burdick explained that claimants and representatives often participate in workshops or proceedings to give input from local government to assist the Commission in improving or developing processes. Though these workshops are not tied to specific claims, Mr. Burdick contended that participation should be included as part of the mandate process.

Ms. Berg alleged that participation in such proceedings fits under the section entitled, "Scope of the Mandate." From the current parameters and guidelines, she cited the sentences reading, "Locals cannot be made whole unless these things are included," and "Since local costs would not have been incurred for test claims and reimbursement claims but for the implementation of state imposed mandates, all resulting costs are recoverable." Ms. Berg further noted that this request is not new—training was added as a reimbursable activity.

Mr. Kaye submitted that participation in workshops and proceedings should fall under training because they are designed to assist claimants in identifying and correctly preparing state-required documentation. He noted that the parameters and guidelines do not contain a specific exclusion.

Member Gomes commented that "similar business" seems somewhat vague and asked for clarification from claimants. Mr. Burdick and Ms. Berg explained that they included that phrase so that, if the Commission says "special meeting," or some term other than "workshop" or "rulemaking proceeding," it would be clear to the State Controller's Office that participation is still reimbursable.

Ms. Higashi explained that the term "workshop" is typically used to define a session that is informal in nature and all interested parties are invited to attend. In response to Member Gomes, she noted that participation is voluntary.

Mr. Cunningham disagreed that participation is voluntary. He submitted that many times the subject matter is critical to claimants' constitutional rights to reimbursement.

Ms. Steinmeier encouraged claimants to participate. She warned the Commission that, if claimants are not reimbursed, the Commission might get a skewed representation at workshops. In other words, smaller districts may not be able to afford it, or claimants further away from Sacramento may not show because it imposes more of a cost (travel, accommodations). She noted that claimants are reimbursed for training to understand the mandate reimbursement process, so this request is not much of a stretch. She thought the Commission should consider it as a possible addition.

Ms. Faulkner submitted that participation is critical to her ability to pursue successful test claims and reimbursement claims. She believed that the parameters and guidelines workshops, though not tied to specific claims, have resulted in savings for everyone. Ms. Faulkner contended that, though technically optional, if claimants fail to participate in the process, they could be punished in the form of having their test claims or reimbursement claims denied.

Mr. Cunningham submitted that this is just an interpretation of the test claim finding in the parameters and guidelines, so there is a legal basis for this action.

Member Gomes agreed with Member Steinmeier, though she wanted "similar business" eliminated.

Member Foulkes agreed with staff's analysis. He noted that sometimes Commision staff might be pressured by the claimants to hold a workshop. Down the road, the Commission may be in a difficult position as to having to define whether a workshop is for required purposes or just because people want to have a meeting.

Mr. Burdick clarified that claimants are not trying to be reimbursed for participation in the legislative process. Rather, they are trying to get reimbursement for the implementation of statutes that are in place.

Ms. Higashi suggested adding reimbursement for "workshops convened by the Commission" under the "Training" section.

Member Steinmeier noted that it might not be appropriate to include rulemaking proceedings because any interested person has a right to attend.

Ms. Higashi suggested continuing the item to the next hearing. Mr. Cunningham and

Ms. Berg agreed. However, Mr. Cunningham submitted that rulemaking proceedings should be included. The Chair said that might be pushing too far. She directed staff to work on the language and bring it back next month.

Item 6 Custody of Minors-Child Abduction and Recovery – CSM-98-PGA-4237-11
(Civil Code Sections 4600.1, 4604, 5157, 5160, and 5169)

Statutes of 1995, Chapters 66 and 91

VIII. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Item 9 Proposed Policy on Ethics Orientation (action)

Paula Higashi introduced this item, explaining that the Legislature recently enacted a new law requiring state agencies to offer an orientation course on ethics statutes and regulations governing the conduct of state officials. The orientation consists of viewing the specified training video or Internet documents and a list of statutory conflicts of interest imposed on state officials, if applicable. The requirement must be completed by the end of this year and applies only to Commission Members, the Executive Director, and Chief Legal Counsel.

Since the Commission is their appointing authority, Ms. Higashi requested the Members adopt the proposed Incompatible Activities Statement, applicable to the Executive Director and Chief Legal Counsel, and modeled after the Attorney General's office.

Member Beltrami questioned a few of the items on the list. Ms. Jorgensen replied that it is part of the state law and cannot be changed without statutory amendment. Ms. Shelton added that the video gives examples to clarify.

Member Gomes moved for adoption of the proposed policy. With a second by Member Beltrami, the item passed unanimously.

Item 10 Legislation, Workload, and September Agendas

Paula Higashi reported the following:

- AB 1679. Possible proposed amendments include: 1) removal of the provision setting a six-month statute of limitations for the Commission to complete its work on incorrect reduction claims, and 2) addition of a provision giving the Controller's Office 90 days to review an incorrect reduction claim.
- AB 1110. The local claims bill is set for hearing Monday in the Senate Appropriations Committee.
- SB 1033 Application. Butte County approved filing of reapplication and passed their resolution. The application should be in next week. The members were given a revised tentative schedule.
- Workload. The E.D. Report includes the Incorrect Reduction Claims workload data on file in the Commission office at the time agenda materials were prepared. Staff met with claimants' representatives regarding the projected numbers of claims they anticipate filing within the next year. Staff subsequently met with representatives of the State Controller's Office (SCO).

  At these meetings, staff discussed their plan to address the current incorrect reduction claim (IRC) workload and the assistance it needs from claimants. Claimants agreed to 1) identify Open Meetings claims with issues similar to the San Diego claim and, 2) identify a representative sample of claims to act as leads for cities, counties, small school districts, and special districts. The Commission will determine remaining issues and send the representative claims to the SCO. The remaining claims will also be sent to the SCO for comment, though the SCO may be allowed to delay comments on those claims until the lead claims are resolved.

  Claimants have agreed to meet in informal conferences with the SCO, though the SCO is still considering that option.

The Open Meetings lead claims will be sent to the SCO to start the comment period. Once the records are closed, staff will come back to the Commission with recommendations.

Ms. Higashi reported an informal conference with Jim Cunningham, the lead claimant on the Graduation Requirements IRC regarding the administrative record. Staff may convene an informal conference including the SCO to identify the issues and determine if additional briefing is warranted before a determination can be made.

- Budget Change Proposal (BCP). The Commission's BCP will be based on the workload numbers presented, expectations for new workload, and staff's experience with past workload. Following today's meeting, Ms. Higashi will meet with representatives to discuss workload, priorities, and scheduling.
- Commission Office Move. The Department of General Services has identified a space, which is still under consideration. Staff should know more within the next few weeks.

The Chair acknowledged the claimants' and representatives' frustrations and noted that the Commission is trying to develop expedited processes for all claimants.

IX. PUBLIC COMMENT

None.

X. ADJOURNMENT

Hearing no further business, Chairperson Porini adjourned the hearing at 11:58 a.m.
